HOSPITAL REPORT

Shirley Ann Fox, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fox, Gettysburg R. 1, submitted to an operation at the Warner hospital Thursday evening for the removal of her appendix.

Mrs. Clair Ford, Fairfield R. 1; George Spangler, New Oxford, and Mrs. F. Mark Bream, Carlisle street, have been admitted as patients. Those discharged were Hazel Mickle, Biglerville R. 2; Mrs. Everett A. Bennett and infant son, Gary Alfred, Hanover street; Mrs. Earl Snyder and infant daughter, Joyce Ann, North Stratton street, and Mrs. Edgar C. McDannell, Biglerville R. D.

BULLETINS

Bern, Switzerland, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Journal de Geneve said today Gen. Maxime Weygand, former Allied generalissimo, had been arrested after refusing the Vichy post as heir to Marshal Petain, which subsequently was given Pierre Laval, and that he was now reported held in Germany. The account was confirmed by foreign diplomats.

London, Nov. 20 (AP)—General Ritter von Thoma, Nazi Africa Corps commander under Marshal Rommel, was in London today, the first captive Axis general to be brought to the British capital.

Fairchance, Pa., Nov. 20 (AP)—An explosion destroyed a small building and killed two workmen at the Dupont powder plant near this Fayette county community today. Superintendent E. I. Brown identified the victims as Edward Myers and C. James Edwards, 48, both of Fairchance, Pa., and both veteran employees. They were the only workers in the building. The Federal Bureau of Investigation in Pittsburgh reported agents were investigating the blast.

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Attorney General Biddle reported to Congress today that since August 22 six Federal employees had been discharged and one had been disciplined for membership in subversive organizations.

LEIBERKNIGHT IS AWARDED $1,366 IN DAMAGE SUIT

Seibert L. Leiberknight, Gettysburg, was awarded damages totaling $1,366 from George M. Zerling, local hardware merchant, by a jury in Adams county court here late Thursday afternoon after deliberating for less than two hours.

Mr. Leiberknight, who suffered a fracture of the skull, broken ribs, a broken leg and other injuries when he was hit by a truck operated by Mr. Zerling, originally had asked $10,000. The accident occurred December 12, 1941, on Seminary avenue near its intersection with Buford avenue.

Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., represented Mr. Zerling and Richard A. Brown, Esq., was counsel for Mr. Leiberknight.

Brief Defense Testimony

Defense testimony offered Thursday afternoon was brief and consisted chiefly of Mr. Zerling's account of the mishap and a witness who testified as to the position of the Zerling delivery truck after the accident. Mr. Zerling's explanation of his failure to see Mr. Leiberknight as the latter walked across Seminary avenue was that the pedestrian, wearing dark clothes, was "rendered invisible" by the varicolored neon lights on the street corner. Mr. Zerling said he did not see the man until a moment before the collision. He estimated his own speed at 15 miles an hour.

Mr. Leiberknight listed hospital, nurse and doctors' bills at $1,166 and claimed a sum for loss in wages at the rate of $8 a week. He also asked to be compensated for pain and suffering.

$1,791 Verdict For Boy's Injuries

The last jury trial of the session ended early this afternoon when a verdict of $1,791.25 was returned against Edna E. Hartlaub, New Oxford R. D., in favor of Richard A. Lawrence and his 16-year-old son, Lawrence, of Hanover R. 4. The plaintiffs had asked $10,000.

The verdict gave Mr. Lawrence $1,091.25 to cover bills as the result of his son's injuries and $200 to cover the loss of his earnings while the son was allowed $500 for pain and suffering.

The Lawrence boy suffered a broken leg and other injuries when the bicycle he was riding collided with a car operated by Mrs. Hartlaub near the Lawrence home before dawn on the morning of December 14, 1940.

Richard A. Brown, Esq., represented the plaintiffs and Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., the defendant.

This jury sat in the case: Frank H. Brames, Conewago township; Albert Keller, Straban township; Glenn L. Myers, New Oxford; Ralph E. Myers, East Berlin; Harry J. Neiderer, McSherrytown; Mrs. Ellen Quigley, Bendersville; William A. Smith, Aspers; Claude A. Snyder, Littlestown; A. K. Stock, York Springs; Emory Trostle, York Springs; Bruce Wetzel, McKnightstown; and Mrs. Winifred White, York street.

Court adjourned about 1:30 o'clock until Saturday morning when the regular session of sentence court will be held.

L. T. Willet Commissioned In Post Exchange Service

L. T. Willet has received a commission as first lieutenant in the United States Army assigned in the Army Post Exchange service. Mr. Willet will go to Princeton, New Jersey, where he will take the school training course.

Mr. Willet is manager of the Murphy store and has been with this company for the last 21 years. Prior to taking management of the Gettysburg store he was in charge of the State College store.

Mr. Willet is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Willet, West Middle street.

Bonneauville Boy, 3, Hit By Automobile

Three-year-old Benny Strausbaugh, of Bonneauville, suffered abrasions of the scalp and left arm at 4:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon when he was struck by a car operated by Clyde C. DeHaas, 33, 41 Steinwehr avenue, in Bonneauville.

The boy was reported to have been walking along the east side of the Littlestown road with his sister, Nancy, when they started across the road after a truck had passed. The DeHaas car was following the truck. The child was treated at the Warner hospital.

Private Anthony Martin, of the Gettysburg substation of the state motor police, investigated.

Friends Director To Talk At Flora Dale

David Swift, director of Detached Service of the American Friends Service committee, will talk at the meeting for worship of the Menallen Quarterly meeting of the Society of Friends which will be held at Flora Dale Sunday. William Enzor, of Baltimore, will also speak. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, preceded by First Day School at 10 o'clock.

Lunch will be served during the noon hour followed by a conference at 2 o'clock. The public is invited to attend all or any of the meetings.

S.U.V. Auxiliary To Entertain President

Members of the Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary of Gettysburg will entertain their department president, Mrs. Margaret McKinney, Philadelphia, at a meeting to be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the post room on East Middle street. Mrs. Sewell Kapp, Biglerville, is the local president. All of the officers are asked to wear white.

The Auxiliary has been invited to attend the Lincoln speech anniversary exercises to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the National cemetery under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans.

Airport Operator To Address C. Of C.

Richard Bircher, operator of the Gettysburg airport along the Mummaburg road, will be the speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the membership of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce which will be held next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Blue Parrot tea room. President Mares Sherman will preside.

Reservations for the dinner should be sent in to the Chamber office in the Kadel building by Monday noon.

G.E. UNION TO HOLD BANQUET

Approximately 75 persons are expected to be in attendance at the annual Fellowship banquet of the Adams County Christian Endeavor union to be held this evening at 6:30 o'clock in Mrs. Smith's restaurant here.

Robert Cassell, a student at Gettysburg college and County Christian Endeavor Missionary superintendent, will be the toastmaster. The evening program, which will be under the direction of Lois Yealy, of Littlestown, will include group singing, special numbers, stunts and Christian Endeavor promotional activities.

The committee planning the banquet comprises Lois Yealy, Rosea Armor and Robert Shryock.

WOULD CUT EXPENSES

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Declaring the federal payroll had almost doubled in the past year, Chairman Byrd (D-Va.) of a joint economy committee today pledged an effort to prune the expenses of all government agencies, from the White House down. In what appeared to be a well-defined move to cut deeply into the forthcoming new budget, Byrd told reporters the committee would concentrate largely on reducing the administrative costs of war agencies.

RETAILERS GET WEEK TO STOCK COFFEE; NOV. 28 IS RATION DATE

Retail coffee sales in Adams county grocery stores—and in grocery stores all over the nation—will be frozen at midnight Saturday for the week before actual rationing starts in order to permit retailers to stock their shelves for the beginning of rationed sales, the county war price and rationing board office here said today.

Beginning at midnight, November 28, every person in the country, 15 years old or over, will be entitled to a ration of one pound of coffee each five weeks.

Use Sugar Book
Consumers will get their first coffee ration by surrendering the last stamp of their War Ration Book 1, the book now used only for sugar rations. Subsequent rations of coffee will be on coupons taken in sequence toward the center of the book using stamp numbers 28 down to 19, while use of the book for sugar will continue exactly as in the past. Persons who did not obtain War Ration Book 1 may get it now from their local ration boards under certain conditions requiring the delivery of any surplus sugar that is on hand. 39 CERTIFICATES GIVEN AT END OF CHURCH SCHOOL

The annual Leadership Training school for church and Sunday School workers in Adams county completed its 1942 sessions Thursday evening at St. James Lutheran church where classes were held twice each week since November 2.

Certificates were awarded to 39 of the total of 49 persons who had enrolled in the school. The student body was addressed by the Rev. Lee J. Gable, a representative of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association under whose supervision the school was held. Devotions for the evening were led by Dr. Charles F. Sanders.

During a business session, all officers of the school were re-elected for another year. The list includes: President, the Rev. George E. Sheffer, New Oxford; vice president, the Rev. George E. Snyder, Gardners; treasurer, George T. Raffensperger, Gettysburg, and dean of the school, C. C. Culp of Gettysburg.

The Rev. Henry W. Sternat, Biglerville Lutheran pastor; the Rev. M. Snyder, Luther M. Lady of Biglerville and Charles Lott of Fairfield were named as members of the board of directors of the school for three-year terms. The Rev. E. Philip Sentz, McSherrytown, was chosen to serve out the unexpired term of the Rev. George H. Berkeheimer, former Arendtsville pastor now serving with the United States Army in Australia. His term will expire in 1944.

General plans were made for another school session next year in November and at the same place.

Menonites Plan 4th Thanksgiving Service Sunday

The fourth annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Bethlehem Menonite congregation will be held at the Mummaburg Union church all day Sunday.

A song and devotional service conducted by Bishop C. S. Keener, Hagerstown, will open the program at 9:30 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the Rev. J. A. Kreider, Annville, will deliver a sermon on "Faith, God's Gift," and at 10:45 the Thanksgiving sermon will be given by Bishop I. K. Metzler, Accident, Maryland.

At 1 p. m. a song and devotional service will be held which will be followed at 1:30 o'clock with a children's message by Victor Lehman. At 2 o'clock Bishop Metzler will speak on "Deal Thy Bread to the Hungry" and at 2:45 the Rev. Mr. Kreider will speak on "God's Gift, Salvation."

The evening program will include: Song service, 6:45 p. m. "Old Fashioned Ventures in a Modern World." Bishop Metzler, and evangelistic service by Elder J. M. Danner at 8 p. m.

The moderator on Sunday will be A. A. Landis and the chorists, J. A. Weaver and Michael Horst.

Allies Pin Japs In Thin Guinea Corridor; Sea Victory Grows

Foe Is Between Buna And Gona; Relief Smashed

By C. YATES McDANIEL

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Nov. 20 (AP)—American and Australian jungle fighters pinned the Japanese into a narrow corridor along the Papuan coast between Buna and Gona today after Allied airmen had smashed an enemy sea and air relief thrust, sinking a cruiser and destroyer and downing three planes.

Today's noon communique said that Allied ground forces are fighting in the outskirts of Buna, main enemy base in the battle area, and Gona, the settlement about 30 miles northwest along the coast where the Japanese made their initial landing in this region last July 22.

Japs Making Stand

After days of withdrawal with little or no resistance, the Japanese apparently are making stands on Buna and Gona in a last effort to prevent expulsion from the sector from which they launched the drive that menaced Port Moresby, on the Australian side of New Guinea, only last September.

Under the personal leadership of General MacArthur, the Allies seemed close to the climax of the counteroffensive which has driven the enemy back along his own path over the Owen Stanley mountains and down to the coastal jungles in about seven weeks.

A light cruiser and two destroyers stood in to shore near Gona under cover of darkness, the communique said, and were meeting landing barges when they were surprised by Allied heavy bombers dodging through rain squalls and under low clouds that the enemy evidently was counting on for concealment.

Using flares to guide them, the bombers drove in low, quickly scoring a hit amidships that sank the cruiser and planting another bulls-eye shot with a 500-pound bomb on one of the destroyers which split in two after a second explosion.

Sea Only Line of Escape
The remaining destroyer was damaged and forced to flee and the barges then were bombed and (Please Turn to Page 8)

Tokyo Loses 28 Ships In Disastrous 3-Day Fight

By JOHN H. WIGGINS

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States Navy dealt the Japanese fleet the most disastrous defeat in modern naval warfare, it became apparent today, with disclosure that enemy losses in last week's three-day sea battle probably reached the staggering proportions of 28 ships destroyed and 10 more damaged.

This setback, believed to have cost the Japanese two battleships, six heavy cruisers, two light cruisers, six destroyers and 12 transports and cargo ships, became even more crushing with news that Allied bombers sank another cruiser and a destroyer off New Guinea last night.

Victory Reports Grow

The American sea victory in the Solomons grew in magnitude last night when the Navy's delayed report on Saturday night's battle off Guadalcanal Island told of the sinking of a Japanese battleship or (Please Turn to Page 8)

OIL PIPELINE TO CROSS COUNTY

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 20 (AP)—An 857-mile extension of the "big inch" crude oil pipeline will pass through nine Pennsylvania counties under a plan announced by Burt E. Hull, general manager of the War Emergency Pipeline corporation.

The line, operated by WEP, now runs between Longview, Texas, and Norris City, Illinois. It will be extended from Norris City to Phoenixville, Pa., on as straight a line as terrain will permit.

In Pennsylvania it will traverse Greene, Fayette, Somerset, Bedford, Franklin, Adams, York, Lancaster and Chester counties. Sixteen survey parties already have taken the field.

Abbottstown Private In Casablanca Action

By HAROLD V. BOYLE

With a United States Task Force, Casablanca, French Morocco, Nov. 15 (Delayed) (AP)—The tragic story of the "lost squadron"—four American assault boats which ran into French destroyer fire here while they were searching for the Fedhala landing beaches—was told today by Second Lieutenant Edward W. Wellman of New York City.

He and 71 other survivors were captured by the French after the destroyer riddled the first two assault boats when she was hailed in the belief she was a United States warship.

They were among the few Americans taken prisoner during three days of fighting.

Among those from the two sunken boats who were captured and then released after the armistice, were Private Donald Holman, of Millerstown, Pa.; and Private Gene Wagner, of Abbottstown, Pa.

19 Casualties
There were 19 casualties in the engagement. Seventeen men in the first boat were sunk swam three and one-half miles to safety, some without lifelines.

Wellman, formerly employed in the advertising department of the New York Daily News, himself received minor injuries.

The men pulled away from transports in four assault boats about 3:30 a. m. Nov. 8, the first day of the attack.

"We were supposed to land on the beaches of Fedhala," Wellman said, "but through error the assault boats headed toward Casablanca, 13 miles away, where the French fleet was quartered."

"It was not until we were in Casablanca harbor that we realized that the fire toward which we were headed was not from oil tanks on Cape Fedhala but a French ship hit by our Naval fire."

Pvt. Wagner Inducted In 1941

Pvt. Levi Eugene Wagner, Abbottstown, was inducted into the Army in May, 1941.

Previous to his induction he had been employed by the Bethlehem Steel corporation at Bittinger's.

He is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Allen Claude Wagner. A sister of Private Wagner, Mrs. Paul Lookenbill, resides in Abbottstown.

Greeted by Machine-Gun Fire
"I was in one. When the men in the other hailed the vessel, a foreign voice answered. They shouted back 'we are Americans.'"

"A burst of machine-gun fire came from the destroyer, then only 15 yards away, and the first burst fatally wounded the captain."

"Realizing that resistance was useless against a destroyer, the men stood up and threw up their hands—some even tearing off their undershirts and waving them."

"The destroyer, perhaps thinking they were up to a trick, immediately opened fire with three-inch shells."

"Some men in the boat were killed by the shells and machinegun bullets; then Sergeant Claude Cunningham of Memphis, Tenn., sent the survivors over the side into the water."

Tried Ziz-Zagging

"The French kept on pumping shells into the boat until it sank. Under international law they could do this since it was an assault vessel. 'I was in the second boat, only 20 yards behind the first, and we

Halsey, Doolittle Given Promotions

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Vice Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., who led an American fleet to a spectacular victory over Japanese Naval forces in the southwest Pacific last week was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be a full admiral. At the same time the President gave recognition through promotions to two leaders in the north African campaign.

Brigadier General James H. Doolittle, in charge of American Air forces in north Africa, was nominated to be a major general. Doolittle, who commanded the air men who raided Tokyo, holds the permanent rank of major in the Air corps reserve.

Rear Admiral Henry K. Hewitt, who had a leading role in bringing the invasion forces successfully to north Africa and subduing the opposition of French Naval vessels, was nominated to be a vice admiral.

SOVIET VICTORY EASES PRESSURE ON GROZNY OIL

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, Nov. 20 (AP)—Red Army units pressed hard after fleeing Germans in the deep Caucasus today, following up a major victory that eased Nazi pressure on the great Grozny oil fields near the Caspian sea and on the military road leading south into the rich Transcaucasus.

Latest front line reports bore out the earlier impression that a major Fascist force—possibly four divisions of 45,000 men—was routed in a battle of several days on the approaches of Ordzhonikidze.

A special communique brought first news of the triumph last night, reporting 5,000 of the enemy killed, several times that many wounded and vast military booty captured.

Today's added details confirmed or revised upward all these figures and spread joy among the Russian people whose hope and confidence have been rising as temperatures have fallen under the impact of early winter.

The midday communique brought more good news from far to the north where the German casualties were set at 5,000 over a three-day period of futile attacks in an attempt to re-take a recently captured field. (Please Turn to Page 3)

Our Losses Minor In Tunisia

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Nov. 20 (AP)—Allied forces, having smashed one-third of a German armored column and crushed all Nazi tank attacks, are closing in on all landward sides around the Naval base of Bizerte and Tunis, capital of Tunisia, a headquarters spokesman said today.

Vanguards of the American and British combat teams and their pro-Allied French partners have reached points within 30 miles of both coastal cities which the Germans hold and, apparently, intend to defend as beachheads while all the rest of Tunisia falls into Allied hands.

Allied headquarters announced today that American and British troops, locked in the first heavy fighting in Tunisia, had driven back every German attempt to thrust out from their newly-formed lines around Tunis and Bizerte, while pro-Allied French soldiers captured small Nazi forces in eastern Tunisia.

At the same time, Adolf Hitler's high command acknowledged that fleeing Axis columns in Libya had abandoned Bengasi, the last escape port in north Africa east of Tripoli.

Allied headquarters reported today that American and British troops destroyed about one-third of a German armored column in the first heavy fighting in Tunisia and forced two other Nazi columns to retreat.

Dispatches said the opening battle for control of the strategic north African buffer state developed between 30 and 40 miles from Bizerte, big Axis-held Naval stronghold, with the Germans using their best medium tanks and dive bombers.

Allied losses were described as "minor."

"It appears that the Germans are digging in about 30 miles southeast of Bizerte and in

129 CALLED FOR ARMY EXAMS IN HARRISBURG ON DECEMBER 1

One hundred and twenty-nine Adams county men have been called for military service in the December draft, announcements by the two local draft boards disclosed today.

BULLETINS

Bern, Switzerland, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Journal de Geneve said today Gen. Maxime Weygand, former Allied generalissimo, had been arrested after refusing the Vichy post as heir to Marshal Petain, which subsequently was given Pierre Laval, and that he was now reported held in Germany. The account was confirmed by foreign diplomats.

London, Nov. 20 (AP)—General Rittner von Thoma, Nazi Africa Corps commander under Marshal Rommel, was in London today, the first captive Axis general to be brought to the British capital.

Fairchance, Pa., Nov. 20 (AP)—An explosion destroyed a small building and killed two workmen at the Dupont powder plant near this Fayette county community today. Superintendent E. I. Brown identified the victims as Edward Myers and C. James Edwards, 48, both of Fairchance, Pa., and both veteran employees. They were the only workers in the building. The Federal Bureau of Investigation in Pittsburgh reported agents were investigating the blast.

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Attorney General Biddle reported to Congress today that since August 22 six Federal employees had been discharged and one had been disciplined for membership in subversive organizations.

LEIBERKNIGHT IS AWARDED $1,366 IN DAMAGE SUIT

Seibert L. Leiberknight, Gettysburg, was awarded damages totaling $1,366 from George M. Zerling, local hardware merchant, by a jury in Adams county court here late Thursday afternoon after deliberating for less than two hours.

Mr. Leiberknight, who suffered a fracture of the skull, broken ribs, a broken leg and other injuries when he was hit by a truck operated by Mr. Zerling, originally had asked $10,000. The accident occurred December 12, 1941, on Seminary avenue near its intersection with Buford avenue.

Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., represented Mr. Zerling and Richard A. Brown, Esq., was counsel for Mr. Leiberknight.

Brief Defense Testimony
Defense testimony offered Thursday afternoon was brief and consisted chiefly of Mr. Zerling's account of the mishap and a witness who testified as to the position of the Zerling delivery truck after the accident. Mr. Zerling's explanation of his failure to see Mr. Leiberknight as the latter walked across Seminary avenue was that the pedestrian, wearing dark clothes, was "rendered invisible" by the varicolored neon lights on the street corner. Mr. Zerling said he did not see the man until a moment before the collision. He estimated his own speed at 15 miles an hour.

Mr. Leiberknight listed hospital, nurse and doctors' bills at $1,166 and claimed a sum for loss in wages at the rate of $8 a week. He also asked to be compensated for pain and suffering.

$1,791 Verdict For Boy's Injuries

The last jury trial of the session ended early this afternoon when a verdict of $1,791.25 was returned against Edna E. Hartlaub, New Oxford R. D., in favor of Richard A. Lawrence and his 16-year-old son, Lavere, of Hanover R. 4. The plaintiffs had asked $10,000.

The verdict gave Mr. Lawrence $1,091.25 to cover bills as the result of his son's injuries and $200 to cover the loss of his earnings while the son was allowed $500 for pain and suffering.

The Lawrence boy suffered a broken leg and other injuries when the bicycle he was riding collided with a car operated by Mrs. Hartlaub near the Lawrence home before dawn on the morning of December 14, 1940.

Richard A. Brown, Esq., represented the plaintiffs and Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., the defendant.

L. T. Willet Commissioned In Post Exchange Service

L. T. Willet has received a commission as first lieutenant in the United States Army assigned in the Army Post Exchange service. Mr. Willet will go to Princeton, New Jersey, where he will take the school training course.

Mr. Willet is manager of the Murphy store and has been with this company for the last 21 years. Prior to taking management of the Gettysburg store he was in charge of the State College store.

Mr. Willet is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Willet, West Middle street.

Bonneauville Boy, 3, Hit By Automobile

Three-year-old Benny Strausbaugh, of Bonneauville, suffered abrasions of the scalp and left arm at 4:45 o'clock Thursday afternoon when he was struck by a car operated by Clyde C. DeHaas, 33, 41 Steinwehr avenue, in Bonneauville.

The boy was reported to have been walking along the east side of the Littlestown road with his sister, Nancy, when they started across the road after a truck had passed. The DeHaas car was following the truck. The child was treated at the Warner hospital.

Private Anthony Martin, of the Gettysburg substation of the state motor police, investigated.

Friends Director To Talk At Flora Dale

David Swift, director of Detached Service of the American Friends Service committee, will talk at the meeting for worship of the Menallen Quarterly meeting of the Society of Friends which will be held at Flora Dale Sunday. William Ensor, of Baltimore, will also speak. The service will be held at 11 o'clock, preceded by First Day School at 10 o'clock.

Lunch will be served during the noon hour followed by a conference at 2 o'clock. The public is invited to attend all or any of the meetings.

S.U.V. Auxiliary To Entertain President

Members of the Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary of Gettysburg will entertain their department president, Mrs. Margaret McKinney, Philadelphia, at a meeting to be held Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the post room on East Middle street. Mrs. Sewell Kapp, Biglerville, is the local president. All of the officers are asked to wear white.

The Auxiliary has been invited to attend the Lincoln speech anniversary exercises to be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the National cemetery under the auspices of the Sons of Veterans.

Airport Operator To Address C. Of C.

Richard Bircher, operator of the Gettysburg airport along the Mummansburg road, will be the speaker at the monthly dinner meeting of the membership of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce which will be held next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock at the Blue Parrot tea room. President Mares Sherman will preside.

Reservations for the dinner should be sent in to the Chamber office in the Kadel building by Monday noon.

C.E. UNION TO HOLD BANQUET

Approximately 75 persons are expected to be in attendance at the annual Fellowship banquet of the Adams County Christian Endeavor union to be held this evening at 6:30 o'clock in Mrs. Smith's restaurant here.

Robert Cassell, a student at Gettysburg college and County Christian Endeavor Missionary superintendent, will be the toastmaster. The evening program, which will be under the direction of Lois Yealy, of Littlestown, will include group singing, special numbers, stunts and Christian Endeavor promotional activities.

The committee planning the banquet comprises Lois Yealy, Rosea Armor and Robert Shryock.

WOULD CUT EXPENSES

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Declaring the federal payroll had almost doubled in the past year, Chairman Byrd (D-Va.) of a joint economy committee today pledged an effort to prune the expenses of all government agencies, from the White House down. In what appeared to be a well-defined move to cut deeply into the forthcoming new budget, Byrd told reporters the committee would concentrate largely on reducing the administrative costs of war agencies.

RETAILERS GET WEEK TO STOCK COFFEE; NOV. 28 IS RATION DATE

Retail coffee sales in Adams county grocery stores—and in grocery stores all over the nation—will be frozen at midnight Saturday for the week before actual rationing starts in order to permit retailers to stock their shelves for the beginning of rationed sales, the county war price and rationing board office here said today.

Beginning at midnight, November 28, every person in the country, 15 years old or over, will be entitled to a ration of one pound of coffee each five weeks.

Use Sugar Book
Consumers will get their first coffee ration by surrendering the last stamp of their War Ration Book 1, the book now used only for sugar rations. Subsequent rations of coffee will be on coupons taken in sequence toward the center of the book using stamp numbers 28 down to 19, while use of the book for sugar will continue exactly as in the past. Persons who did not obtain War Ration Book 1 may get it now from their local ration boards under certain conditions requiring the delivery of any surplus sugar that is on hand. 39 CERTIFICATES GIVEN AT END OF CHURCH SCHOOL

The annual Leadership Training school for church and Sunday School workers in Adams county completed its 1942 sessions Thursday evening at St. James Lutheran church where classes were held twice each week since November 2.

Certificates were awarded to 39 of the total of 49 persons who had enrolled in the school. The student body was addressed by the Rev. Lee J. Gable, a representative of the Pennsylvania State Sabbath School association under whose supervision the school was held. Devotions for the evening were led by Dr. Charles F. Sanders.

During a business session, all officers of the school were re-elected for another year. The list includes: President, the Rev. George E. Sheffer, New Oxford; vice president, the Rev. George E. Snyder, Gardners; treasurer, George T. Raffensperger, Gettysburg, and dean of the school, C. C. Culp of Gettysburg.

The Rev. Henry W. Sternat, Biglerville Lutheran pastor; the Rev. Mr. Snyder, Luther M. Lady of Biglerville and Charles Lott of Fairfield were named as members of the board of directors of the school for three-year terms. The Rev. E. Philip Senft, McSherrystown, was chosen to serve out the unexpired term of the Rev. George H. Berkheimer, former Arentsville pastor now serving with the United States Army in Australia. His term will expire in 1944.

General plans were made for another school session next year in November and at the same place.

Mennonites Plan 4th Thanksgiving Service Sunday

The fourth annual Thanksgiving meeting of the Bethlehem Mennonite congregation will be held at the Mummansburg Union church all day Sunday.

A song and devotional service conducted by Bishop G. S. Keener, Hagerstown, will open the program at 9:30 o'clock. At 10 o'clock the Rev. J. A. Kreider, Annville, will deliver a sermon on "Faith, God's Gift," and at 10:45 the Thanksgiving sermon will be given by Bishop I. K. Metzler, Accident, Maryland.

At 1 p. m. a song and devotional service will be held which will be followed at 1:30 o'clock with a children's message by Victor Lehman. At 2 o'clock Bishop Metzler will speak on "Deal Thy Bread to the Hungry" and at 2:45 the Rev. Mr. Kreider will speak on "God's Gift, Salvation."

The evening program will include: Song service, 6:45 p. m. "Old Fashioned Ventures in a Modern World," Bishop Metzler, and evangelistic service by Elder J. M. Danner at 8 p. m.

The moderator on Sunday will be A. A. Landis and the choristers, J. A. Weaver and Michael Horst.

The male quartet of the Leitersburg C.P.S. camp will render music at the afternoon and evening services.

Featuring mince pies for Thanksgiving, orders taken now; Turkey roasted Wednesday, for Thanksgiving, Hennis Bakery.

Allies Repulse Axis Thrusts From Lines Near Tunis And Bizerte; Enemy Quits Bengasi

By C. YATES McDANIEL

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Australia, Nov. 20 (AP)—American and Australian jungle fighters pinned the Japanese into a narrow corridor along the Papuan coast between Buna and Gona today after Allied airmen had smashed an enemy sea and air relief thrust, sinking a cruiser and destroyer and downing three planes.

Today's noon communique said that Allied ground forces are fighting in the outskirts of Buna, main enemy base in the battle area, and Gona, the settlement about 30 miles northwest along the coast where the Japanese made their initial landing in this region last July 22.

Japs Making Stand

After days of withdrawal with little or no resistance, the Japanese apparently are making stands on Buna and Gona in a last effort to prevent expulsion from the sector from which they launched the drive that menaced Port Moresby, on the Australian side of New Guinea, only last September.

Under the personal leadership of General MacArthur, the Allies seemed close to the climax of the counteroffensive which has driven the enemy back along his own path over the Owen Stanley mountains and down to the coastal jungles in about seven weeks.

A light cruiser and two destroyers stood in to shore near Gona under cover of darkness, the communique said, and were meeting landing barges when they were surprised by Allied heavy bombers dodging through rain squalls and under low clouds that the enemy evidently was counting on for concealment.

Using flares to guide them, the bombers drove in low, quickly scoring a hit amidships that sank the cruiser and planting another bulls-eye shot with a 500-pound bomb on one of the destroyers which split in two after a second explosion.

Sea Only Line of Escape

The remaining destroyer was damaged and forced to flee and the barges then were bombed and (Please Turn to Page 8)

Tokyo Loses 28 Ships In Disastrous 3-Day Fight

By JOHN H. WIGGINS

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—The United States Navy dealt the Japanese fleet the most disastrous defeat in modern naval warfare, it became apparent today, with disclosure that enemy losses in last week's three-day sea battle probably reached the staggering proportions of 28 ships destroyed and 10 more damaged.

This setback, believed to have cost the Nipponese two battleships, six heavy cruisers, two light cruisers, six destroyers and 12 transports and cargo ships, became even more crushing with news that Allied bombers sank another cruiser and a destroyer off New Guinea last night.

Victory Reports Grow

The American sea victory in the Solomons grew in magnitude last night when the Navy's delayed report on Saturday night's battle off Guadalcanal Island told of the sinking of a Japanese battleship or (Please Turn to Page 8)

OIL PIPELINE TO CROSS COUNTY

Little Rock, Ark., Nov. 20 (AP)—An 857-mile extension of the "big inch" crude oil pipeline will pass through nine Pennsylvania counties under a plan announced by Burt E. Hull, general manager of the War Emergency Pipeline corporation.

The line, operated by WEP, now runs between Longview, Texas, and Norris City, Illinois. It will be extended from Norris City to Phoenixville, Pa., on as straight a line as terrain will permit.

In Pennsylvania it will traverse Greene, Fayette, Somerset, Bedford, Franklin, Adams, York, Lancaster and Chester counties. Sixteen survey parties already have taken the field.

Abbottstown Private In Casablanca Action

By HAROLD V. BOYLE
With a United States Task Force, Casablanca, French Morocco, Nov. 15 (Delayed) (AP)—The tragic story of the "lost squadron"—four American assault boats which ran into French destroyer fire here while they were searching for the Fedhala landing beaches—was told today by Second Lieutenant Edward W. Wellman of New York City.

He and 71 other survivors were captured by the French after the destroyer riddled the first two assault boats when she was hailed in the belief she was a United States warship.

They were among the few Americans taken prisoner during three days of fighting.

Among those who were captured and then released after the armistice, were Private Donald Holman, of Millersville, Pa.; and Private Gene Wagner, of Abbottstown, Pa.

19 Casualties

There were 19 casualties in the engagement. Seventeen men in the first boat to be sunk swam three and one-half miles to safety, some without lifelines.

Wellman, formerly employed in the advertising department of the New York Daily News, himself received minor injuries.

The men pulled away from transports in four assault boats about 3:30 a. m. Nov. 8, the first day of the attack.

"We were supposed to land on the beaches of Fedhala," Wellman said, "but through error the assault boats headed toward Casablanca, 13 miles away, where the French fleet was quartered."

"It was not until we were in Casablanca harbor that we realized that the fire toward which we were headed was not from oil tanks on Cape Fedhala but a French ship hit by our naval fire."

"Two of our boats drew back. The other two had drawn near

Halsey, Doolittle Given Promotions

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Vice Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., who led an American fleet to a spectacular victory over Japanese Naval forces in the southwest Pacific last week was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be a full admiral.

At the same time the President gave recognition through promotions to two leaders in the north African campaign.

Brigadier General James H. Doolittle, in charge of American Air forces in north Africa, was nominated to be a major general. Doolittle, who commanded the air men who raided Tokyo, holds the permanent rank of major in the Air corps reserve.

Rear Admiral Henry K. Hewitt, who had a leading role in bringing the invasion forces successfully to north Africa and subduing the opposition of French Naval vessels, was nominated to be a vice admiral.

SOVIET VICTORY EASES PRESSURE ON GROZNY OIL

By EDDY GILMORE

Moscow, Nov. 20 (AP)—Red Army units pressed hard after fleeing Germans in the deep Caucasus today, following up a major victory that eased Nazi pressure on the great Grozny oil fields near the Caspian sea and on the military road leading south into the rich Transcaucasus.

Latest front line reports bore out the earlier impression that a major Fascist force—possibly four divisions of 45,000 men—was routed in a battle of several days on the approaches of Ordzhonikidze.

A special communique brought first news of the triumph last night, reporting 5,000 of the enemy killed, several times that many wounded and vast military booty captured.

Today's added details confirmed or revised upward all these figures and spread joy among the Russian people whose hope and confidence have been rising as temperatures have fallen under the impact of early winter.

The midday communique brought more good news from far to the north where the German casualties were set at 5,000 over a three-day period of futile attacks in an attempt to re-take a recently captured (Please Turn to Page 3)

Our Losses Minor In Tunisia

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Nov. 20 (AP)

—Allied forces, having smashed one-third of a German armored column and crushed all Nazi tank attacks, are closing in on all landward sides around the Naval base of Bizerte and Tunis, capital of Tunisia, a headquarters spokesman said today.

Vanguards of the American and British combat teams and their pro-Allied French partners have reached points within 30 miles of both coastal cities which the Germans hold and, apparently, intend to defend as beachheads while all the rest of Tunisia falls into Allied hands.

Allied headquarters announced today that American and British troops, locked in the first heavy fighting in Tunisia, had driven back every German attempt to thrust out from their newly-formed lines around Tunis and Bizerte, while pro-Allied French soldiers captured small Nazi forces in eastern Tunisia.

At the same time, Adolf Hitler's high command acknowledged that fleeing Axis columns in Libya had abandoned Bengasi, the last escape port in north Africa east of Tripoli.

Allied headquarters reported today that American and British troops destroyed about one-third of a German armored column in the first heavy fighting in Tunisia and forced two other Nazi columns to retreat.

Dispatches said the opening battle for control of the strategic north African buffer state developed between 30 and 40 miles from Bizerte, big Axis-held Naval stronghold, with the Germans using their best medium tanks and dive bombers.

Allied losses were described as "minor."

"It appears that the Germans are digging in about 30 miles southeast of Bizerte and in the Tunis area and are preparing to make their stand there," an Allied headquarters spokesman said.

Situation Confused

"Although the French situation is extremely confused, it appears that almost all the rest of Tunisia either is controlled by pro-Allied French garrisons or occupied by the Allies themselves.

"German losses in yesterday's clashes were quite heavy but they are pouring in reserves and it looks like we are in for considerable fighting."

He said crack new American mobile artillery units had combined with the British and French to shatter an advance German motorized column about 20 miles south from the area near the coast where the main tank clash took place.

Small German units trying to push south along the Gulf of Gabes, in eastern Tunisia near the border of Libya, were said to have been captured by pro-Allied French units which also had frustrated German attempts to land troops by air transport in that area.

"The French are doing exceedingly (Please Turn to Page 2)

FDR'S REQUEST FOR NEW POWER FACES BATTLE

BY ALEX H. SINGLETON
Washington, Nov. 19 (AP)—President Roosevelt's request for broad wartime power to suspend tariff and immigration regulations developed today into a potential major battle for the dying days of the 77th Congress and the administration's first test of strength since the November 3 elections.

A determined Republican drive to block consideration of the measure this year rather than the House Ways and Means committee called several top-ranking government officials to discuss the need for such legislation.

Among those asked to appear before the committee's executive session were War Production Chief Donald Nelson, Attorney General

Francis Biddle, Undersecretary of War Robert F. Patterson, Assistant Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal, Rear Admiral Zmory S. Land, chairman of the War Shipping Administration, and Milo Perkins, chairman of the Board of Economic Warfare.

Provisions
The bill, designed "to facilitate, to the extent required for the effective prosecution of the war, the free movement of persons, property and information into and out of the United States," was introduced by Chairman Doughton (D-NC) at the President's request.

Specifically, it would give the Chief Executive the authority to suspend "in whole or in part, x x x those laws or regulations" which in his opinion interfere with the war effort by imposing tariffs and taxes on imports and exports, and those regulating the entrance and departure of individuals.

Opponents raised a protest that the measure would go much further, that it constituted a step toward totalitarianism, that it would break down the tariff and immigration laws.

"The time is too short between now and the end of this session to give this measure the consideration it deserves," declared Rep. Kuntz (R-Minn.), a member of the committee.

Promises Fight
"The President," he contended, "has all the powers he needs to prosecute the war. I will fight any attempt that is made to get the committee to report it out this year."

From Rep. Woodruff (R-Mich.), another committee member, came the assertion that the bill would open the way to an "influx from other lands that this country couldn't possibly absorb."

"I am not yet ready," he said, "to make the President a virtual dictator."

FADDIS RESIGNS
Harrisburg, Nov. 19 (AP)—Congressman Charles I. Faddis of the 25th district sent his resignation to Governor James, effective December 4, to enable him to enter military service. Faddis, a Democrat who represented Greene and Washington counties, was defeated in the primaries. His term would have expired in January.

Ex-Convict Named In Jewel Robbery

Philadelphia, Nov. 19 (AP)—Indicted on charges growing out of an $50,000 jewel robbery, John McMahon, 39, was held without bail today for extradition to New York city.

Detective Harold Hill said McMahon served a term in Lewisburg, Pa., Federal penitentiary on previous charges, then "went straight" for a year until the robbery of Mrs. Irene Hubbell Stoddard, New York and Newport society matron, in 1940.

A glimpse of a $2,600 sapphire ring on her finger led him to engineer the crime, Hill charged, in conjunction with a former fellow convict, Louis Vasselli. Hill said McMahon saw Mrs. Stoddard on a New York street and later he and Vasselli staged a holdup in her apartment.

Mrs. Stoddard saved the ring, Hill said, by concealing it in her mouth.

McMahon's counsel said he would fight extradition.

well despite great confusion as a result of local commanders issuing contradictory orders to surrender to the Germans in one case and to fight in the next," the spokesman said.

In every clash, he said, the Germans have been driven back in attempts to push their columns out from their newly formed lines around Tunis and Bizerte.

American and British mechanized troops now have driven 50 miles eastward from the Algerian frontier and were reported moving toward climactic assaults on Bizerte and Tunis, the capital.

German Version

German headquarters gave a non-committal version of the initial clash, declaring:

"In the Algerian-Tunisian frontier area, close-range German fighters attacked enemy advanced units and De Gaulle (Fighting French) units which attempted to stop our advance."

On the eastern flank of the giant Allied vice, Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating armies in Libya were officially reported to have evacuated the port of Bengasi under pressure by onrushing British forces.

Berlin conceded that Axis troops had abandoned the port as Rommel fell back toward the frontier of Italian Tripolitania.

On the west, British and American troops swept over the coastal spur of the Atlas mountains and reached the plains and rail line which leads to Bizerte, Axis broadcasts acknowledged.

Latest dispatches said the powerful Anglo-American expeditionary column, commanded by Lieut-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson, was surging ahead within 35 miles of Bizerte.

Relieve French Garrisons

Seventeen German armored vehicles, including 11 tanks, were wiped out by Allied patrols and paratroopers in the race to relieve embattled French garrisons which were reported to have revolted against German-Italian forces.

A Morocco radio broadcast said General Barre, commander of the French North African protectorate, had ordered a general offensive by French Tunisian troops at dawn yesterday after the German Gen. Walther Nehring bluntly instructed him to withdraw or join the Axis.

Other French troops from Oran, in American-Occupied Algeria, were reported moving east in full battle dress to join the Allied drive into Tunisia.

"First skirmishes have taken place between advanced spearheads on both sides," the German radio reported, but significantly gave no details of the outcome.

Advance Along Coast

The Nazi broadcast said "strong forces" of the British 1st Army, veterans of the battle of Flanders, were advancing along the Mediterranean coastal road and had reached the area of Tabarka, near the Tunisian-Algerian frontier.

Allied reports, however, declared the British, supported by mobile American contingents, had already driven halfway to Bizerte, and a United Nations headquarters spokesman said the east-bound army was "pretty far into Tunisia."

Across the Mediterranean, Adolf Hitler was reported wheeling powerful sections of his war machine from the Russian front to protect the "under side" of Axis-conquered Europe or possibly for a new venture to counter the Allied offensive in north Africa.

Dispatches from Ankara, Turkey, said 13 German divisions were moving from Russia toward the Balkans and that 20 Axis-Alleed Hungarian divisions had left their home barracks for Greece. These 23 divisions would total upwards of 200,000 troops.

Italians Jitters

Simultaneously, the Rome radio reflected Italian jitters over an Allied invasion, declaring that north Africa was only the springboard from which America would pounce on Europe.

"Italy's hour has struck," the broadcast said.

"Danger threatens Europe not only from the east (the Soviet front), but from the west beyond the ocean."

On the Libyan desert front, British headquarters reported that Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's victorious 8th Army scored further advances yesterday both north and south of Bengasi in pursuit of Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating forces.

British vanguards yesterday were reported to have reached a point 50 miles south of Bengasi and today were presumably less than 100 miles from the El Aghella defile, a narrow corridor between salt marshes and the sea, where Rommel is expected to make a last-ditch stand.

"Twenty-eight tanks, 24 guns and 250 motor vehicles have been captured or destroyed by our troops between Martuba and Sionta," British headquarters said, referring to a 70-mile stretch at the top of the Libyan hump.

With French Tunisian garrisons in open revolt, German invasion forces acted swiftly to protect the French-built Mareth fortifications, described as a "little Maginot line," not far from the Tunisia-Libya frontier.

Abroad a British Minesweeper in Tobruk Harbor, Nov. 16 (Delayed) (AP)—We have only been in this bomb-plattered harbor a few minutes and will leave very soon—but during the past two days this flotilla has been plenty busy.

The job of these ships is to clear the sea lanes for merchant traffic, to make sure no mines are left to damage the cargo vessels.

Thus they are paving the way for eventual juncture with American and British forces in the western Mediterranean, established complete mastery of this sea.

Ours were the first vessels to enter Tobruk harbor since the re-occupation.

The town looks much the same as it did when I came here by land with the Army early last June—every building so full of holes then that a few more now couldn't make any difference.

Harbor of Wrecked Ships

But the harbor is even more the harbor of wrecked ships.

There were 53 wrecks, ranging from a former Italian liner and a major Italian cruiser to tugboats, when I last saw the port. Now there are many more. Some are partly out of the water. Most of them are on the bottom, but visible on a clear day, and they include Italian merchant ships, destroyers, Axis sub-marines and other vessels, some of them sunk by American airmen.

But now this vital harbor again is in British hands and already is being used to supply the forces pushing Marshal Rommel toward the Allied armies in the west.

Sleep has been virtually out these past three days. One never goes below because it is too dangerous on a mine-sweeper with sudden death lurking just below the surface. And at night, on bridge or deck, it has been bitterly cold. Our main deck has been awash constantly.

Miss Ruth Crabill and brother, Joe Crabill, Gettysburg R. 4, spent last week-end with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Snarr, Toms Brook, Virginia.

JUDGE TO TALK AT SOROPTIMIST ANNIVERSARY

Members of the Soroptimist club of Gettysburg will celebrate the fourth birthday of their organization at a dinner meeting next Monday evening with members of the Gettysburg Lions and Rotary clubs invited to meet with the ladies' service group.

Judge W. C. Sheely will be the toastmaster and Oscar Shaw, star of radio, stage and screen, will sing with Miss Mary Clare Myers as his accompanist. There will be several selections by the Gettysburg high school chorus directed by Miss Dorothy M. Brindle.

The dinner will be held at the Blue Parrot tea room at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. W. S. Mellinger, Leetonia, Ohio, has been called here by the serious illness of her mother, Mrs. F. Mark Bream, Carlisle street. Mrs. Bream, who was taken ill suddenly Monday morning, was admitted to the Warner hospital Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Bream, who was on federal jury duty at Scranton, also was called home.

The Senior department of St. James Lutheran Sunday School will meet Monday evening at 7 o'clock in the department room. All members are urged to be present as 25 pounds of peanuts are to be sold for men in the service.

Mrs. Dunning Idle, Sr., Mt. Clemens, Michigan, is with her son and daughter-in-law, Prof. and Mrs. Dunning Idle, Baltimore street, for an indefinite time.

Miss Carolyn Rupp, Baltimore street, assumed her duties in the office of the Warner hospital this week. She was formerly employed in the state department at Harrisburg.

Mrs. Luther Weigle, New Haven, Connecticut, is visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. William F. Quillian, Jr., East Lincoln avenue. Dr. Quillian's mother recently concluded a visit here and returned to New York city.

Prof. and Mrs. W. D. Hartshorne, North Washington street, and Dr. and Mrs. Francis C. Mason, Chambersburg street, will spend the weekend at Sandy Springs, Maryland, where they will be guests of Mrs. Hartshorne's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Ligon.

A special Thank-Offering service of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church will be held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Dunning Idle, Baltimore street. Associate hostesses will include Mrs. Augusta Merrow, Mrs. John Shoop, Mrs. George Glenn, Mrs. Frank Forrest, Mrs. William Pensyl, Mrs. Fred Pfeffer and Mrs. Irvin Plattenburg.

REPORTER RECOVERS

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Nov. 20 (AP)—John A. Moroso, 3rd, 32-year-old Associated Press correspondent, reported last night that he suffered a slight concussion recently when a shell struck his ship 20 feet away during "continuous sea fighting" off Africa, but he kept going and recovered.

German infantrymen, supported by light tanks, captured the town hall and barracks at Gabes, gulf port near the top of the Mareth line.

A broadcast from American-occupied Morocco said Allied patrols driving into northern Tunisia destroyed eight of 30 German tanks in one clash Tuesday, while three Nazi tanks were destroyed in another skirmish which led to a German rout and Allied paratroopers wrecked six enemy armored vehicles.

3 Special Broadcasts For "Women At War Week"

Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the War Bonds and Stamps committee, today issued an appeal to all women of Adams county to tune in on three broadcasts Saturday and Sunday concerning "Women at War Week."

Mr. Thomas said that he had been asked by the Treasury department to issue the appeal and to make public the three broadcasts' time.

Saturday night from 10:15 to 10:45 o'clock the Mutual broadcasting system will feature "Saturday Night Bond Week."

Sunday afternoon from 3:30 o'clock until 4 o'clock Mutual will feature a "Special Women at War Week" program.

Over the Columbia network "Women at War" will be broadcast from 7 to 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Thomas urged women to form listening groups to hear the three broadcasts.

Starts Divorce Suit Here Today

Mrs. Sarah Carrie (Showvaker) Fair, Mt. Joy township, whose husband is serving a life sentence in the Maryland penitentiary, entered suit in the Adams county court today for a divorce.

The libel, filed this morning by E. V. Bullett, Esq., sets forth that Elvin Eugene Fair and the libellant were married on October 4, 1930, and that on December 4, 1933, Fair was found guilty of first degree murder in the slaying of a Hagerstown service station attendant. Nine days later he was sentenced to life imprisonment.

A subpoena in divorce was awarded by the court.

Rare Clipping In McAllister Papers

The interesting article on Abraham Lincoln's visit to Gettysburg upon the occasion of the dedication of the Gettysburg National cemetery and published in The Gettysburg Times Thursday evening was copied from a clipping from the Youth's Companion which had been preserved in the McAllister family of Gettysburg. Permission to copy the clipping was given by Miss Mary McAllister, East High street, a teacher in the Lansdowne schools.

Indicates Republican Agreement On Leaders

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—M. Harvey Taylor, republican state chairman, said today there was "something to" reports that party leaders have agreed upon Rep. Ira T. Fiss, of Snyder county, for speaker of the House and Senator Charles H. Ealy, of Somerset, for re-election as president pro tempore of the Senate in the reorganization of the Legislature in January.

Taylor said there was agreement also upon Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, of Delaware county, as a republican floor leader in the Senate.

"That's who I'm for as state chairman and I will work for their election," Taylor said in referring to all three.

The state chairman said the organization of the two branches of the Legislature was discussed at a meeting of party leaders who were here for the convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

EXTORTION PLOT

Los Angeles, Nov. 20 (AP)—A $10,000 extortion plot against Actor Errol Flynn, engineered by a 13-year-old San Bernardino schoolboy, was disclosed last night by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI said young Billy Seamster had sent a note to the actor, now awaiting trial on serious charges, demanding the money on pain of death. The lad was arrested, said Agent Richard B. Hood, at a San Bernardino mail shop where he had directed the money to be sent.

2 YOUTHS CONVICTED

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Two zoot-suited boys early today were convicted of second degree murder in the slaying of a Brooklyn mathematics teacher after a Kings county jury had deliberated 10 hours. The pair, Joseph Annunziata, 19, and Neil Simonelli, 16, trembled when they heard the verdict. They face sentence of from 20 years to life in prison. The slain teacher, Irwin Goodman, 36-year-old father, was shot down on a high school stairway after he upbraided the youths for smoking in a school washroom.

Engagement

Billman—Leech

The engagement of Miss Anna Mae Leech of Lincolnway west, New Oxford, to Private Robert Billman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus J. Billman, West High street, New Oxford, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Leech. Pvt. Billman is now serving at Keesler Field, Mississippi. The date of the marriage has not yet been made known.

Wedding

Leonard—Slagle

Miss Carolyn Louise Slagle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Slagle, Hanover, and Corp. Paul A. Leonard, son of Mrs. Martha Leonard, Ridge avenue, McSherrystown, were united in marriage in a nuptial mass in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Hanover, at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. The Rev. Vincent Nels, assistant rector, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Miss Grace Small, friend of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Austin Leonard, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The bride was attired in a dress of baby pink jersey with black accessories and had a corsage of pink roses and white gardenias. Her jewelry was a crystal rosary, the gift of the groom. Miss Small wore a dress of light blue wool with black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow roses, and a gold cross and chain, the gift of the bridegroom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Corporal Leonard, who is stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., will return to his post Sunday. The bride graduated from the Eichelberger senior high school, Hanover, and will reside at her parents' home for the duration.

MORE WAACS

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt released today an executive order authorizing an increase in the ultimate strength of the Women's Army Auxiliary corps from 25,000 to 150,000 but said it would be a long time before the latter figure is reached. The President told a press conference that the new action fixes the WAAC corps at a maximum statutory strength of 150,000. This, he said, is looking pretty far into the future, since a good deal of training will be required. The corps is expected to have 56,000 women on duty by next July.

ACTRESS EXPECTS CHILD

Hollywood, Nov. 20 (AP)—Screen Actress Rosalind Russell informed fellow studio workers she expects her first child next spring. Miss Russell and Lt. Fred Brisson, former actors' agent now with the Army air force, were married in October, 1941.

Bullets Meet Dickinson Here Saturday In Final Game Of Season; 39th Contest

Orange And Blue Holds Margin Of Victories In Series Starting In 1892

The thirty-ninth renewal of the time-honored and ancient gridiron feud between the Bullets of Gettysburg college and the Dickinson Red Devils will be resumed on Memorial Field here Saturday afternoon beginning at 2 o'clock.

The scrap will close the 1942 pigskin parade for both clubs and the climax of a war-time season.

Dickinson's fondest hopes throughout the season has been to wind-up the procession with a victory over the Bullets. To that end they have been pointing to this contest and are, according to reports from Carlisle, in "fine fettle to take the measure of the Bream-coached team of G-burg."

Sports dopsters pick the Red Devils to down the Bullets by at least two touchdowns while only a few favor the Bream-men.

Bullets Hold Margin

During the long series between these arch-rivals Gettysburg has dominated the win volume by a wide margin winning 26 games, losing 11 and one terminating in a tie.

To match this superiority of team play the Bullets have amassed a total of 558 points in 38 contests against 362 for the Red Devils.

Seven times since these two clubs have engaged in battle on the gridiron Gettysburg failed to score. On the other hand Dickinson's eleven failed to cross the Bullet goal line in fourteen games.

Gettysburg holds the top rung in scoring the most of points in one game, 49, in 1939, against Dickinson's 44 in 1898 and 1899.

The lowest scoring contest was the second battle between the two schools in 1893 when the Bullets won 4 to 0.

Saturday's battle will be a top-notch affair in every respect. Dickinson will be supported by a large contingent of fans bent on helping their warriors through to victory with a lot of lung support.

Add New Plays

Expecting what is likely to turn out to be the hardest fought game of the season, Coaches "Hen" Bream and "Pete" Beeson have worked hard in polishing up their attack this week and have added several new plays to their repertoire.

In anticipation of a deluge of passes almost certain to be flung by Doug Rehor, Red Devil passing ace, special defense formation have been designed to stop the aerial blitz.

Two changes in the starting lineup seem probable for Saturday. Jim Lewis, sophomore tackle, will start in place of Fred Schumacher who has been hampered by an injury.

Bob Fryling, senior end, who has developed into a crack wingman

Special Services At Reformed Church

Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church will mark this coming Sunday with special services throughout the day.

At 9:30 a. m. in the several departments of the church school, the Misses Schroer and Pespeman will speak. These young people are children of missionaries of Japan of the Evangelical Reformed church. They were interned after last December 7.

At 10:30 a. m. at divine service, the Kingdom Roll Call Visitors will be commissioned by the pastor and sent out for their annual visit in the homes of the congregation which will begin at 2 p. m.

The special feature of the day will take place at 7 p. m. The Women's Guild of the congregation will hold its annual Thankoffering service. This service will be in charge of Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, the thank-offering secretary, and Mrs. H. S. Fox, president of the Guild. A special program has been planned. The Rev. Dr. Gilbert W. Schroer will be the speaker. He will relate many of his experiences of the last year.

Dr. Schroer was a missionary of the Evangelical Reformed church to Japan for a number of years. After last December 7 he was taken from his family and imprisoned by the Japanese authorities until the time came for him to be repatriated. He returned to this country on the Gripsholm.

Members are asked to meet in the church school room at 6:45 o'clock.

The public is invited to this service.

Fairfield Society To Present Movies

A program of motion pictures will be presented by the Senior Christian Endeavor society of Fairfield on Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Zion Lutheran church.

Several reels depicting life in Mexico and South America will be shown in connection with the Christian Endeavor topic for that night, "Meeting Our Latin - American Friends." A Mickey Mouse comedy will be featured as an added attraction.

A worship service will precede the showing of the motion pictures. The entire program is being directed by Charles Lott, society president.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Reading the papers:

What may be one of the season's most significant news items—from the sports standpoint—was noted in an Oklahoma city paper the other day. . . . It told of the University of Oklahoma regents discussing the conversion of the institution to a "war college," and contained a prediction by President Joseph A. Brant that the change would take place within a few months. . . . Oklahoma is only one of a number of colleges that may go on a total war basis. . . . While it's hard to tell what effect this would have on college sports programs, Oklahoma's plans call for turning the field house into a dormitory for 600 men.

Other positions on the forward wall will be retained by Gene Haas, center; Paul Dress, guard; Don Roberts, end and Ray Rossetti, tackle.

Certain starters in the backfield are "Chuck" Beaver, "Al" Hart and Jim Hardy. For the number 3 spot "Mike" Baden, "Dick" March and "Joe" Cervino are ready for action and all will likely see action during the afternoon.

Greatly heartened by their fine showing against Lehigh which it is now revealed was lost by a combination penalty and failure of an official to keep his watch going which allowed the Engineers to score in the last seconds of play, Dickinson will bring a confident squad here.

The visitors' lineup is expected to be as follows: Schafmeister and Casey, ends; Rinaldi and Valalika, tackles; Victor and E. Smith, guards; Dittman, center; Prescott, quarterback; Miller and Overcash, halfbacks, and Rehor, fullback.

FOOD DRIVE DATA TO BE REPORTED

Plans for the annual organization meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the Warner hospital to be held in January will be made at the regular November meeting to be held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Nurses' home. The Auxiliary will not meet in December.

At the same meeting a report will be made on the results of the annual food drive for the hospital in Gettysburg while arrangements will be made for conducting the annual canvass for food for the hospital in other county communities.

To simplify transportation problems the collection will be made through the schools in Littlestown, Biglerville and Bendersville and possibly in other communities in the county.

Mrs. A. R. Riden will be in charge of the drive in Littlestown next week. Mrs. John E. Gentzler is campaign chairman for East Berlin. In Emmitsburg, Mrs. Harry Boyle is in charge of plans for the annual drive; Mrs. Howard Slaybaugh in Bendersville; Mrs. M. P. Stoner, Fairfield, and Mrs. Howard Musselman in Orttanna.

Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, president of the Auxiliary, today emphasized the need for collecting all the foodstuffs possible for the hospital this fall. Monthly records at the hospital show that the institution has served more patients during the last summer and fall than in any comparable period in its history.

FURTHER SOLOMONS FIGHTING

London, Nov. 20 (AP)—German broadcasts heard Thursday quoted Admiral Sankichi Takahashi, former commander in chief of the Japanese Navy, as saying "we must reckon with heavy fighting in the Solomons." The broadcast added that he declared "the Americans obviously are planning to use the Solomons as a springboard for an offensive with a view of regaining islands in the Dutch East Indies." This radio report, based on a DNB News agency dispatch, conflicts with repeated declarations by the Tokyo radio that heavy losses in Pacific Naval battles have reduced the American fleet to impotence for offensive purposes.

BARKER SELECTS OHIO STATE TO BEAT MICHIGAN

By HERB BARKER

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Staggering down the home stretch of the football guessing marathon:

Michigan-Ohio State: Don't even try to expert this one. It's a guess no matter how you look at it. Two high-scoring outfits which likewise have been fairly easy to score on. The only safe prediction on this is that it should be wide-open and free-scoring. Resorting strictly to the coin . . . Ohio State.

Georgia-Auburn: This could be the spot where Frank Sinkwich and Georgia stub their collective toe. Nevertheless this vote goes to unbeaten Georgia.

Minnesota-Wisconsin: The Badgers seem to have sloughed off considerably since the Ohio State game. At any rate, a flier on Minnesota.

Boston college-Boston university: Should be just a warm-up for the undefeated Eagles of Boston college.

Army Over Princeton

Army-Princeton: This corner casts the ballot for Army.

Harvard-Yale: However this vote for Yale is cast largely in admiration of the splendid coaching job Howie Odell has turned in at New Haven in his first season.

Northwestern-Notre Dame: It's hard to believe a team as strong as Northwestern can go through an entire season without beating a single midwestern college rival. This is the Wildcats' last chance and is a long shot one at best. The vote goes to Notre Dame.

Stanford-California: Out of the hat . . . Stanford.

Florida-Georgia Tech: Tech. Indiana-Purdue: Indiana.

Missouri-Fordham: Hardly the spot for Fordham's weary rams to get any rest. May be close but we'll take Missouri.

Baylor-Southern Methodist: Following the home team line . . . SMU.

Dartmouth-Columbia: Columbia simply can't seem to score enough. We'll take Dartmouth.

Georgetown-George Washington: Georgetown.

Kentucky-Tennessee: Tennessee. Manhattan-Holy Cross: Holy Cross, strictly without guarantees.

Nebraska-Iowa Naval: The Pre-Flighters seem much too tough. Iowa Naval.

North Carolina State-Duke: Duke. Selects Penn State.

North Carolina-Virginia: North Carolina.

Oklahoma-Temple: The Sooners' tie with Missouri was a big surprise and influences this vote for Oklahoma.

Pitt-Penn State: In their own lair in the Nittany mountains the Lions are exceedingly tough. Penn State.

Syracuse-Rutgers: No possible pick but Syracuse.

West Virginia-Michigan State: A hesitating ballot for Michigan State.

Lafayette-Lehigh: Very tough to figure but we'll take a flier on Lehigh.

Skippping over the chalklines otherwise: Maryland over Washington & Lee; Oklahoma A and M over Drake; St. Mary's Naval over Santa Clara; Marquette over Camp Grant; Villanova over Duquesne.

2 OF BOISE CREW HONORED

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Navy has decorated two Pennsylvania members of the crew of the Cruiser Boise for acts of heroism during her historic battle with a Japanese fleet in the Solomons last month.

Lieut. William G. Thomas, of Colver, who was found dead at his flame-swept post, was posthumously awarded the Navy Cross. Paul John Strecker, quartermaster first class, of Pittsburgh, received the silver Star medal for "distinguished service as Helmsman." Thomas' father is State Secretary of Mines W. Garfield Thomas. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas were notified some time ago that their son had been killed in action.

A leading mason, he was installed as grand commander of the grand commandery, Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, in 1938. He held a 33d degree in the supreme council, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite of the northern jurisdiction, U. S. A.

Two Drivers Face Charges In Crash

Each driver involved in the auto crash Thursday morning in front of Yoo's store on the Gettysburg-Littlestown road will be charged with a motor code violation, Private R. H. Bruce, of the state motor police here, said today after his investigation of the mishap.

Leslie Kennel, Gettysburg R. D., will be charged with parking on the highway and Glenn I. Sherman, Hanover street, will face a charge of driving too fast for conditions.

Both informations will be laid before Justice of the Peace Howard G. Blocher, Littlestown.

Three persons were injured in the crash and both cars were demolished with a loss of about $350.

Urges Priority On Needs Of Children

Wilmington, Del. Nov. 20 (AP)—Marshall Field, chairman of the National Citizens committee of the White House Conference on Children in a Democracy, says "there seems to be every evidence that we have great resources in manpower."

In a speech here Field asserted that evidences indicate "neither the war effort nor children need suffer as yet" from labor shortages.

"When a clearly-defined and all-inclusive manpower policy is drafted," he said, "let us hope that the priority needs of children will be recognized. We can and must make certain that they are not robbed of the opportunities they will need in order to develop into strong citizens."

DUROCHER STAYS BUT '43 DODGERS WILL BE CHANGED

By JUDSON BAILEY

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—The curtain has come down on the best burlesque in town—the take-off on baseball known as the Flatbush Follies, or the life and good times of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Branch Rickey, the new president of the beloved bums, announced yesterday that Leo Durocher had signed a contract to manage the Dodgers for his fifth season, but made it amply clear that things would be different around Ebets Field next year.

Gambling will be gone. Coach Charley Dresen will be gone and with him, presumably, some of the furious feuds the club has waged with all its rivals in the National league. Coach Fred Fitzsimmons probably will be gone—perhaps to Montreal as manager and possible heir to Durocher's throne.

Gets Player's Contract

Rickey said Durocher would be manager but would be signed to a player's contract, not a manager's. One of the advantages to the club of this will be that he can be released on ten days notice without the Dodgers having to pay his salary for a full season. The amount of his salary was not disclosed, but Rickey said he was hired for one year without any bonus provisions.

Last season Durocher's contract was understood to have called for $23,500 plus bonuses.

Rickey was very definite that Durocher, 37 years old and once one of the best fielding shortstops in the major leagues, would have to be ready to play next season. In discussing training plans and prospects for trades, Rickey said the Dodgers would set up camp at West Palm Beach, Fla., March 1.

Explains Gambling Ban

As for trading prospects, Rickey said, "well I figure I have just picked up a pretty good player by getting Durocher back into the lineup. The war situation will, of course, make us more conservative in our efforts to put through deals."

The ban on gambling for high stakes was disclosed by Durocher when questioned about reports that this had been a harmful influence on the Dodgers last season.

"I think we were gambling too much. I won't say it wasn't harmful, but we never had any ill feelings because of it. There will be no gambling this year—for stakes higher than 15 cents," he said.

In continuation of a reconnaissance operation in that sector, the communists said "one ammunition dump was blown up and 19 artillery batteries and seven mortars silenced."

"After completing its main task, our unit fell back to its former position."

Lines Stabilized

This communists said that in the Stalingrad area last night in one sector German infantry and tanks broke through to the rear of two Russian units but a fierce counter-thrust restored the lines, killing 170 Germans and destroying five tanks.

The rest of the overnight picture was one of stabilized lines and relatively little activity except near Tuapse along the Black sea coast where the Germans were reported driven back in efforts to re-take positions recently won by the Russians.

As the news of victory spread around the capital today it produced smiles, handshakes and backslapping along the streets as the people accepted it as conclusive proof of an offensive strength in the Caucasus which had not been shown before.

END EMERGENCY POWERS

Wenatchee, Wash. Nov. 20 (AP)—In the final hours of its 76th annual convention, the National Grange called upon Congress to terminate the presidential emergency wartime powers promptly after the war's end.

The Grange adjourned its nine-day session shortly before last midnight. Another resolution admonished that the United States should, after the war, "assume its full responsibility, to assure a just and lasting peace."

well despite great confusion as a result of local commanders issuing contradictory orders to surrender to the Germans in one case and to fight in the next," the spokesman said.

In every clash, he said, the Germans have been driven back in attempts to push their columns out from their newly formed lines around Tunis and Bizerte.

British and British mechanized troops now have driven 50 miles eastward from the Algerian frontier and were reported moving toward climactic assaults on Bizerte and Tunis, the capital.

German Version

German headquarters gave a non-committal version of the initial clash, declaring:

"In the Algerian-Tunisian frontier area, close-range German fighters attacked enemy advanced units and De Gaulle (Fighting French) units which attempted to stop our advance."

On the eastern flank of the giant Allied vise, Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating armies in Libya were officially reported to have evacuated the port of Bengasi under pressure by onrushing British forces.

Berlin conceded that Axis troops had abandoned the port as Rommel fell back toward the frontier of Italian Tripolitania.

On the west, British and American troops swept over the coastal spur of the Atlas mountains and reached the plains and rail line which leads to Bizerte, Axis broadcasts acknowledged.

Latest dispatches said the powerful Anglo-American expeditionary column, commanded by Lieut-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson, was surging ahead within 35 miles of Bizerte.

Relieve French Garrisons

Seventeen German armored vehicles, including 11 tanks, were wiped out by Allied patrols and paratroopers in the race to relieve embattled French garrisons which were reported to have revolted against German-Italian forces.

A Morocco radio broadcast said General Barre, commander of the French North African protectorate, had ordered a general offensive by French Tunisian troops at dawn yesterday after the German Gen. Walther Nehring jointly instructed him to withdraw or join the Axis.

Other French troops from Oran, in American-Occupied Algeria, were reported moving east in full battle dress to join the Allied drive into Tunisia.

"First skirmishes have taken place between advanced spearheads on both sides," the German radio reported, but significantly gave no details of the outcome.

Advance Along Coast

The Nazi broadcast said "strong forces" of the British 1st Army, veterans of the battle of Flanders, were advancing along the Mediterranean coastal road and had reached the area of Tabarka, near the Tunisian-Algerian frontier.

Allied reports, however, declared the British, supported by mobile American contingents, had already driven halfway to Bizerte, and a United Nations headquarters spokesman said the east-bound army was "pretty far into Tunisia."

Across the Mediterranean, Adolf Hitler was reported wheeling powerful sections of his war machine from the Russian front to protect the "under side" of Axis-conquered Europe or possibly for a new venture to counter the Allied offensive in north Africa.

Dispatches from Ankara, Turkey, said 13 German divisions were moving from Russia toward the Balkans and that 10 Axis-Allied Hungarian divisions left their home barracks for Graz. These 23 divisions would total upwards of 200,000 troops.

Italians Jittery

Simultaneously, the Rome radio reflected Italian jitters over an Allied invasion, declaring that north Africa was only the springboard from which America would pounce on Europe.

"Italy's hour has struck," the broadcast said.

"Danger threatens Europe not only from the east (the Soviet front), but from the west beyond the ocean."

On the Libyan desert front, British headquarters reported that Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's victorious 8th Army scored further advances yesterday both north and south of Bengasi in pursuit of Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's retreating forces.

British vanguards yesterday were reported to have reached a point 50 miles south of Bengasi and today were presumably less than 100 miles from the El Agheila gulf, a narrow corridor between salt marshes and the sea, where Rommel is expected to make a last-ditch stand.

"Twenty-eight tanks, 24 guns and 250 motor vehicles have been captured or destroyed by our troops between Martuba and Sionta," British headquarters said, referring to a 70-mile stretch at the top of the Libyan hump.

With French Tunisian garrisons in open revolt, German invasion forces acted swiftly to protect the French-built Mareth fortifications, described as a "little Maginot line," not far from the Tunisia-Libya frontier.

REPORTER RECOVERS

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, Nov. 20 (AP)—John A. Moroso, 3rd, 32-year-old Associated Press correspondent, reported last night that he suffered a slight concussion recently when a shell struck his ship 20 feet away during "continuous sea fighting" off Africa, but he kept going and recovered.

It did when I came here by land with the Army early last June—every building so full of holes then that a few more now couldn't make any difference.

Harbor of Wrecked Ships

But the harbor is even more the harbor of wrecked ships.

There were 53 wrecks, ranging from a former Italian liner and a major Italian cruiser to tugboats, when I last saw the port. Now there are many more. Some are partly out of the water. Most of them are on the bottom, but visible on a clear day, and they include Italian merchant ships, destroyers, Axis submarine ships, destroyers, Axis submarines and other vessels, some of them sunk by American airmen.

But now this vital harbor again is in British hands and already is being used to supply the forces pushing Marshal Rommel toward the Allied armies in the west.

Sleep has been virtually out these past three days. One never goes below because it is too dangerous on a mine-sweeper with sudden death lurking just below the surface. And at night, on bridge or deck, it has been bitterly cold. Our main deck has been awash constantly.

German infantrymen, supported by light tanks, captured the town hall and barracks at Gabes, gulf port near the top of the Mareth line.

A broadcast from American-occupied Morocco said Allied patrols driving into northern Tunisia destroyed eight of 30 German tanks in one clash Tuesday, while three Nazi tanks were destroyed in another skirmish which led to a German rout and Allied paratroopers wrecked six enemy armored vehicles.

The job of these ships is to clear the sea lanes for merchant traffic, to make sure no mines are left to damage the cargo vessels.

Thus they are paving the way for eventual juncture with American and British forces in the western Mediterranean, established complete mastery of this sea.

Ours were the first vessels to enter Tobruk harbor since the re-occupation.

3 Special Broadcasts For "Women At War Week"

Edmund W. Thomas, chairman of the War Bonds and Stamps committee, today issued an appeal to all women of Adams county to tune in on three broadcasts Saturday and Sunday concerning "Women At War Week."

Mr. Thomas said that he had been asked by the Treasury department to issue the appeal and to make public the three broadcasts' time.

Saturday night from 10:15 to 10:45 o'clock the Mutual broadcasting system will feature "Saturday Night Bond Week."

Sunday afternoon from 3:30 o'clock until 4 o'clock Mutual will feature a "Special Women At War Week" program.

Over the Columbia network "Women At War" will be broadcast from 7 to 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

Mr. Thomas urged women to form listening groups to hear the three broadcasts.

Starts Divorce Suit Here Today

Mrs. Sarah Carrie (Showvaker) Fair, Mt. Joy township, whose husband is serving a life sentence in the Maryland penitentiary, entered suit in the Adams county court today for a divorce.

The libel, filed this morning by E. V. Buleit, Esq., sets forth that Elvin Eugene Fair and the libellant were married on October 4, 1930, and that on December 4, 1933, Fair was found guilty of first degree murder in the slaying of a Hagerstown service station attendant. Nine days later he was sentenced to life imprisonment.

A subpoena in divorce was awarded by the court.

Rare Clipping In McAllister Papers

The interesting article on Abraham Lincoln's visit to Gettysburg upon the occasion of the dedication of the Gettysburg National cemetery and published in The Gettysburg Times Thursday evening was copied from a clipping from the Youth's Companion which had been preserved in the McAllister family of Gettysburg. Permission to copy the clipping was given by Miss Mary McAllister, East High street, a teacher in the Lansdowne schools.

Mrs. Dean Bower and daughter, Deanna Sue, will return to their home in York Sunday after spending some time with Mrs. Bower's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Lawver, Biglerville.

Indicates Republican Agreement On Leaders

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—M. Harvey Taylor, republican state chairman, said today there was "something to" reports that party leaders have agreed upon Rep. Ira T. Fiss, of Snyder county, for speaker of the House and Senator Charles H. Ealy, of Somerset, for re-election as president pro tempore of the Senate in the reorganization of the Legislature in January.

Taylor said there was agreement also upon Senator Weldon B. Heyburn, of Delaware county, as republican floor leader in the Senate.

"That's who I'm for as state chairman and I will work for their election," Taylor said in referring to all three.

The state chairman said the organization of the two branches of the Legislature was discussed at a meeting of party leaders who were here for the convention of the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women.

EXTORTION PLOT

Los Angeles, Nov. 20 (AP)—A $10,000 extortion plot against Actor Errol Flynn, engineered by a 13-year-old San Bernardino schoolboy, was disclosed last night by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI said young Billy Seamster had sent a note to the actor, now awaiting trial on serious charges, demanding the money on pain of death. The lad was arrested, said Agent Richard B. Hood, at a San Bernardino malt shop where he had directed the money to be sent.

2 YOUTHS CONVICTED

New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Two root-suited boys, early today were convicted of second degree murder in the slaying of a Brooklyn mathematics teacher after a Kings county jury had deliberated 10 hours. The pair, Joseph Annunziata, 19, and Neil Simonelli, 16, trembled when they heard the verdict. They face sentence of from 20 years to life in prison. The slain teacher, Irwin Goodman, 36-year-old father, was shot down on a high school stairway after he upbraided the youths for smoking in a school washroom.

Leonard, son of Mrs. Martha Leonard, Ridge avenue, McSherrystown, were united in marriage in a nuptial mass in St. Joseph's Catholic church, Hanover, at 8 o'clock Thursday morning. The Rev. Vincent Nels, assistant rector, performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple.

Miss Grace Small, friend of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Austin Leonard, brother of the bridegroom, was the best man. The bride was attired in a dress of baby pink jersey with black accessories and had a corsage of pink rosebuds and white gardenias. Her jewelry was a crystal rosary, the gift of the groom. Miss Small wore a dress of light blue wool with black accessories and wore a corsage of yellow rosebuds, and a gold cross and chain, the gift of the bridegroom. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Corporal Leonard, who is stationed at Camp Pickett, Va., will return to his post Sunday. The bride graduated from the Eichelberger senior high school, Hanover, and will reside at her parents' home for the duration.

MORE WAACS

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt released today an executive order authorizing an increase in the ultimate strength of the Women's Army Auxiliary corps from 25,000 to 150,000 but said it would be a long time before the latter figure is reached. The President told a press conference that the new action fixes the WAAC corps at a maximum statutory strength of 150,000. This, he said, is looking pretty far into the future, since a good deal of training will be required. The corps is expected to have 56,000 women on duty by next July.

ACTRESS EXPECTS CHILD

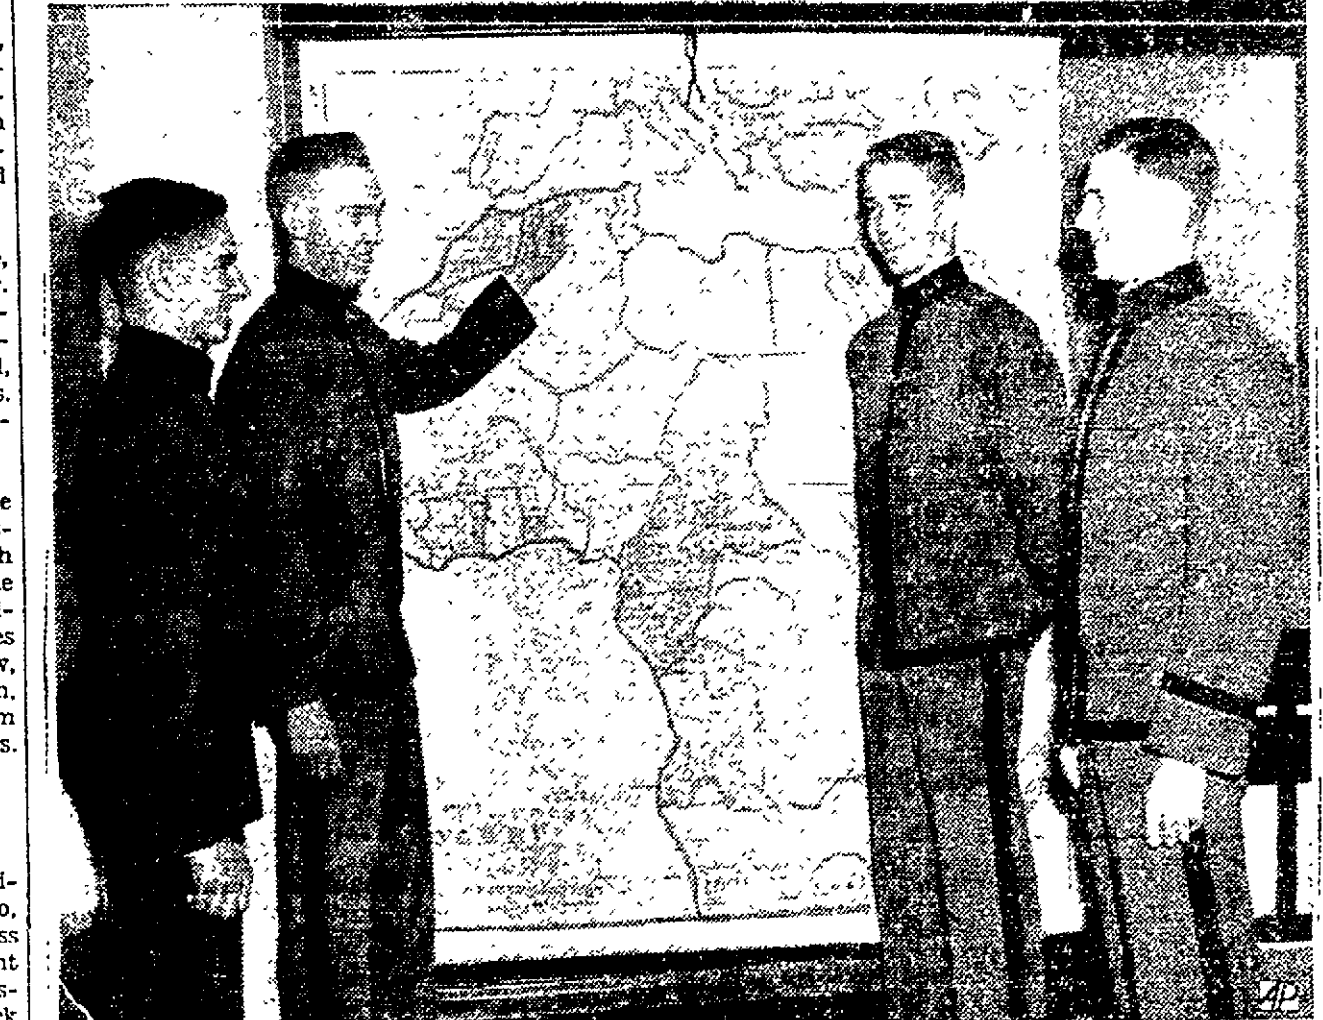

Hollywood, Nov. 20 (AP)—Screen Actress Rosalind Russell informed fellow studio workers she expects her first child next spring. Miss Russell and Lt. Fred Brisson, former actors' agent now with the Army air forces, were married in October, 1941.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

FACTORY WOMEN

Well, I never thought to see it: women pouring through the gate
And hurrying down the hallway lest the clock shall mark them late,
The women of the country at the factories carrying on
In the places of their men folk who to freedom's war have gone.

That's a prettier box they carry than the ugly thing of tin
Which the men for years have toted, and a dancier lunch within,
But they tell me once they've practiced and have learned the methods through
They are keeping up production as their men-folk used to do.

I watch them in the morning and I watch them homeward bound,
And I think as they go by me, here is pluck which won't be downed!
Here is pure determination! Here are women brave and true
In the places of their men folk who have bitter work to do.

Today's Talk

By George Matthew Adams

BUYING HAPPINESS

About ten years ago appeared a most interesting small book called "Buying Happiness" published by the University of Chicago Press, and written by Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed—the great scholar whose translation of the New Testament I once syndicated—or did my best to get newspapers to publish!
This book—I hope it has not entirely gone out of print—is stimulating reading. It is compiled of 14 delightfully written essays, the first of which is the title of the book and of this talk. The writer goes on to show how we all are in the business of buying happiness—no matter what we buy. It is a universal habit.
Few of us regard this thing of buying as anything other than the mere spending of money. But Dr. Goodspeed puts a new light on it all. He says that whenever we buy anything—be it the new hat, dress or lipstick by the woman, or the new book, suit of clothes, rare postage stamp, or camera, by the man—that each is really buying happiness. And I feel that the learned Doctor is correct.
Of course most of the wives of "collectors" (so long as they are not so classed) can see nothing in the hobby of a man but pure extravagance, and in some cases, sheer silliness. But the "collector" knows better. He knows that he is buying happiness.
When in college, I recall the day when Peary came to town and there was a parade down Main Street, and a lecture in the evening—to get some more money that the great explorer might be enabled to make another try for the discovery of the North Pole. Well, he finally succeeded. But no one ever dreamed that the old Pole would do anyone any good—excepting its discovery—which would give inspiration to thousands and extreme happiness to the man who spent so much money, and so many years, just to attain that objective.
I believe we should begrudge no one the happiness that he buys and pays for—so long as he feels that he has consummated a bargain.
It was Lowell who said that we even "bargain for the graves we lie in." But I think he was wrong. I believe that we pay for them long before we lie in them, for if we have bought happiness all through life, we take it with us when we die. In fact it is the only thing that we do take with us. Besides, we leave a lot of it behind for others to feast upon!
Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "That Little Bit Within."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Store Opening Is Huge Success:
More than 400 visitors attended the formal opening of Blocher's new jewelry store, 25 Chambersburg street, Thursday evening.

Before the doors opened at 7:30, a small group had gathered outside and waited for more than half an hour, in a heavy rain.

New Road to be Opened Saturday:
The Gettysburg-Hanover road will be thrown open to traffic Saturday morning. The road has been closed since August 19, when John S. Teeter, Taneytown contractor began excavating for a mile stretch of concrete between the eastern boundary of the battlefield and the western boundary of Mt. Pleasant township.

Two Tavern Church to Mark Its
Fiftieth Anniversary Sunday: Grace Lutheran church, Two Taverns, the Rev. J. I. Hummer, pastor, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding Sunday morning, November 20, and ending Friday evening, November 25.

Grace Lutheran church was dedicated on Sunday, November 25, 1877, by the Rev. E. J. Metzler, the first pastor. Eight pastors have served the church since then.

Many Notables at Funeral Rites for Mr. Beales: Many notables, headed by Gov. John Fisher, paid their last respects to the memory of C. William Beales, former Congressman, State Senator and postmaster of Gettysburg, at funeral rites held at his late home on Carlisle street on Thursday morning.

A short sermon was delivered by the Rev. E. H. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, and the Rev. Dr. D. M. Moser, a retired Lutheran minister.

The honorary pallbearers were Judge Donald P. McPherson, State Treasurer S. S. Lewis, Congressman Franklin Menges, State Senator Norman L. Bonbrake, Judge S. McC. Swope, former Lieutenant Governor E. E. Beidelman, M. C. Burger, I. L. Taylor and Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson.

The active pallbearers were Wayne M. Keet, Charles B. Dougherty, E. M. Bender, Carl Martz, George P. Black and P. C. Stock.

Accident Victim Is Holding Own

Harry Bream, 3, seriously injured Sunday when he was struck by an automobile in front of his home in Cashtown was reported to be holding his own at the Warner hospital on Tuesday.

Compiler Sold to Corporation;

Sheely Is Head: Sale of the Gettysburg Compiler, including the weekly newspaper and job printing plant, to a corporation to be known as the Compiler Publishing company and comprising a group of prominent Democrats headed by W. Clarence Sheely, Esq., was announced on Monday by William Arch McClean, attorney-at-law and owner.

Mr. McClean will continue temporarily as editor of The Compiler, and will also assist Mr. Sheely and his associates in the conduct of the printing business until a capable manager and editor can be obtained.

The Compiler has been published as a Democratic weekly newspaper for more than 100 years. On the first of October, Mr. McClean passed 25 years as active owner and manager of the business, having purchased it from Attorney C. E. Stahley in October, 1902. He has been assisted in recent years by his daughter, Miss Frances McClean, who also plans to retire from active work in the business.

Birth Announcement: Word has been received here of the birth of a son, George Herbert, 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs. George Herbert Thrush, Jr., of New Orleans, on Saturday, November 12. This is their first child.

Mrs. Kennedy Heads G.O.P. club: Mrs. Maude Wierman Kennedy, York Springs, was re-elected president of the Adams county Women's Republican club at the organization meeting Saturday afternoon. Other officers elected were: Miss Mary McCaughy, first vice president; Miss Reba Adams, second vice president; Mrs. J. E. Snyder, secretary; Mrs. John L. Kendlehart, treasurer.

Seven delegates will be sent to Harrisburg next week to represent Adams county at the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women. The delegates selected are Mrs. Marie Zeigler, Mrs. Sara Geiselman, Mrs. Nettie Weiser, Mrs. Anna Basehoar, Mrs. Annie Marsh, Mrs. N. L. Minter and Mrs. Kennedy.

Birth Announcement: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bowers, Straban township, announce the birth of a daughter, Winifred Alois, November 10.

2 Students to Become Pilots: Gomer Sharp, Gettysburg, and Blaine Walter, Biglerville, are the first student fliers to receive certificates from the Gettysburg Airport. These men are the first in this class to receive the certificate, announced after three hours of instruction in the air. This certificate qualifies the men to continue their course in aviation and practically assures them a pilot's license.

Light Cruiser Boise Bagged 6 Jap Warships In 27 Minutes

CREW'S HEROISM
NAVAL HISTORY

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—Given up for lost in a dramatic night battle off the Solomon Islands a month ago, the American light cruiser Boise steamed triumphantly into Philadelphia late yesterday, and today the Fourth Naval district revealed stories of the epic individual heroism which won the "one-ship fleet" a hallowed place in American naval history.

Outnumbered and outgunned, the Boise was chiefly instrumental in sinking six Japanese warships in 27 minutes of point-blank battle during the night of October 26-27 after intercepting an enemy force moving toward Guadalcanal. During her extraordinary achievement she was ripped, battered and enveloped in mast-high flames. Other craft in the U. S. cruiser-destroyer pack left her behind as fatally stricken.

But two hours later she steamed out of the darkness and took her accustomed place in the column.

19 Decorations

Some of the secrets of her epic victory were revealed today when the Navy explained why 19 officers and men, four of them killed, received decorations during her trip home.

Lieut. (JG) Milo B. Everts, of Minneapolis, received the Navy cross because "fire . . . broke out at his post, but he made no attempt to leave it," the Navy said. He was found dead at his post later.

Minor Butler Poole of Clinton, Mississippi, gunner's mate first class, got the Navy cross after he "gave his life to prevent an explosion of ammunition."

"He put on a gas mask and entered a compartment to flood it during a fire. He was killed before achieving his mission."

Lieut. Commander Edward C. Kenney, Medical Corps, of Bucyrus, Ohio, although under heavy fire, removed wounded from shell-struck areas and "no wounded man under his charge died as a result of wounds received."

Vint Elliott Eden, seaman first class, of Accoville, West Virginia, extinguished a fire "with utter disregard for his own safety," then "saved a man's life by artificial respiration" and worked on at other tasks "until overcome by exhaustion."

King Greets Crew

A band blared "Hold That Tiger" and seamen of other ships cheered as the scarred ship limped into port at the Philadelphia Navy yard. Its crew received greetings from Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, who came here by plane from Washington.

Capt. E. J. (Mike) Moran, officer in command, made this announcement of the craft's losses: "It is with deep regret that I report three officers and 104 men killed in this action. I do, however, have consolation in that not one of those men was killed without the knowledge that at least three Japanese ships had been sunk and others were soon to follow."

A previous communique in which preliminary details of the battle were reported listed Japanese losses as one heavy cruiser, four destroyers and a transport.

TO DISTRIBUTE HELMETS

Pittsburgh, Nov. 20 (AP)—Seven thousand official Civilian Defense helmets provided by the federal government will be distributed to members of the air raid services in Pittsburgh during the "Victory Home" campaign November 29 to December 7, the Allegheny county council of defense has announced.

and son, Maurice, Broadway, are visiting for several weeks with relatives in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Aumen entertained at a family dinner at their home on West Middle street Wednesday night in celebration of the fifth birthday anniversary of their grand-son Edward Ray Rinehart Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Snyder and family have moved into the home which they recently erected on West Stevens street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Power and daughter, Patricia, York street, are spending two weeks in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Harvey Warner and children, West street, are spending the week in Harrisburg, Washington and Alexandria.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Harbaugh and family, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hull and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Naugle and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Wentz and family, visited the Masonic home at Elizabethtown Sunday.

Miss Dorothy Bushnell, of Harrisburg, visited friends here over Sunday.

Chapman Seeks
Senate Leadership

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—Senator Leroy E. Chapman today formally declared himself a candidate for president pro-tempore of the Pennsylvania Senate and claimed pledges of support from most of the Republican majority.

The Warren county doctor, one of the oldest members of the Senate in point of service, said he understood that Senator Charles H. Ealy of Somerset, was willing to give up his post when the legislature reorganizes January 5. Republicans will continue to control the branch with a 32-18 majority.

"I think I am entitled to the place on account of seniority," Chapman said. "I notified all the Republican Senators that I was a candidate and had some very good replies. I think I have a majority of the vote and it looks as though I'm going to be president pro-tempore."

Ealy has made no announcement concerning his plans but it was learned he looks upon continuing his Senate leadership more or less with indifference, contending "it's up to the members."

Chapman has served in the Senate since 1930.

THREE FLIERS KILLED

Moultrie, Ga., Nov. 20 (AP)—Aviation Cadet Edward P. Knotek, of Allentown, Pa., was killed yesterday in a collision of two planes eight miles east of here. Knotek was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Knotek, of Allentown. Others killed in the crash were Aviation Cadet Marvin E. Lee, of Rochester, New York, and Pilot Officer Ronald W. McKenzie, London.

Letters To
The Editor

The Gettysburg Times,
Dear Sir:

It is with great pleasure that I am taking this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to you for sending me The Gettysburg Times. I find it a great help to me in keeping up with the news and happenings back home. Not only that but it also enables me to know where some of my fellow-soldiers are located by reading their letters.

Some time ago an article appeared in your paper about my brother and I meeting here at Fort Knox. He is an M.P. and I see him quite often, and that sure is a break for both of us because not all brothers are that lucky. So you see we both have something to be thankful for this season of Thanksgiving.

I have been in the Army for five months now and I must say that I am proud of the fact that I am wearing the uniform of my country and that I am doing my little bit in helping America on to victory.

Once again I want to thank you and I hope to continue receiving the paper as long as it's possible.

Yours truly,

The Gettysburg Times,
Gettysburg, Pa.

Dear Sir:

I have, as all the other boys from Gettysburg and Adams county, received The Gettysburg Times, ever since I joined the Army, February seventeenth, 1941. Words cannot express how much I have appreciated it and through it, I have been able to keep up with the happenings back home, even though I am 1,200 miles away.

Recently, I was transferred into another outfit, so I would appreciate it very much if you would send The Times to my new address.

Thanking you for your kindness, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Relief Grants For Food Are Increased

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—A $360,000 monthly increase in public assistance food grants today assured some 312,000 Pennsylvanians of what state officials described as a health-maintaining standard.

Governor James approved the boosts, the second granted within recent months, for recipients of general assistance, aid to dependent children and old age assistance.

"There will be an increase for every assistance case in the state, except for the blind, who have a flat pension fixed by law, and about 1,100 old age assistance recipients, who have already received a $10 a month increase within the past three months and who are now at the

Lull Looms In Linoleum Lane
Legal Lineup

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—The battle of Linoleum Lane—was at a standstill today, with both sides checkmated by the law.

It started months ago, when Benjamin Tizer, 56, opened a floor-covering store at 1064 North 2nd street. Then Louis Bell, 38, started operations on the same front with a linoleum emporium at 1060-1062.

Tizer tried a flanking movement, opening with a branch at 1058. But Bell countered with another at 1056. By this time "main entrance" signs bristled all the way from 1056 to 1064.

Then Tizer and Bell went to court. Tizer testified first. He claimed Bell went by and spoke abusively; then Bell's father, Joseph, 75, came along and "spit at me."

"I spit back," Tizer continued. "Then old man Bell hit me with a piece of pipe and Bell and his wife came out and pummeled me. Then Bell had me and my son arrested. 'In fact,' he added, 'he had me arrested three times.'"

"How many times did you have Tizer arrested?" asked the magistrate.

"The same," replied Bell.

"I want to tell my side," interjected Bell. "Yesterday Tizer became abusive and spit at my father. Then he came out of his car with a hammer and swung at my father. I went to dad's aid and Tizer hit me on the arm and head."

Up stepped Abraham Pearlstein. "What interest have you in this?" asked the magistrate.

"I'm Bell's brother-in-law," he answered.

"That's enough; we don't want to hear any more," said the magistrate.

Finally it was decided to resume the argument in court on November 27 and in the meantime Magistrate Roberts held the rivals in $500 bail to keep the peace.

"If there's any spitting or imperiling of the neighborhood I'll order the bail forfeited and you'll go to jail," he said.

'DON'T TRAVEL' CAMPAIGN OPENS

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Office of Defense Transportation launched a nationwide "don't travel" campaign Thursday.

Joseph B. Eastman, director of ODT, said the "don't travel" appeal was designed to focus attention of the American public on the gravity of the passenger transportation problem.

"The time is here," he said, "when all the American people must understand, what many of them now realize, that unnecessary travel can do real and serious harm to the war effort."

He said overcrowding on many rail and bus lines has already become serious, and with inter-city travel by passenger automobile almost out of the picture and troop movements increasing "conditions will become much worse, unless the American public comes to the rescue."

He added that the American people "can cure this situation" by staying at home unless there is real need to travel.

"I urge you most earnestly to ask yourself before you purchase a travel ticket or board a bus or train if you really need to make that trip," Eastman said. "If you cannot answer that question in the affirmative, please do not go."

Eastman explained that the "don't travel" drive is being worked out by ODT in collaboration with the Association of American Railroads and the National Association of Bus Operators.

MINERS SIGN AGREEMENT

Pittsburgh, Nov. 20 (AP)—Signing of an agreement between the United Mine Workers and the coal mining subsidiaries of the United States Steel corporation makes 26,500 employees, including more than 13,000 in western Pennsylvania, eligible to work up to 48 hours a week now instead of 35. Time and one-half will be paid the workers for all work over 35 hours. Their average pay is $3.64 a day, with a minimum of $1 for seven hours.

Boracic acid, the common eye lotion, is prepared from borax mined in Death Valley.

OPPOSES LEGISLATION HAMPERING RUBBER PLAN

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—Opposing legislation which he said might hamper his program, Rubber Administrator William M. Jeffers told the Senate Banking committee Thursday he was trying to get as many tires reappressed as possible to "keep the country on rubber."

This is essential, he said, because "failure to keep the country on rubber would be equivalent to a military disaster."

The committee is considering a proposal that some 300,000 small business men be given, by law, all the retail tire business, including sale, repair and reappressing, but Jeffers testified he thought "it would be a mistake to attempt any legislation until we get further along in

Washington, Nov. 20 (AP)—The Office of Defense Transportation launched a nationwide "don't travel" campaign Thursday.

Joseph B. Eastman, director of ODT, said the "don't travel" appeal was designed to focus attention of the American public on the gravity of the passenger transportation problem.

"The time is here," he said, "when all the American people must understand, what many of them now realize, that unnecessary travel can do real and serious harm to the war effort."

He said overcrowding on many rail and bus lines has already become serious, and with inter-city travel by passenger automobile almost out of the picture and troop movements increasing "conditions will become much worse, unless the American public comes to the rescue."

He added that the American people "can cure this situation" by staying at home unless there is real need to travel.

"I urge you most earnestly to ask yourself before you purchase a travel ticket or board a bus or train if you really need to make that trip," Eastman said. "If you cannot answer that question in the affirmative, please do not go."

Eastman explained that the "don't travel" drive is being worked out by ODT in collaboration with the Association of American Railroads and the National Association of Bus Operators.

Just Folks
By Edgar A. Guest

FACTORY WOMEN

Well, I never thought to see it:
women pouring through the gate

And hurrying down the hallway lest the clock shall mark them late.

The women of the country at the factories carrying on

In the places of their men folk who to freedom's war have gone.

That's a prettier box they carry than the ugly thing of tin

Which the men for years have toiled, and a dancier lunch within.

But they tell me once they've practiced and have learned the methods through

They are keeping up production as their men-folk used to do.

I watch them in the morning and I watch them homeward bound,
And I think as they go by me, here is pluck which won't be downed!

Here is pure determination! Here are women brave and true

In the places of their men folk who have bitter work to do.

Today's Talk
By George Matthew Adams

BUYING HAPPINESS

About ten years ago appeared a most interesting small book called "Buying Happiness" published by the University of Chicago Press, and written by Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed—the great scholar whose translation of the New Testament I once syndicated—or did my best to get newspapers to publish!

This book—I hope it has not entirely gone out of print—is stimulating reading. It is compiled of 14 delightfully written essays, the first of which is the title of the book and of this talk. The writer goes on to show how we all are in the business of buying happiness—no matter what we buy. It is a universal habit.

Few of us regard this thing of buying as anything other than the mere spending of money. But Dr.
Goodspeed puts a new light on it all. He says that whenever we buy anything—be it the new hat, dress or lipstick by the woman, or the new book, suit of clothes, rare postage stamp, or camera, by the man—that each is really buying happiness. And I feel that the learned Doctor is correct.

Of course most of the wives of "collectors"—(so long as they are not so classed) can see nothing in the hobby of a man but pure extravagance, and in some cases, sheer silliness. But the "collector" knows better. He knows that he is buying happiness.

When in college, I recall the day when Peary came to town and there was a parade down Main Street, and a lecture in the evening—to get some more money that the great explorer might be enabled to make another try for the discovery of the North Pole. Well, he finally succeeded. But no one ever dreamed that the old Pole would do anyone any good—excepting its discovery—which would give inspiration to thousands and extreme happiness to the man who spent so much money, and so many years, just to attain that objective.

I believe we should begrudge no one the happiness that he buys and pays for—so long as he feels that he has consummated a bargain.

It was Lowell who said that we even "bargain for the graves we believe in." But I think he was wrong. I believe that we pay for them long before we lie in them, for if we have bought happiness all through life, we take it with us when we die.
In fact it is the only thing that we do take with us. Besides, we leave a lot of it behind for others to feast upon!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "That Little Bit Within."

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO
Store Opening Is Huge Success:
More than 400 visitors attended the formal opening of Blocher's new jewelry store, 25 Chambersburg street, Thursday evening.

Before the doors opened at 7:30, a small group had gathered outside and waited for more than half an hour, in a heavy rain.

New Road to be Opened Saturday:
The Gettysburg-Hanover road will be thrown open to traffic Saturday morning. The road has been closed since August 19, when John S.
Teeter, Taneytown contractor began excavating for a mile stretch of concrete between the eastern boundary of the battlefield and the western boundary of Mt. Pleasant township.

Two Tavern Church to Mark Its
Fiftieth Anniversary Sunday: Grace
Lutheran church, Two Taverns, the Rev. J. I. Hummer, pastor, will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of its founding Sunday morning, November 20, and ending Friday evening,
November 25.

Grace Lutheran church was dedicated on Sunday, November 25, 1877, by the Rev. E. J. Metzler, the first pastor. Eight pastors have served the church since then.

Many Notables at Funeral Rites for Mr. Beales: Many notables, headed by Gov. John Fisher, paid their last respects to the memory of C. William Beales, former Congressman, State Senator and postmaster of Gettysburg, at funeral rites held at his late home on Carlisle street on Thursday morning.

A short sermon was delivered by the Rev. E. H. Jones, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, and the Rev. Dr. M. Moser, a retired Lutheran minister.

The honorary pallbearers were
Judge Donald P. McPherson, State
Treasurer S. S. Lewis, Congressman
Franklin Menges, State Senator
Norman L. Bonbrake, Judge S. Mc-
C. Swope, former Lieutenant Governor E. E. Beidelman, M. C. Burner, I. L. Taylor and Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson.

The active pallbearers were Wayne
M. Keet, Charles B. Daugherty, E.
M. Bender, Carl Martz, George P.
Black and P. C. Stock.

Accident Victim Is Holding Own:
Harry Bream, 3, seriously injured Sunday when he was struck by an automobile in front of his home in Cashtown was reported to be holding his own at the Warner hospital on Tuesday.

Compiler Sold to Corporation;
Sheely Is Head: Sale of the Gettysburg Compiler, including the weekly newspaper and job printing plant, to a corporation to be known as the Compiler Publishing company and comprising a group of prominent Democrats headed by W. Clarence Sheely, Esq., was announced on Monday by William Arch Mc-
Clean, attorney-at-law and owner.

Mr. McClean will continue temporarily as editor of The Compiler, and will also assist Mr. Sheely and his associates in the conduct of the printing business until a capable manager and editor can be obtained.

The Compiler has been published as a Democratic weekly newspaper for more than 100 years. On the first of October, Mr. McClean passed 25 years as active owner and manager of the business, having purchased it from Attorney C. E.
Stahley in October, 1902. He has been assisted in recent years by his daughter, Miss Frances McClean, who also plans to retire from active work in the business.

Birth Announcement: Word has been received here of the birth of a son, George Herbert, 3rd, to Mr.
and Mrs. George Herbert Thrush, Jr., of New Orleans, on Saturday, November 12. This is their first child.

Mrs. Kennedy Heads G.O.P. club:
Mrs. Maude Wiernman Kennedy,
York Springs, was re-elected president of the Adams county Women's Republican club at the organization meeting Saturday afternoon. Other officers elected were: Miss Mary Mc-Conaughy, first vice president; Miss
Reba Adams, second vice president;
Mrs. J. E. Snyder, secretary; Mrs.
John L. Kendeheart, treasurer.

Seven delegates will be sent to Harrisburg next week to represent Adams county at the Pennsylvania Council of Republican Women. The delegates selected are Mrs. Marie Ziegler, Mrs. Sara Geiselman, Mrs.
Nettie Weiser, Mrs. Anna Baschlar, Mrs. Annie Marsh, Mrs. N. L. Min-ter and Mrs. Kennedy.

Birth Announcement: Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bowers, Straban township, announce the birth of a daughter, Winifred Alois, November 10.

2 Students to Become Pilots:
Gomer Sharp, Gettysburg, and Blaine Walter, Biglerville, are the first student fliers to receive certificates from the Gettysburg Airport.
These men are the first in this class to receive the certificate, announced after three hours of instruction in the air. This certificate qualifies the men to continue their course in aviation and practically assures them a pilot's license.

Light Cruiser Boise Bagged 6 Jap Warships In 27 Minutes

CREW'S HEROISM EARNS PLACE IN NAVAL HISTORY

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—Given up for lost in a dramatic night battle off the Solomon islands a month ago, the American light cruiser Boise steamed triumphantly into Philadelphia late yesterday, and today the Fourth Naval district revealed stories of the epic individual heroism which won the "one-ship fleet" a hallowed place in American naval history.

Outnumbered and outgunned, the Boise was chiefly instrumental in sinking six Japanese warships in 27 minutes of point-blank battle during the night of October 26-27 after intercepting an enemy force moving toward Guadalcanal. During her extraordinary achievement she was ripped, battered and enveloped in mast-high flames. Other craft in the U. S. cruiser-destroyer pack left her behind as fatally stricken.

But two hours later she steamed out of the darkness and took her accustomed place in the column.

19 Decorations

Some of the secrets of her epic victory were revealed today when the Navy explained why 19 officers and men, four of them killed, received decorations during her trip home.

Lieut. (JG) Milo B. Everts, of Minneapolis, received the Navy cross because "fire . . . broke out at his post, but he made no attempt to leave it," the Navy said. He was found dead at his post later.

Minor Butler Poole of Clinton, Mississippi, gunner's mate first class, got the Navy cross after he "gave his life to prevent an explosion of ammunition."

"He put on a gas mask and entered a compartment to flood it during a fire. He was killed before achieving his mission."

Lieut. Commander Edward C.
Kenney, Medical Corps, of Bucyrus, Ohio, although under heavy fire, removed wounded from shell-struck areas and "no wounded man under his charge died as a result of wounds received."

Vint Elliott Eden, seaman first class, of Accoville, West Virginia, extinguished a fire "with utter disregard for his own safety," then "saved a man's life by artificial respiration" and worked on at other tasks "until overcome by exhaustion."

King Greets Crew

A band blared "Hold That Tiger" and seamen of other ships cheered as the scarred ship limped into port at the Philadelphia Navy yard. Its crew received greetings from Admiral Ernest J. King, commander in chief of the United States fleet, who came here by plane from Washington.

Capt. E. J. (Mike) Moran, officer in command, made this announcement of the craft's losses:

"It is with deep regret that I report three officers and 104 men killed in this action. I do, however,

Chapman Seeks Senate Leadership

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—Senator
Leroy E. Chapman today formally declared himself a candidate for president pro-tempore of the Pen-sylvania Senate and claimed pledges of support from most of the Republican majority.

The Warren county doctor, one of the oldest members of the Senate in point of service, said he understood that Senator Charles H. Ealy of Somerset, was willing to give up his post when the legislature re-organizes January 5. Republicans will continue to control the branch with a 32-18 majority.

"I think I am entitled to the place on account of seniority," Chapman said. "I notified all the Republican Senators that I was a candidate and had some very good replies. I think I have a majority of the vote and it looks as though I'm going to be president pro-tempore."

Ealy has made no announcement concerning his plans but it was learned he looks upon continuing his Senate leadership more or less with indifference, contending "it's up to the members."

Chapman has served in the Senate since 1930.

Relief Grants For Food Are Increased

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—A $360-000 monthly increase in public assistance food grants today assured some 312,000 Pennsylvanians of what state officials described as a health-maintaining standard.

Governor James approved the boosts, the second granted within recent months, for recipients of general assistance, aid to dependent children and old age assistance.

"There will be an increase for every assistance case in the state, except for the blind, who have a flat pension fixed by law, and about 1-100 old age assistance recipients, who have already received a $10 a month increase within the past three months and who are now at the

Letters To The Editor

The Gettysburg Times,
Dear Sir:

It is with great pleasure that I am taking this opportunity to express my sincere appreciation to you for sending me The Gettysburg Times. I find it a great help to me in keeping up with the news and happenings back home. Not only that but it also enables me to know where some of my fellow-soldiers are located by reading their letters.

Some time ago an article appeared in your paper about my brother and I meeting here at Fort Knox.
He is an M.P. and I see him quite often, and that sure is a break for both of us because not all brothers are that lucky. So you see we both have something to be thankful for this season of Thanksgiving.

I have been in the Army for five months now and I must say that I am proud of the fact that I am wearing the uniform of my country and that I am doing my little bit in helping America on to victory.

Once again I want to thank you and I hope to continue receiving the paper as long as it's possible.

Yours truly,
PVT. JOHN H. MYERS,

Urges Scrapping Of Unusable Cars

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—The regional office of the War Production board urges owners of unserviceable automobiles to turn them in for scrap to help meet a critical shortage of metal in auto junkyards.

Yards in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware and Virginia which have supplied 300,000 tons of scrap metals monthly since Pearl Harbor now report shrinking inventories of old cars. Blanche Randall, Jr., district WPB conservation manager, said yesterday.

Describing the eastern Pennsylvania situation as "typical," he said that 616 yards reported on November 1 their inventory of cars being scrapped had declined to 15,772.

"This inventory does not equal July shipments," Randall pointed out.

Lull Looms In Linoleum Lane Legal Lineup

Philadelphia, Nov. 20 (AP)—The battle of Linoleum Lane—was at a standstill today, with both sides checked by the law.

It started months ago, when Benjamin Tizer, 56, opened a floor-covering store at 1064 North 2nd street.
Then Louis Bell, 38, started operations on the same front with a linoleum emporium at 1060-1062.

Tizer tried a flanking movement, opening with a branch at 1058. But Bell countered with another at 1056.
By this time "main entrance" signs bristled all the way from 1056 to 1064.

Then Tizer and Bell went to court.
Tizer testified first. He claimed Bell went by and spoke abusively; then Bell's father, Joseph, 75, came along and "spit at me."

"I spit back," Tizer continued.
"Then old man Bell hit me with a piece of pipe and Bell and his wife came out and pummeled me. Then Bell had me and my son arrested."

"In fact," he added, "he had me arrested three times."

"How many times did you have Tizer arrested?" asked the magistrate.

"The same," replied Bell.

"I want to tell my side," interjected Bell. "Yesterday Tizer became abusive and spit at my father. Then he came out of his car with a hammer and swung at my father. I went to dad's aid and Tizer hit me on the arm and head."

Up stepped Abraham Pearlstein.
"What interest have you in this?"
asked the magistrate.

"I'm Bell's brother-in-law," he answered.

"That's enough; we don't want to hear any more," said the magistrate.

Finally it was decided to resume the argument in court on November 27 and in the meantime Magistrate
Roberts held the rivals in $500 bail to keep the peace.

"If there's any spitting or imperiling of the neighborhood I'll order the bail forfeited and you'll go to jail," he said.

The lawyers walked out arm-in-

CONVICTED OF TREASON
New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Anthony Cramer may have to pay with his life for help he gave eight men who landed in this country from Nazi submarines to wage a campaign of terror and sabotage. The 42-year-old New York mechanic was convicted of treason Wednesday by a federal jury that deliberated two hours over charges that he met, aided and comforted recently-executed Werner Thiel and Edward J. Kerlin of the contingent of would-be saboteurs that landed in Florida; and made false statements to the FBI.

Proclamation Issued For Thanksgiving

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—Pennsylvanians in observing Thanksgiving Day, Governor James urges, should go humbly "before God and give thanks for all which he has given us and humbly beseech that in the days ahead our acts as a people and a nation may be pleasing in his sight."

In his holiday proclamation, the governor declared:
"Let us give thanks that despite a world ablaze, when peoples around the globe quake in terror, the freedom that was born on our own Pennsylvania soil still flourishes in the hearts of our men and women."
"Let us give thanks that our land has survived 166 years to produce the finest nation on the face of the earth, a nation created to live in freedom and now warring to protect and preserve that freedom."

RETAILERS GET

sons under 15 years are not valid for coffee.

There will be no general registration of coffee consumers such as was conducted in the sugar program.

To List Institutional Users
There will be, however, a registration of institutional users of coffee which will be conducted at local board offices on November 23, 24 and 25. Boards will register institutional users on the same form used in the sugar registration.

There is no registration of retailers and wholesalers now, but they will have to furnish reports to the board later. These retailers and wholesalers may secure their allowable inventories of coffee by using purchase warrants which they may prepare and issue themselves.

How Amount Is Determined
The first stamp that consumers use for coffee must cover the period from November 29 to January 3.

Arrangements are being made now by the two local boards in this county to handle the registration of industrial users of coffee next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The user must register at the same local board where his sugar registration is filed. A user who has not registered for sugar must, nevertheless, register for coffee at the board office having jurisdiction over his principal business office.

In determining the coffee allotment for the first period which will extend from the registration date through January 31, 1943, the initial inventory and coffee base must be determined. The initial inventory is made up of coffee in the possession of the institutional user to which he has title. Coffee in transit or bought and ear-marked also may be counted.

The institutional users shall report the amount of coffee they used in the preparation of beverages during September and October of this year as their "coffee base."

List of Purchases
The total allotment for which an institution is eligible for the period from November 22 through January 31 shall be 100 per cent of the coffee base, but the coffee purchase certificates will be issued in the amount of the total allotment minus the initial inventory. Users must list on a separate piece of paper the names and addresses of all persons from whom they bought roasted coffee during the base period and the quantities purchased from each.

CHICKENS—As to size, Rocks, 26-28c, few higher; crosses and Reds, 24-26c, few higher.

EGGS—1 lb. up. Rocks, 26-27c; mixed colors, 26-28c; Leghorns, 17-19c, few higher.

DUCKS—Pekin, 20-22c; Muscovies, white, 21-22c; black and mixed colors, 19-20c.

GUINEAS—Young, 2 lbs. and over, 26-28c; smaller, 25c per pound.

TURKEYS—Young, 35-36c; toms, 20-22c.

CATTLE—Some abridgement was again noticed in the salable offering of slaughter cattle, which arrived for the Thursday trading period at the Baltimore Union Stockyards. Fresh receipts were estimated at 550 head, with around 250 head listed as holdovers, but not included in the first figure. A fairly active trade prevailing, especially so for steers, yearlings and canner and cutter cows. Other classes of cattle were yarded in limited numbers. Steers and yearlings cleared at strong prices, with a number of sales reflecting 10-25c advance. Cow prices were around steady, while heifers and bulls were not materially changed in the price column. The early peak for slaughter steers was $14.75, taking a short load of good 1,342-pound bullocks. Several loads and lots of similar grading steers and yearlings, 1,014-1,225-pound averages, moved from $13.50-14.50. Majority of the steers and yearlings sold on display or medium and good kinds, sold from $13.25-14. Common 900-1,050-pound arrivals cleared at $12.50-12.75. A few replacement buyers were on hand, but the supply available was small. Some good 435-pound heifer calves turned at $13; also 900-pound white-faced feeders at the same price. This section of the livestock trade reflected largely steady prices. The heifer contingent comprised mainly common and medium grassy from $10.50-12. A few good beef cows were eligible to around the $11 price, but these were rather scarce. Most of the canner and cutter cows eased from $6.50-8.75, with common and medium grades from $5-10. Lightweight shelly causers again sold downward to $5. Bulls were offered in reduced numbers, good kinds especially scarce. Quotaable $12 mixed. Most common and medium sausage mulls cleared from $9-11.50.

CALVES—Strong prices were realized for yearlings and calves. Sorting continued light and receipts were less than recent market periods. Top yearlings held at $15.50, with most of the medium and good grades selling from $13.50-16. Bulk of the heavy calves earned from $11.50-13, with some good around 250-pound averages at $13.

HOGS—Swine prices developed at 10c lower levels as compared with the mid-week session. This decline was applied to all weights of barrows, gilts and sows. Thursday's practical limit for butchers rested at $14.45. Weights ranged from 140-220 pounds, $13.25-14.25; 220-240 pounds, $13.50-14.50; 240-260 pounds, $13.80-14.80; 260-280 pounds, $13.80-14.80. Good and choice butchers calved generally at the outside price in each weight group. Good sows averaging from 270-400 pounds found the outlet from $13.10-13.60. The above prices are based on grain-fed hogs.

LAMBS AND SHEEP—Lamb prices remained at generally steady figures, with the offering of other slaughter classes too limited to test the market strength. The popular price for good and choice lambs was $16, a few at $15.75. Weights ranged from 65-80 pounds, largely in the 70-pound column. Some mixed lots of common, medium and good lambs were taken from $12-15. Good and choice grades comprised around one-half of the salable supply.

CONVICTED OF TREASON. New York, Nov. 20 (AP)—Anthony Cramer may have to pay with his life for help he gave eight men who landed in this country from Nazi submarines to wage a campaign of terror and sabotage. The 42-year-old New York mechanic was convicted of treason Wednesday by a federal jury that deliberated two hours over charges that he met, aided and comforted recently-executed Werner Thiel and Edward J. Kerlin of the contingent of would-be saboteurs that landed in Florida; and made false statements to the FBI.

Proclamation Issued For Thanksgiving

Harrisburg, Nov. 20 (AP)—Pennsylvania in observing Thanksgiving Day, Governor James Uges, should go humbly "before God and give thanks for all which he has given us and humbly beseech that in the days ahead our acts as a people and a nation may be pleasing in his sight."

In his holiday proclamation, the governor declared:

"Let us give thanks that despite a world ablaze, when peoples around the globe quake in terror, the freedom that was born on our own Pennsylvania soil still flourishes in the hearts of our men and women. 'Let us give thanks that our land has survived 166 years to produce the finest nation on the face of the earth, a nation created to live in freedom and now warring to protect and preserve that freedom.'"

sons under 15 years are not valid for coffee.

There will be no general registration of coffee consumers such as was conducted in the sugar program.

To List Institutional Users. There will be, however, a registration of institutional users of coffee which will be conducted at local board offices on November 23, 24 and 25. Boards will register institutional users on the same form used in the sugar registration.

There is no registration of retailers and wholesalers now, but they will have to furnish reports to the board later. These retailers and wholesalers may secure their allowable inventories of coffee by using purchase warrants which they may prepare and issue themselves.

How Amount Is Determined. The first stamp that consumers use for coffee must cover the period from November 29 to January 3.

Arrangements are being made now by the two local boards in this county to handle the registration of industrial users of coffee next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The user must register at the same local board where his sugar registration is filed. A user who has not registered for sugar must, nevertheless, register for coffee at the board office having jurisdiction over his principal business office.

In determining the coffee allotment for the first period which will extend from the registration date through January 31, 1943, the initial inventory and coffee base must be determined. The initial inventory is made up of coffee in the possession of the institutional user to which he has title. Coffee in transit or bought and ear-marked also may be counted.

The institutional users shall report the amount of coffee they used in the preparation of beverages during September and October of this year as their "coffee base."

List of Purchases. The total allotment for which an institution is eligible for the period from November 22 through January 31 shall be 100 per cent of the coffee base, but the coffee purchase certificates will be issued in the amount of the total allotment minus the initial inventory. Users must list on a separate piece of paper the names and addresses of all persons from whom they bought roasted coffee during the base period and the quantities purchased from each.

Retailers and wholesalers, who for the present will issue their own purchase certificates, will obtain at a future date from local ration boards special report forms which will require a statement of their inventory as of midnight November 21, while the allowable inventory will be calculated on the basis of one pound for each $10 of gross sales in all departments of the establishment during September, 1942.

Purchase warrants must be turned over to suppliers by specified dates with no coffee to be shipped on purchase warrants after December 26.

Ration stamps collected by retailers from consumers must be surrendered to suppliers or the ration board within 10 days after the close of the ration period for which the stamps are valid. Complete records of coffee stocks and warrants must be kept by the retailers and wholesalers.

Sugar cane is substituted in many uses for corn, formerly imported from Spain.

POISON CAUSED 47 DEATHS IN OREGON ASYLUM

Salem, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—A powerful poison, possibly an insecticide mistaken for powdered milk and used to cook scrambled eggs, caused the deaths of 47 insane asylum inmates, an investigation disclosed today, and Gov. Charles A. Sprague termed the tragedy "mass murder."

The governor said he had directed the state police to "leave no stone unturned in their effort to affix responsibility for this mass murder." The possibility of homicide was studied.

Analysis Reveals Poison
Dr. J. C. Evans, hospital superintendent, said an analysis of the eggs served at dinner Wednesday night showed they contained a deadly poison (sodium fluoride) commonly used in insecticides. He cited the possibility that roach powder, kept in a barrel in a cellar under the kitchen, was put into the eggs during their preparation instead of powdered milk, stored nearby. The powders are similar in appearance.

He said an inmate kitchen helper preparing the eggs left the pot unattended for five or ten minutes while he went to the cellar in search of powdered milk. It is possible, he said, that the poison could have been put into the eggs during that time.

Rats used in a test by Dr. Frank Menne, University of Oregon bacteriologist, showed no ill effects after eating egg yolks taken directly from cans of frozen eggs, but died in three to five minutes after consuming left-overs from the hospital dinner.

A total of 467 inmates who ate the eggs became violently ill in a matter of minutes afterward. All were nauseated, complained of stomach cramps, paralysis of the legs and difficulty in breathing.

Many Remain Ill
The strong lived; the weaker died in agony. Dr. Evans said many still are critically ill and he feared the death

Additional Rules Cover Sugar Book

With other commodities soon to be rationed through the use of the general war ration book which to date has covered only sugar, the OPA has announced rules under which persons who had an excess supply of sugar at registration time on May 4 may now secure ration books.

The rules cover not only individuals with surplus supplies, but also industrial users who have an unused portion of sugar from their provisional allowance.

Consumers may apply to the local rationing board for permission to turn over this excess sugar provided it is in its original package. Similar provision is made for industrial users.

strafed. In the accompanying aerial action three enemy zero fighters were shot down.

Today's official report did not indicate whether the barge rendezvous which the bombers turned into a disaster was an attempt to withdraw some of the hard-pressed enemy troops or to reinforce them.

The nearest other Japanese held bases are at Lae and Salamaua, 150-160 miles to the northwest on New Guinea, and the sea offers the only feasible line of escape for the trapped Japanese.

toil might increase within the next week or two.

The frozen eggs were part of a shipment of 36,780 pounds distributed several months ago to various western states. They came from the east or mid-west and originally were purchased as a lease-lend shipment but were diverted apparently because of a lack of proper shipping space.

Eggs of the same shipment had been used in school lunches and institutions for months without any sign of ill effects.

TOKYO LOSES

heavy cruiser, three large cruisers and a destroyer.

United States battleships, mentioned for the first time in a Navy communiqué on the southwestern Pacific war, thundered into the fight, exchanging long-range wallops that forced the foe to turn stern and flee northward.

While citing the sinking of the five warships and the damaging of another battleship, cruiser and a destroyer, the Navy cautioned that "this report of damage may include some of the damage already reported."

A naval spokesman expressed belief, however, that if there was any duplication, it probably was not extensive.

Some Details Lacking

The first report of the savage encounter with the Rising Sun's war fleet from Nov. 13 to 15 told Monday of the destruction of 23 Japanese vessels including a battleship and three heavy cruisers. Seven others, including a battleship, were declared damaged. The communiqué also explained that details of the Saturday night battle "have not yet been received."

The Japanese have admitted loss of a battleship in the conflict, a cruiser and three destroyers but claimed that eight American cruisers were sunk, one transport and four or five destroyers.

JAMES W. OLIVER, VETERAN OF 1ST WORLD WAR, DIES

James Wilson Oliver, 46, died at the home of Mrs. Martha Stroup, 125 North Washington street, Friday morning at 9 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been ill since 1937 and was bedfast since Labor Day.

He was born in Jeffersonville, Indiana, a son of Mrs. M. E. Cochran, Nashville, Tennessee, and the late Ernest Oliver.

In June, 1932 he was married to Miss Irene Stroup and since that time resided in Gettysburg. Previously he lived in Harrisburg.

He was a veteran of World War I, enlisting in 1917 as a member of Co. B, 41st Infantry. He served in various companies until his discharge on March 24, 1922. His service required him to be stationed in Hawaii, China and the Philippines. As a sergeant he served as instructor at Gettysburg college for some time.

Former Highway Employee

Following his discharge from the army he was employed by the state highway until 1932 and from then until his illness was employed as a chief clerk at the U. S. Depot, New Cumberland. Mr. Oliver was a member of the American Legion Post No. 27, Harrisburg.

Surviving are his widow; his mother; one brother, George T. Oliver, Oak Park, Illinois, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Sweeney, Nashville. Funeral services were held from the Bender funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. R. R. Gresh. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

2 PHYSICIANS ARE NAMED TO WARNER STAFF

Two practicing physicians were elected to membership on the Warner hospital staff and two specialists from nearby cities were named as consulting pathologists for the Warner hospital at the November meeting of the hospital board Friday evening at the Nurses' home.

Dr. John J. Knox, Gettysburg, who closed his offices Saturday to join the Air corps as a first lieutenant, and Dr. Robert Stockton McVaugh, Taneytown, Md., were made members of the staff.

Doctor Knox, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's college and the University of Maryland medical school, has practiced in Gettysburg for the last three years. Doctor McVaugh is a graduate of the medical school of the University of Virginia and practiced in Georgia for four years before going to Taneytown in 1939.

Elected as consulting pathologists were Dr. Philip R. Custer, Philadelphia, and Dr. George R. Moffitt of Harrisburg.

Dr. E. H. Markley, president, presided at the board session and urged the directors to stimulate interest in their current food drive for the hospital in their respective communities.

Busy Month

The directors examined the October report for the hospital showing an average of 44 patients was cared for daily with all departments of the institution experiencing a busy month.

The report showed 144 patients were admitted, 136 discharged, 32 births, five deaths, 40 patients remaining on the last day of the month, 141 radiographs, 704 laboratory examinations, 30 operations, 64 accidents, 20 intravenous administrations, five blood transfusions, five basal metabolism, five radium treatments, eight electrocardiograms and 87 return dressings and treatments.

Directors present included: Doctor Markley, C. H. Smith, William Durboraw, H. H. Miller, Dr. Mark E. Stock, Carl Baum, N. B. Schurman, Frank Waybright, Henry M. Scharf, secretary, and R. B. Martin, all of Gettysburg; C. A. Bixler, New Oxford; E. C. McDannell, Arentsville; Guy Stock, Bendersville; C. L. Echoltz, New Oxford; William Sneringer, Littlestown; Howard Musselman, Orrtanna, and M. P. Stoner, Fairfield.

Displays Photos Of County Soldiers

A special window display has been set up at Rea and Derick's drug store to pay tribute to the Adams county soldiers serving in the World War, to mark the observance of Armistice Day and the 70th anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address next Thursday.

One hundred and thirty-five photographs of Adams county service men, each identified, comprise the main theme of the display. The pictures are mounted on display board with a background of American flags.

In the center of the display is a large bronze plaque of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address furnished by Charles T. Ziegler.

Robert Lewis, manager of the drug store, said the display will be torn down today.

HITCH-HIKER CONFESSES TO TWO ROBBERIES

A hitch-hiker, picked up on suspicion by Chief of Police G. Guise last Friday morning ten minutes after a robbery at the National garage office had been reported to the officer, confessed Friday evening to two robberies here after the local police chief confronted him with positive proof of his guilt.

The prisoner, Alton Adam Hoffman, 18-year-old former rubber plant worker from Akron, Ohio, now is a prisoner in the county jail in default of bail for court. He is charged with larceny of a pocket-book from the National garage office and with burglary and larceny in the theft of a money bag containing about $30 from the Cities Service station on Buford avenue.

Both charges were filed by Chief Guise before Justice of the Peace John H. Bashore. The justice received the pleas of guilty and ordered the youth to jail.

Describe Suspect

Friday morning at 9 o'clock Carl Menchey, National garage manager, reported to Chief Guise that his pocketbook containing about $3 in bills and license and ration cards had been stolen from the garage office. Russell Howard, colored employee at the garage, and Mrs. Marie Hummer, the bookkeeper, described a hitch-hiker who had used the washroom a few minutes before.

Chief Guise located the man, answering the description, on Buford avenue opposite the Cities Service station which a few minutes later was to report the second robbery. Chief Guise questioned the youth who gave a satisfactory story but when the officer found more than $30 in the man's pockets including three packs of pennies in bank wrappers he took him to the police headquarters.

Howard later identified Hoffman as the stranger who had been in the garage office but Hoffman maintained his innocence. It was not until Friday evening when H. Elmer Snyder, proprietor of the Buford avenue station, returned to Gettysburg and named the denominations of the stolen bills in the missing money bag that Hoffman confessed. The prisoner said he got the wrapped pennies at the National garage but they had not been missed there and were not reported as being among the loot.

Hoffman showed the policeman where he tossed Menchey's pocketbook along the railroad tracks, near the Ice and Storage company plant. This morning Chief Guise found the Snyder money bag lying along Buford avenue where it was tossed by Hoffman Friday unnoticed by state highway workers.

Enroute To Home

Hoffman told Guise he went into the Atlantic service station on Buford avenue also but found it occupied. He asked there to have the wrapped pennies exchanged for paper money but was refused.

He said he rode by bus from Akron to Durham, North Carolina, to visit a sister. Unable to locate her, he hitch-hiked to Washington, Baltimore, Philadelphia and then to Gettysburg enroute back to Akron. The money he saved from working at an Akron rubber plant was exhausted and he needed money to ride home by bus, Hoffman said.

Victory Dance At Colored Elks Club

Colored residents of Gettysburg will celebrate the GOP election victory with a Victory Dance Wednesday evening from 9 to 12:30 o'clock at the colored Elks building on West High street. Bill Jones and his Happy Six will furnish music for the dancing. There will be refreshments. Arrangements for the affair were made by John H. Bashore, county GOP chairman.

YOUTHS, 18 IN LAST HALF OF YEAR, REGISTER

Washington, Nov. 18 — President Roosevelt fixed three separate registration periods today for youths who have reached or will reach their 18th birthdays in the last half of this year.

By proclamation, he set the week beginning December 11 and ending December 17 for draft registration of those who became 18 in July and August.

Young men who reached that age in September and October will register in the following week and those who became 18 in November and December will register in the week starting December 26 and closing December 31.

Continuous Registration

Mr. Roosevelt also provided for continuous registration on their birthdays of youths who become 18 on or after next January 1. If the birthday falls on a Sunday or holiday, they must register the next day.

This will be the sixth draft registration. The last, on June 30th, covered young men who already were 18 or 19 and those who had become 20 since the preceding registration.

Mr. Roosevelt's proclamation said the new registration and the others which had been held were "advisable to insure victory, final and complete, over the enemies of the United States."

The new registration will take place simultaneously in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, with daily registration hours fixed for 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. (local time).

Late Registrants

Late registrations will be permitted for those unable to present themselves during the stated periods because of circumstances beyond their control.

The Chief Executive asked that all employers give their workers sufficient time off to complete their registrations.

Selective Service headquarters revealed today that local boards had been instructed to reclassify all registrants heretofore deferred because of conviction of crimes.

No more deferments are to be made on this ground unless the registrants "are completely disqualified morally and are not eligible for a waiver under the new Army standards," the boards were told.

"RAID" ALARM GIVES SCHOOLS MORE PRACTICE

Along with the remainder of the state, Adams county experienced its first air raid alarm test of the month Monday morning at 10:20 o'clock and county defense authorities described the results in this county as successful.

It was Adams county's first morning alarm but "everything went through in good shape" on the basis of reports made to the county control center in the court house basement. No violations have been reported.

The state-wide test stopped traffic throughout Pennsylvania, sent thousands of civilian defense staff members scurrying to their posts while other thousands of civilians sought air raid shelters.

At Harrisburg it was stated the test drill was arranged to iron out kinks in the system and to give schools further experience in assembling pupils at pre-arranged places inside the buildings.

The "yellow" signal was sent through at 10 a. m. The blue followed at 10:10 and the red "audible alarm" flash came at 10:20 a. m. The "all clear" sounded a half hour later.

The siren sounded just as the first case in the November term was ready to go to trial in the county court room. Judge W. C. Sheely directed persons in the court room to assemble in the first floor hallway, which is a public air raid shelter, and cautioned them against leaving the building. Court reconvened at 11 o'clock.

A night blackout test also is scheduled for this month. There will be no advance announcement of the time.

$5,000 CARGO OF CHRISTMAS GOODS UPSETS

A five thousand dollar cargo of Christmas goods bound for the Rea and Derick store on center square, from Northumberland, was strewn along a 500-foot stretch of the Harrisburg road a mile north of here just before noon Tuesday when the side of the covered van hauling the goods was stripped off in a collision with a tree.

Lester Willard, 38, Sunbury, driver of the truck, said he fell asleep. After the truck hit the tree on the west side of the highway it veered across the road and stopped completely blocking the highway.

Treated at Hospital

Willard was treated at the Warner hospital for cuts on the forehead. He was taken to the hospital by John Hall, who lives near the scene of the crash.

Willard's load of candies, cigarettes, sugar, coffee, Coca-Cola and toiletries was spread along the roadside and on the highway. The right side of the van was stripped off completely.

A Gettysburg truck was called to the scene to gather up usable parts of the three-ton load.

At 1:45 o'clock this afternoon the highway remained blocked, forcing traffic to detour by the Hunterstown or Biglerville roads.

Willard was riding alone. His last stop before the crash was at Harrisburg.

Eight Railroaders End First Aid Course

Eight Reading company employees have completed a standard Red Cross first aid course under the instruction of Paul R. Mehning and Lloyd R. Hartman. Three Gettysburg air raid wardens also were members of the class.

The pupils included Morris L. Fleagle, Henry W. Garvin, M. P. Hartzell, Thomas W. Hummelbaugh, Chester E. Mehning, Jr., D. M. Stouffer, William E. Voorhees and Fred Worthington of the Reading railroad, and Wardens Ralph B. Butt, Raymond E. Menzies and Edward N. Stine.

How Would You Get A Cow Out Of A Well?

Fill Hole With Water And Float The Animal To The Top Or—

A 1,200-pound Holstein cow owned by Freeman Weigle, near Biglerville, was rescued from a 25-foot well Wednesday afternoon after it had struggled for two hours to keep afloat in 18 feet of water.

The cow crashed through rotted boards covering a well in the field where the herd was grazing. The Biglerville Fire company was summoned and pumped the well dry. Then a winch supplied by the Rees company was used to lift the cow from the well. The animal was unharmed by its experience.

MILLER ACTION DISCONTINUED IN COURT HERE

The scheduled re-trial of the suit against George A. Miller, Miller apartments, Gettysburg, by his sister, Miss Mary A. Miller, of Baltimore, was dropped suddenly Tuesday morning when the case record in the office of Prothonotary Lee M. Hartman at the court house was marked "discontinued."

The record also carried the notation that the costs of the case are to be paid by Miss Miller. The case headed the list of civil actions for trial at the current session of Common Pleas court.

A year ago a jury awarded Miss Miller a verdict of $17,500 against her brother on the basis of her claim that she had paid him sums totaling that amount years ago. Miller denied receiving the money from his sister and claimed that instead she had sought financial aid from him.

Won Second Trial

J. Francis Yake, Esq., who represented Mr. Miller, filed more than 25 motions for a new trial and finally won a court order for a re-trial of the action chiefly on the basis of a $3,000 check which he discovered Miss Miller had paid over to a Catholic church project during the period in which she testified in court that all withdrawals from her bank account had been for the benefit of her brother.

Neither Mr. Yake as counsel for Mr. Miller nor E. V. Bullett, Esq., who represents Miss Miller would discuss the conditions under which the discontinuance was arranged or the reasons for it. Whatever the reasons, Miss Miller has dropped her suit.

Coincidentally with the discontinuance of the court action, the court Tuesday signed a citation directed to both Miss Miller and her brother requiring them to file an account in the estate of their deceased mother, Mrs. Catherine Miller. The citation was petitioned for by Richard A. Brown, Esq., representing the Gettysburg National bank as trustee under the will of Mrs. Miller. The citations are returnable on December 14. Both were turned over immediately to Sheriff D. J. Wolff for service.

Damage Action

First civil case to go on trial Tuesday was the damage action by Edgar J. Warren, Wewksville, against Ernest Carbaugh, Cashtown. In a verdict read at noon Carbaugh won the case. Warren will have the costs of the case to pay.

Warren, who was represented by Richard A. Brown, Esq., asked $114 for damages suffered by his car in an accident on the Cashtown-Arentsville road on December 18, 1940. Warren claimed Carbaugh, who was driving a car traveling in the opposite direction forced him off the highway where he hit a pole.

Carbaugh, whose counsel was Franklin R. Bigham, Esq., denied that he had contributed in any way to the mishap that damaged the plaintiff's car. The machines did not collide.

The jury in the case included: Roy Butt, Mt. Pleasant township; Frank H. Brane, Conowingo township; John A. Butler, Abbotstown T. 1; Miss Alma Cluck, McKnightstown; the Rev. Emmert G. Colestock, Fairfield; Mrs. H. M. Gardner, York Springs R. 2; Mrs. Marie Hartzell, Fairfield; Mrs. Margaret J. Knox, Gettysburg R. 3; Nellie I. Saunders, Abbotstown; Mrs. Maggie Slaybaugh, New Oxford R. 1; Fred Smith, McSherrystown, and Elmer C. Wagner, York Springs R. 1.

R.C. APPEALS FOR MORE AID

Not half finished with their September quota of 9,000 surgical dressings and with quotas totaling more than 67,000 additional dressings for October and November not yet started, officers of the county chapter of the Red Cross appealed today for more volunteers to help make surgical dressings each weekday afternoon at the work center on East High street, Gettysburg.

"This work is being done at the express and urgent request of the United States Army and is of emergency nature," Mrs. LeRoy W. Winebrenner, who is in charge of the surgical dressing work said today. "When we finish the three-month quota we are working on now, we have an order for an additional 25,000 dressings in December." About half enough volunteers appear daily from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. and on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 o'clock, Mrs. Winebrenner said.

Dedicate Book To Eisenhower

Gen. Dwight F. Eisenhower, commander of United States troops in the European theatre, was honored Friday by students of Gettysburg college who voted to dedicate "The Spectrum," college annual, to him this year.

In World War I General Eisenhower was commander of a tank-training corps at Gettysburg, and he is well acquainted with the historic Gettysburg battlefield.

JUDGE SHEELY WILL ADDRESS LINCOLN FETE

Exercises in the National cemetery Saturday afternoon and the annual banquet of the Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' association of the Sons of Union Veterans at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday evening will form the local observance of the seventy-ninth anniversary of the dedication of the Gettysburg National cemetery by Abraham Lincoln.

No special observance is planned for Thursday, the anniversary date. Judge W. C. Sheely, president judge of the courts of Adams and Fulton counties, will be the speaker at exercises to be held in the cemetery Saturday afternoon under the sponsorship of the local camp of the Sons of Veterans.

Special invitations have been issued to a dozen local residents who heard Lincoln to attend the ceremony in the cemetery. Cars will leave the East Middle street post room at 2 o'clock and the exercises will follow. In event of bad weather the program will be conducted in the post room.

Lincoln Impersonator

The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church of Gettysburg, and Lincoln's address will be repeated by P. J. Kammerer, Newville, a Lincoln impersonator. After Judge Sheely's address a wreath will be placed on an unknown soldier's grave by a Son of a Veteran.

The benediction will be given by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college and president of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania.

The Sons of Veterans' committee in charge, headed by William A. Means, Esq., chairman, today listed these local residents who heard Lincoln 79 years ago and who are being invited to be present at the anniversary services: William C. Storrick, Reuben H. Culp, Charles W. Culp, Sr., Jacob A. Stock, William Bushman, Edward L. Weikert, Sr., John D. W. Deardorff, Edward Trostle, Mrs. C. William Ziegler and Mrs. Amanda Homan. J. S. Smuck, who came here from Hanover last year for the ceremony, also has been invited. Other local persons who heard Lincoln are urged to be present Saturday, the committee said.

Expect Singers

The Arion Singing society from Baltimore has promised to be here for Saturday's program if transportation can be arranged. The original society sang here in 1863 at the dedication.

Henry E. Luhrs, Shippensburg, secretary of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania which has met here annually on November 19 since its formation several years ago, has written members of the organization that because of travel restrictions it has been thought best to omit this year's meeting. Present officers will carry on and are urged to further interest in Lincoln in their respective communities.

The twelfth annual banquet of the Past Presidents and Past Commanders of the S.U.V. on Saturday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg will be addressed by Col. Neil A. Harper of the Carlisle Barracks.

Truckers Told To Await Certificates

Adams county truckers who have received from the local rationing boards application forms for gasoline ration cards for Nov. 21, were instructed Saturday to hold these applications until they receive from the Office of Defense Transportation their certificates for War Necessity.

Then the completed gasoline applications together with the War Necessity certificates are to be presented to the local rationing boards who will issue gas ration cards in line with the provisions of the individual certificates issued by the ODT.

UPTON CROMER, FARMER, KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR SEVEN STARS

Upton Cromer, 73-year-old Franklin township farmer, was killed instantly about 5:15 o'clock last Thursday evening when he was struck by a Western Maryland locomotive as he walked along the tracks a quarter of a mile west of Seven Stars.

Mr. Cromer, who had been very deaf for a number of years, is believed not to have heard the train approaching from the east as he walked westward toward his farm a mile away. His skull was fractured, his right leg severed below the knee and he suffered internal injuries.

Members of the train crew which manned the locomotive and caboose which were bound for Hagerstown when the accident occurred told investigators that they did not see the man on the tracks until after the accident. The train was stopped at once. There is a slight curve in the tracks at the point where the tragedy took place.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, ascribed the death to accidental causes and said there will not be an inquest. Corporal F. C. Russell and Private George Ackerman of the Gettysburg subdivision of the state motor police and railroad authorities also made investigations.

The members of the train crew were identified as follows: Engineer, R. M. Rhoades, Funkstown, Maryland; fireman, A. D. Powell, Hagerstown; conductor, J. H. Slocum, Smithburg R. 2, Md.; brakeman, E. M. Burkholder, and flagman, C. G. Troup, both of Hagerstown.

The engineer estimated the train's speed at between 25 and 27 miles an hour.

Friends said Friday that Mr. Cromer's car was out of order and he had hitch-hiked to Gettysburg earlier Thursday and was walking home when the accident took place. Apparently he was using the railroad as a shortcut from the Seven Stars crossing to his farm which lies south of the Lincoln highway.

Services on Sunday

Mr. Cromer is survived by a son, Clarence Cromer, Harrisburg; a daughter, Mrs. Marbury C. Little, Freeport, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. E. S. Kelly, and a brother, Harvey S. Cromer, both of Gettysburg.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Deatrick Brothers' funeral home, in Gettysburg, with the Rev. Emmert G. Colestock, Fairfield Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

COUNTY LASHED BY ICY WINDS

Snow flurries Friday night and high winds that whipped the county through most of last Friday and turned icy in the night brought the coldest weather of the season to this section early Saturday morning.

A low of 24° degrees was registered in official thermometers of Dr. Henry Stewart, local observer, while unofficial readings, down to 20 degrees were reported at several places in town. By 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning the mercury had climbed only three degrees above freezing here in spite of a bright sun.

At the Arentsville weather station the minimum for Saturday was reached at 6:30 o'clock this morning and was recorded as 25 degrees, equalling a previous low reached on November 5.

Poles Down

Friday's gales blew leaves and dust around Gettysburg streets and piled heaps of rubbish in sheltered corners. Signs were blown over but little damage was reported in the town.

In rural areas the United Telephone company had a dozen poles to replace after the high winds had brought down poles and lines in the section extending from Biglerville to Zora. The Metropolitan Edison company reported little wind damage. One pole was blown over at Greenmount and several service wires were torn loose. A limb fell across light wires at another point but there was no interruption of service.

ENLISTS IN AIR CORPS

Richard D. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Gilbert, Gettysburg R. 4, who enlisted in the Air Corps last June and was called for active duty on Armistice Day, is now stationed at Nashville, Tennessee. He is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940.

JAMES W. OLIVER, VETERAN OF 1ST WORLD WAR, DIES

James Wilson Oliver, 46, died at the home of Mrs. Martha Stroup, 125 North Washington street, Friday morning at 9 o'clock from a complication of diseases. He had been ill since 1937 and was bedfast since Labor Day.

He was born in Jeffersonville, Indiana, a son of Mrs. M. E. Cochran, Nashville, Tennessee, and the late Ernest Oliver.

In June, 1933, he was married to Miss Irene Stroup and since that time resided in Gettysburg. Previously he lived in Harrisburg.

He was a veteran of World War I, enlisting in 1917 as a member of Co. B, 41st Infantry. He served in various companies until his discharge on March 24, 1922. His service required him to be stationed in Hawaii, China and the Philippines. As a sergeant he served as instructor at Gettysburg college for some time.

Former Highway Employee

Following his discharge from the army he was employed by the state highway until 1932 and from then until his illness was employed as a chief clerk at the U. S. Depot, New Cumberland. Mr. Oliver was a member of the American Legion Post No. 27, Harrisburg.

Surviving are his widow; his mother; one brother, George T. Oliver, Oak Park, Illinois, and one sister, Mrs. Mary Sweeney, Nashville.

Funeral services were held from the Bender funeral home Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock conducted by the Rev. R. R. Gresh. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

2 PHYSICIANS ARE NAMED TO WARNER STAFF

Two practicing physicians were elected to membership on the Warner hospital staff and two specialists from nearby cities were named as consulting pathologists for the Warner hospital at the November meeting of the hospital board Friday evening at the Nurses' home.

Dr. John J. Knox, Gettysburg, who closed his offices Saturday to join the Air Corps as a first lieutenant, and Dr. Robert Stockton McVaugh, Taneytown, Md., were made members of the staff.

Doctor Knox, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's college and the University of Maryland medical school, has practiced in Gettysburg for the last three years. Doctor McVaugh is a graduate of the medical school of the University of Virginia and practiced in Georgia for four years before going to Taneytown in 1939.

Elected as consulting pathologists were Dr. Philip R. Custer, Philadelphia, and Dr. George R. Moffit of Harrisburg.

Dr. E. H. Markley, president, presided at the board session and urged the directors to stimulate interest in their current food drive for the hospital in their respective communities.

Busy Month

The directors examined the October report for the hospital showing an average of 44 patients was cared for daily with all departments of the institution experiencing a busy month.

The report showed 144 patients were admitted, 136 discharged, 32 births, five deaths, 40 patients remaining on the last day of the month, 141 radiographs, 704 laboratory examinations, 80 operations, 64 accidents, 20 intravenous administrations, five blood transfusions, five basal metabolism, five radium treatments, eight electrocardiograms and 87 return dressings and treatments.

Directors present included: Doctor Markley, C. H. Smith, William Durbanow, H. H. Miller, Fr. Mark E. Stock, Carl Baum, N. B. Schurman, Frank Waybright, Henry M. Scharf, secretary, and R. B. Martin, all of Gettysburg; C. A. Bixler, New Oxford; E. C. McDannell, Gettysburg; Guy Stock, Benderville; C. L. Eight Reading company employees have completed a standard Red Cross first aid course under the instruction of Paul R. Mehring and Lloyd R. Hartman. Three Gettysburg air raid wardens also were members of the class.

The pupils included Morris L. Fleagle, Henry W. Garvin, M. P. Hartzell, Thomas W. Hummelbaugh, Chester E. Mehring, Jr., D. M. Stouffer, William E. Voorhees and Fred Worthington of the Reading railroad, and Wardens Ralph B. Butt, Raymond E. Menges and Edward N. Stine.

"The October report is most gratifying," said Mr. Thomas, "and I want to compliment the members of our county-wide committee for their conscientious effort and their untiring efforts to help the government finance this tremendous war bill. The good people of Adams county are responding in their usual and typical American spirit. They are demonstrating that they are back of our government's war effort and their continued purchase bears evidence to the patriotism of all the people of this fine county."

R.C. APPEALS FOR MORE AID

Not half finished with their September quota of 9,000 surgical dressings and with quotas totaling more than 67,000 additional dressings for October and November not yet started, officers of the county chapter of the Red Cross appealed today for more volunteers to help make surgical dressings each week-day afternoon at the work center on East High street, Gettysburg.

"This work is being done at the express and urgent request of the United States Army and is of emergency nature," Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, who is in charge of the surgical dressing work said today. "When we finish the three-month quota we are working on now, we have an order for an additional 25,200 dressings in December."

About half enough volunteers appear daily from 1:30 to 5:30 p. m. and on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9:30 o'clock, Mrs. Winebrenner said.

How Would You Get A Cow Out Of A Well? Fill Hole With Water And Float The Animal To The Top Or—

A 1,200-pound Holstein cow owned by Freeman Weigle, near Biglerville, was rescued from a 25-foot well Wednesday afternoon after it had struggled for two hours to keep afloat in 18 feet of water.

The cow crashed through rotted boards covering a well in the field where the herd was grazing. The Biglerville Fire company was summoned and pumped the well dry. Then a winch supplied by the Rees company was used to lift the cow from the well. The animal was unharmed by its experience.

MILLER ACTION DISCONTINUED IN COURT HERE

The scheduled re-trial of the suit against George A. Miller, Miller apartments, Gettysburg, by his sister, Miss Mary A. Miller, of Baltimore, was dropped suddenly Tuesday morning when the case record in the office of Prothonotary Lee M. Hartman at the court house was marked "discontinued."

The record also carried the notation that the costs of the case are to be paid by Miss Miller. The case headed the list of civil actions for trial at the current session of Common Pleas court.

A year ago a jury awarded Miss Miller a verdict of $17,500 against her brother on the basis of her claim that she had paid him sums totaling that amount years ago. Miller denied receiving the money from his sister and claimed that instead she had sought financial aid from him.

Won Second Trial

J. Francis Yake, Esq., who represented Mr. Miller, filed more than 25 motions for a new trial and finally won a court order for a re-trial of the action chiefly on the basis of a $3,000 check which he discovered Miss Miller had paid over to a Catholic church project during the period in which she testified in court that all withdrawals from her bank account had been for the benefit of her brother.

Neither Mr. Yake as counsel for Mr. Miller nor E. V. Bulleit, Esq., who represents Miss Miller would discuss the conditions under which the discontinuance was arranged or the reasons for it. Whatever the reasons, Miss Miller has dropped her suit.

Coincidentally with the discontinuance of the court action, the court Tuesday signed a citation directed to both Miss Miller and her brother requiring them to file an account in the estate of their deceased mother, Mrs. Catherine Miller. The citation was petitioned for by Richard A. Brown, Esq., representing the Gettysburg National bank as trustee under the will of Mrs. Miller. The citations are returnable on December 14. Both were turned over immediately to Sheriff D. J. Wolff for service.

JUDGE SHEELY WILL ADDRESS LINCOLN FETE

Exercises in the National cemetery Saturday afternoon and the annual banquet of the Past Commanders' and Past Presidents' association of the Sons of Union Veterans at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday evening will form the local observance of the seventy-ninth anniversary of the dedication of the Gettysburg National cemetery by Abraham Lincoln.

No special observance is planned for Thursday, the anniversary date. Judge W. C. Sheely, president judge of the courts of Adams and Fulton counties, will be the speaker at exercises to be held in the cemetery Saturday afternoon under the sponsorship of the local camp of the Sons of Veterans.

Special invitations have been issued to a dozen local residents who heard Lincoln to attend the ceremony in the cemetery. Cars will leave the East Middle street post room at 2 o'clock and the exercises will follow. In event of bad weather the program will be conducted in the post room.

Lincoln Impersonator

The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Howard S. Fox, pastor of Trinity Evangelical and Reformed church of Gettysburg, and Lincoln's address will be repeated by P. J. Kammerer, Newville, a Lincoln impersonator. After Judge Sheely's address a wreath will be placed on an unknown soldier's grave by a Son of a Veteran.

The benediction will be given by Dr. Henry W. A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg college and president of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania.

The Sons of Veterans' committee in charge, headed by William A. Meals, Esq., chairman, today listed these local residents who heard Lincoln 79 years ago and who are being invited to be present at the anniversary services: William C. Storrick, Reuben H. Culp, Charles W. Culp, Sr., Jacob A. Stock, William Bushman, Edward L. Weikert, Sr., John D. W. Deardorff, Edward Trostle, Mrs. C. William Ziegler and Mrs. Amanda Homan. J. S. Smuck, who came here from Hanover last year for the ceremony, also has been invited. Other local persons who heard Lincoln are urged to be present Saturday, the committee said.

Expect Singers

The Arion Singing society from Baltimore has promised to be here for Saturday's program if transportation can be arranged. The original society sang here in 1863 at the dedication.

Henry E. Luhrs, Shippensburg, secretary of the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania which has met here annually on November 19 since its formation several years ago, has written members of the organization that because of travel restrictions it has been thought best to omit this year's meeting. Present officers will carry on and are urged to further interest in Lincoln in their respective communities.

The twelfth annual banquet of the Past Presidents and Past Commanders of the S.U.V. on Saturday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg will be addressed by Col. Neal A. Harper of the Carlisle Barracks.

Truckers Told To Await Certificates

Adams county truckers who have received from the local rationing boards application forms for gasoline rationations after Nov. 21, were instructed Saturday to hold those applications until they receive from the Office of Defense Transportation their certificates for War Necessity.

Then the completed gasoline applications together with the War Necessity certificates are to be presented to the local rationing boards who will issue gas rationations in line with the provisions of the individual certificates issued by the ODT.

Dedicate Book To Eisenhower

Gen. Dwight F. Eisenhower, commander of United States troops in the European theatre, was honored Friday by students of Gettysburg college who voted to dedicate "The Spectrum," college annual, to him this year.

In World War I General Eisenhower was commander of a tank-training corps at Gettysburg, and he is well acquainted with the historic Gettysburg battlefield.

UPTON CROMER, FARMER, KILLED BY TRAIN NEAR SEVEN STARS

Upton Cromer, 73-year-old Franklin township farmer, was killed instantly about 5:15 o'clock last Thursday evening when he was struck by a Western Maryland locomotive as he walked along the tracks a quarter of a mile west of Seven Stars.

Mr. Cromer, who had been very deaf for a number of years, is believed not to have heard the train approaching from the east as he walked westward toward his farm a mile away. His skull was fractured, his right leg severed below the knee and he suffered internal injuries.

Members of the train crew which manned the locomotive and caboose which were bound for Hagerstown when the accident occurred told investigators that they did not see the man on the tracks until after the accident. The train was stopped at once. There is a slight curve in the tracks at the point where the tragedy took place.

Dr. C. G. Crist, county coroner, ascribed the death to accidental causes and said there will not be an inquest. Corporal F. C. Russell and Private George Ackerman of the Gettysburg station of the state motor police and railroad authorities also made investigations.

The members of the train crew were identified as follows: Engineer, R. M. Rhoades, Punkstown, Maryland; fireman, A. D. Powell, Hagerstown; conductor, J. H. Stoonier, Smithburg R. 2, Md.; brakeman, E. M. Burkholder, and flagman, C. G. Troup, both of Hagerstown.

The engineer estimated the train's speed at between 25 and 27 miles an hour.

Friends said Friday that Mr. Cromer's car was out of order and he had hitch-hiked to Gettysburg earlier Thursday and was walking home when the accident took place. Apparently he was using the railroad as a shortcut from the Seven Stars crossing to his farm which lies south of the Lincoln highway.

Services on Sunday

Mr. Cromer is survived by a son, Clarence Cromer, Harrisburg; a daughter, Mrs. Marsby C. Little, Freeport, Pa.; a sister, Mrs. E. S. Kelly, and a brother, Harvey S. Cromer, both of Gettysburg.

Funeral services Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Deatrick Brothers' funeral home, in Gettysburg, with the Rev. Emmert G. Colestock, Fairfield Lutheran pastor, officiating. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

COUNTY LASHED BY ICY WINDS

Snow flurries Friday night and high winds that whipped the county through most of last Friday and turned icy in the night brought the coldest weather of the season to this section early Saturday morning.

A low of 24 degrees was registered in official thermometers of Dr. Henry Stewart, local observer, while unofficial readings down to 20 degrees were reported at several places in town. By 9:30 o'clock Saturday morning the mercury had climbed only three degrees above freezing here in spite of a bright sun.

At the Gettysburg weather station the minimum for Saturday was reached at 6:30 o'clock this morning and was recorded as 25 degrees, equalling a previous low reached on November 5.

Poles Down

Friday's gales blew leaves and dust around Gettysburg streets and piled heaps of rubbish in sheltered corners. Signs were blown over but little damage was reported in the town.

In rural areas the United Telephone company had a dozen poles to replace after the high winds had brought down poles and lines in the section extending from Biglerville to Zora. The Metropolitan Edison company reported little wind damage. One pole was blown over at Greenmont and several service wires were torn loose. A limb fell across light wires at another point but there was no interruption of service.

ENLISTS IN AIR CORPS

Richard D. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Gilbert, Gettysburg R. 4, who enlisted in the Air Corps last June and was called for active duty on Armistice Day, is now stationed at Nashville, Tennessee. He is a graduate of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1940.

POISON CAUSED 47 DEATHS IN OREGON ASYLUM

Salem, Ore., Nov. 20 (AP)—A powerful poison, possibly an insecticide mistaken for powdered milk and used to cook scrambled eggs, caused the deaths of 47 insane asylum inmates, an investigation disclosed today, and Gov. Charles A. Sprague termed the tragedy "mass murder."

The governor said he had directed the state police to "leave no stone unturned in their effort to affirm responsibility for this mass murder." The possibility of homicide was studied.

Analysis Reveals Poison

Dr. J. C. Evans, hospital superintendent, said an analysis of the eggs served at dinner Wednesday night showed they contained a deadly poison (sodium fluoride) commonly used in insecticides. He cited the possibility that roach powder, kept in a barrel in a cellar under the kitchen, was put into the eggs during their preparation instead of powdered milk, stored nearby. The powders are similar in appearance.

He said an inmate kitchen helper preparing the eggs left the pot unattended for five or ten minutes while he went to the cellar in search of powdered milk. It is possible, he said, that the poison could have been put into the eggs during that time.

Rats used in a test by Dr. Frank Menne, University of Oregon bacteriologist, showed no ill effects after eating egg yolks taken directly from cans of frozen eggs, but died in three to five minutes after consuming left-overs from the hospital dinner.

A total of 467 inmates who ate the eggs became violently ill in a matter of minutes afterward. All were nauseated, complained of stomach cramps, paralysis of the legs and difficulty in breathing.

Many Remain Ill

The strong lived; the weaker died in agony.

Dr. Evans said many still are critically ill and he feared the death toll might increase within the next week or two.

The frozen eggs were part of a shipment of 36,780 pounds distributed several months ago to various western states. They came from the east or mid-west and originally were purchased as a lease-land shipment but were diverted apparently because of a lack of proper shipping space.

Additional Rules Cover Sugar Books

With other commodities soon to be rationed through the use of the general war ration book which to date has covered only sugar, the OPA has announced rules under which persons who had an excess supply of sugar at registration time on May 4 may now secure ration books.

The rules cover not only individuals with surplus supplies, but also industrial users who have an unused portion of sugar from their provisional allowance.

Consumers may apply to the local rationing board for permission to turn over this excess sugar provided it is in its original package. Similar provision is made for industrial users.

heavy cruiser, three large cruisers and a destroyer.

United States battleships, mentioned for the first time in a Navy communiqué on the southwestern Pacific war, thundered into the fight, exchanging long-range wallops that forced the foe to turn stern and flee northward.

While citing the sinking of the five warships and the damaging of another battleship, cruiser and a destroyer, the Navy cautioned that "this report of damage may include some of the damage already reported."

A naval spokesman expressed belief, however, that if there was any duplication, it probably was not extensive.

Some Details Lacking

The first report of the savage encounter with the Rising Sun's war fleet from Nov. 13 to 15 told Monday of the destruction of 23 Japanese vessels including a battleship and three heavy cruisers. Seven others, including a battleship, were declared damaged. The communiqué also explained that details of the Saturday night battle "have not yet been received."

The Japanese have admitted loss of a battleship in the conflict, a cruiser and three destroyers but claimed that eight American cruisers were sunk, one transport and four or five destroyers.

Lincoln Gave Rocking Chair To And Helped Revive Fainted Woman Nov. 19, '63

President Demonstrated His Humanness; Honored Burns; Attended Church Services

Thursday was the 79th anniversary of Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address delivered upon the occasion of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery.

The anniversary 'this year holds more significance than ever before. The words spoken by Lincoln here more than three-quarters of a century ago, symbolize the objective of freedom-loving people... the cause they are fighting for around the world today.

The Gettysburg Times presents some additional sidelights of that memorable occasion, November 19, 1863. There is appended an article by Wayne Whipple and published in The Youth's Companion November 19, 1914. It was made available to The Gettysburg Times by Mrs. Elsie Slingmaster Lewars, noted authoress. The article follows:

There have been many disputes as to when Abraham Lincoln wrote his Gettysburg speech, but in 1894 Colonel Nicolay, one of President Lincoln's private secretaries, published facsimiles that proved, beyond doubt, that most of the little speech was written before the President left the White House.

A year later, Noah Brooks, a Washington newspaper correspondent and a friend of Lincoln, related an anecdote in corroboration. When he and the President, he said, were on their way to a photographer's on the Sunday before the Gettysburg Address was delivered, Mr. Lincoln showed him the printer's proofs of Edward Everett's oration, and laughingly quoted the familiar sentiment: "Solid men of Boston, make no long orations!"

Wrote Short Speech

Then he expressed his sincere appreciation of Mr. Everett's thoughtfulness in sending his address beforehand to him, in order that their minds might not by any chance run in the same channel at Gettysburg. "No danger of that," he concluded, with a shrug, "for my speech will be short, short, short!"

"Then you have written yours?" asked Mr. Brooks.

"Yes, it's written—but not finished."

On the train to Gettysburg, the President had no opportunity to write anything—the conversation, the greetings, and the questionings that ordinary courtesy required him to undergo, combined with the rocking and jolting of the train, rendered writing virtually impossible.

Accounts differ, also, as to the time of Edward Everett's arrival at Gettysburg. One account says that after Mr. Everett had had the date of the exercises postponed nearly a month to suit his own convenience, he delayed the proceedings by not reaching the town until after the hour set for the speaking to begin. But Dr. Henry E. Jacobs, dean of the Philadelphia Theological Seminary at Mount Airy, proves that this statement is unjust to Mr. Everett. Mr. Jacobs was a young man then, living in Gettysburg, where his father Michael Jacobs, was professor of mathematics in Pennsylvania College.

Lincoln's Train Late

"I saw Mr. Everett in the little station on Carlisle Street the evening before the exercises at the cemetery," says Doctor Jacobs. "He was waiting to welcome the President and his friends. I was about as much interested in Edward Everett, just then, as in Abraham Lincoln himself, for Everett had been a member of Congress, Governor of Massachusetts, minister to England, president of Harvard College, Secretary of State, Senator from Massachusetts, and candidate of the 'Constitutional Union' party in 1860 for Vice President of the United States; and he was recognized as the greatest orator of his day—in America, at least. The aristocratic features and beautiful wavy silver hair of Edward Everett, in striking contrast with the faces of the crowd waiting that evening to see the President's special train pull in, made a strong appeal to my youthful mind.

"The train came late. We all followed Abraham Lincoln to the house of Mr. David Wills—on the corner of 'the Diamond,' as the principal square was called. There was a band, of course, which serenaded the President, but the people were thoughtlessly impatient. They did not allow time enough for the President and his party to partake of supper.

Pleases Admirers

"But, whether he had supped or not, the President's tall form soon appeared. I can see him now, as he came out and stood on the front steps, with his whimsical, good-natured smile, to comply with our demand for a speech—by not making one!

"I appear before you, fellow citizens," he began, in high-pitched, resonant tones, 'merely to thank you for this compliment.' The inference is a very fair one that you would hear from me for a little while, at least, were I to commence to make a speech. I do not appear before you for the purpose of doing so—and for several substantial reasons. The most substantial of these is that I have no speech to make! (Laughter.) In my position, it is somewhat important that I should not say any foolish things."

"A voice from the crowd: 'If you can help it!'

"Mr. Lincoln turned quickly, and laughed at this sally, and went on, by way of reply: 'It very often happens that the only way to help it is to say nothing at all! (Laughter.) Believing that is my present condition this evening, I must beg you to excuse me from addressing you further.'

"The assembled people were mightily pleased with this humorous substitute for a speech. He had said nothing, but he had said it well. They moved laughingly away, happy in seeing him and hearing his voice."

Bright, Clear Day

Thursday, November 19, 1863, dawned bright and clear, and became as warm as a day in Indian summer. The procession began to form. The President appeared, all in black, except for his white gloves, and with the tall hat, which added to the effect of his height. He had put the finishing touches on his speech, and carried the completed copy in his pocket.

The people, early and alert, crowded round, in order to shake hands with him; they quickly soiled his white gloves, but never ruffled his temper in the least. His horse happened to be an unusually low-bodied creature, so that when Lincoln's great boots were not in the stirrups they nearly touched the ground. The inevitable wag in the crowd noticed it, and cried out:

"Say, Father Abraham, if he goes to run away with yer, you jest stand up on the ground and let 'er go!"

Many Delays

Although the newspapers reported that the procession started promptly, there were numerous delays, and it was about twelve o'clock before the exercises at the cemetery began. Among those who found a good place near the speakers' platform were the plainly dressed Pennsylvania Dutch farmer, Jacob, and his wife, Lydia, who had driven over from Ephrata the day before. They had come, bright and early, and taken their stand directly in front of the platform. The crowd increased during the forenoon, until it was estimated that there were about fifteen thousand people present. Of course there was a good deal of crowding and jostling, and Jacob and Lydia had all they could do to keep their places. With all the pushing and pulling, and the weary waiting in the warm sun, they agreed that they were more tired than if they had worked all day in a hayfield.

The coming of the procession and the seating of the dignitaries at last diverted their attention. Lydia watched the President as he took his seat in the rocking-chair that some one, knowing his preference, had provided for him. While Lydia stood watching the President, everything grew black before her eyes, and she began to have the horrible sensations known only to those who have felt themselves fainting in the midst of an immense crowd.

Helps Fainted Woman

"A woman has fainted!" she heard a voice out of chaos exclaim. There was some confusion, and the crowd, instead of giving her more room, pressed in around her, and made it impossible for her husband, or anyone near, to lend her a helping hand. Above this crowding and confusion, she heard a high, clear voice call in tones of gentle command, "Here, hand that woman up to me! Let me get hold of her."

She felt the firm, strong hands seize her arms, and she was lifted up—it seemed to her—out of all her troubles.

When Lydia regained consciousness, she found herself leaning back in that rocking chair on the platform, and felt ten thousand pairs of eyes riveted upon her, while she was being slowly fanned by the President of the United States! That was too much for the plain, shrinking woman from Ephrata.

"I feel—better—now, I—want to—go back to my Yacobi!" she gasped, as she looked appealingly into Mr. Lincoln's kind, reassuring eyes. And she emphasized by a gesture her wish to retire from her conspicuous position.

"Oh, now, my dear madam," said Mr. Lincoln, "you're all right. Stay just where you are—right here beside me. It was all I could do to pull you up out of that crowd, and I'm sure I couldn't put you back again!"

And Lydia, seeming to forget all about the ten thousand pairs of eyes gazing at her, sat contentedly there, "high and lifted up," looking down now and then at her poor, tired husband, while the periods of Edward Everett's two-hour oration rose and fell in measured cadences over the heads of the multitude, which no longer noticed the little woman on the stage.

The crowd soon began to grow restless. Some of the men began to work their way out. Young Henry Jacobs, the admirer of Edward Everett, improved this opportunity to edge up closer to the platform.

"I doubt if one-third of those present," said Doctor Jacobs, fifty years afterward, "could hear the speakers that day. I could hear Mr. Everett distinctly only after I had made my way to the front. I thought he spoke almost too easily—making it quite evident that he had committed his oration to memory. There were three introductions to this address, and several 'false alarms' before its close; but Mr. Lincoln, who had read the proofs, knew when the end was approaching, for he began to reach for his own speech when he heard Mr. Everett pronounce, in round tones:

Studies Speech

"And now, friends, fellow citizens of Gettysburg and Pennsylvania, and you from remoter states, let me again, as we part, invoke your benediction upon these honored graves."

"While Mr. Everett went on with the closing words of his oration, Mr. Lincoln took from his pocket a crumpled leaf or two, slowly put his spectacles down near the end of his nose, and began to study the paper intently, with the air of a boy who hasn't quite learned his lesson and is about to be called upon to recite. Having run through his own brief address, he again regarded Mr. Everett with profound attention over the rims of his glasses, as he mechanically stuffed his crumpled manuscript back into a capacious inside-pocket, where it seemed to be forgotten, while the distinguished orator concluded.

"Of course there was 'prolonged applause' after such a prolonged oration. Then a hymn, composed by Mr. B. B. French of Gettysburg, was sung. It was a creditable poem. While we were singing the five stanzas of this dirge, the President's anxiety about his speech was again manifest, and he stood conning his manuscript with furtive glances over his glasses, which were still perched on the tip of his nose. When the time for his address came, he stepped forth, proudly erect except for the slight stoop of the shoulders, as if he had felt all the weight of the solemn responsibility of the occasion resting upon them. He paused, and braced himself during the applause that greeted him.

Voice Is Strained

"At first his voice sounded a little strained and high-pitched, as if he were trying to throw his words to the outer edge of the crowd. He held in his right hand the manuscript that he had brought from the White House, and the single page of bluish paper on which he had pencilled his closing words at Mr. Wills'. Toward the end of his address I noticed that he held the pages straight down in front of him, tightly grasped at each side, as if they were a slate. He seemed unconsciously to be trying to straighten out the wrinkles. He glanced at them perfunctorily; I do not think he really saw the words written on them. When he came to the clauses, 'that government of the people, by the people, and for the people,' he emphasized the words 'of,' 'by,' and 'for' with a stiff yet sweeping bend of his body, holding the manuscript rigidly in both hands, with his arms straight down before him, and bowing to the right, to the left, and to the front, as he pronounced the three prepositions. Then he drew himself up to his immense height, and stood grandly erect, with arms outstretched, as he impressively uttered the final words, 'shall not—perish—from—the earth.'

Surprised at Brevity

"The people applauded this, of him several times during his two-minute address; but they were surprised to see the President take his seat so soon. They did not realize that his part was only to consecrate the ground as a national cemetery. Many of those who had gone away during Mr. Everett's oration were returning to hear, if possible, what the President had to say. It is absurd to say that there were no signs of approval during Lincoln's address, or after it, that day. If Abraham Lincoln had stood up and repeated the multiplication table, they would have greeted such a noble sentiment as 'nine times seven are sixty-three,' with enthusiastic applause! Perhaps they did not appreciate the lofty beauty of the words and sentiments he uttered; but he was the President of the United States—he was Abraham Lincoln, 'Old Abe,' 'Father Abraham,'—and that was enough to insure him a grand ovation from all, whether they heard his words or not. There were rousing cheers for the President, and then cheer after cheer for the governors of the various states.

"Not a train left Gettysburg that day until the President's special departed in the evening. It seems strange that the reports and stories of the exercises at Gettysburg do not refer to a deed of kindness and patriotism that was highly characteristic of Abraham Lincoln. That afternoon there was a service in the Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Lincoln decided to attend, and invited Secretary Seward to accompany him.

Honors John Burns

"The President had heard of old John Burns of Gettysburg, a cobbler who, on the Sunday of the battle, went into the fight in his Sunday clothes—an ancient blue coat with brass buttons, and a big white hat. He was not a man of few words, as the ballad by Bret Harte describes him, but quite the reverse. Indeed, he used to talk so big that his neighbors were surprised at his courage when he proved it. He was wounded three times, but remained in the fight to the finish.

"Mr. Lincoln sent for John Burns, and the happy old cobbler marched proudly through the streets of Gettysburg to the Presbyterian Church, with the President of the United States on one arm, and the Secretary of State on the other. It was a kind and thoughtful act on the part of Lincoln, who meant to honor all the humble heroes in the person of old John Burns."

No one really appreciated the Gettysburg Address the day it was delivered. Mr. Lincoln disparaged it himself, saying to a friend, "It won't scour, Lamon, it won't scour," meaning that, in spite of all the compliments he was receiving, the varnish, or veneer, would wear off in time.

One of the first to understand its worth was the Secretary of War, the man who was too busy to go to hear it delivered—obstinate, obdurate, and often insulting Stanton. Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War, related that when he went to the Secretary of War's room on the day after the Gettysburg celebration, Stanton asked:

Lauded by Stanton

"Have you seen these Gettysburg speeches? The people will be delighted with them. Edward Everett has made a speech that will make many columns in the newspapers, and Mr. Lincoln's perhaps fifty lines. Everett's is the speech of a scholar. It is elegant, and it is

CARRIERS TOP MILLION-MARK IN STAMP SALES

The Gettysburg Times newsboys and newsgirl have sold more than a million ten-cent War Stamps in 48 weeks.

At the close of last week's sales the 19 youths had disposed of 1,016,670 stamps.

This record pushes The Gettysburg Times carriers high in the newspaper campaign in the percentage of sales according to the population of the area covered.

With the exception of National Newspaper Boy Day last October 5, the sales for last week reached the second largest total for 7 days since the campaign started. The large sale last week was made possible by a Gettysburg friend of the newspaper carriers who purchased a large block of stamps and divided the total equally among all the boys and girl.

Giving More Time

Today The Times carriers are giving more time than ever to the sale of ten-cent War Stamps and the most recent compilation shows that these defense agents of the United States Treasury department are everything they are called in Washington, "Agents for Victory."

Thirteen-year-old Henry Hershey, of Cashtown, continues to lead the entire group with 140,802 stamps sold. Close behind the leader is Luther Smith, Gettysburg, with the sale of 140,583 stamps. C. Arthur Brame, Jr., continues to rank third with a total sale of 98,222 stamps.

Two new names appear in the list of leaders for the sales last week. The one is Robert Kime, who is in first place with a sale of 8,333 stamps. He covers Bendersville 100 per cent. The second new leader is James Munshower, who has a bicycle route out of Gettysburg daily. He sold 7,270 stamps last week. Third place goes to young Brame, of Lincolnway east, with a total sale of 6,345 stamps.

Two New Carriers

Two newcomers have joined The Times newsboy staff and have pledged their allegiance to the United States government to act as official defense agents. One is E. Richard Hartlaub, who covers a Gettysburg route. He succeeds Robert Coffield. Richard has sold 4,094 stamps in two weeks. The other new carrier is Charles Lawver, who serves the Mumasburg route. In two weeks he has sold 3,803 ten-cent stamps.

Named High School Teacher At Fairfield

John A. Sheffer, who has resigned as science and mathematics teacher at the Fairfield high school, began his duties as a clerk at the state liquor store, center square, this morning.

His position in the Fairfield high school faculty was filled by the Fairfield school board at a special meeting Saturday evening by the advancement of J. Warren Martin, elementary school principal at Fairfield and a Millersville state teachers' college graduate, to the high school teaching post.

Martin's position in the grade school was filled by the election of Mrs. Helen Cunningham McCullough of Fairfield.

LIONS ARRANGE 2 FOOD SHOWS TO AID NEEDY

Gettysburg Lions at their weekly meeting Monday evening voted to sponsor two benefit food shows at the Majestic theatre—one before Thanksgiving and the other before Christmas—with needy families of the community to be provided with holiday dinners first and the surplus to go to the Warner hospital.

Plans for the shows, which now have become annual events, were made after Lion Sydney Poppy offered the use of the Warner Brothers' theatre here.

Committee Report

President William A. Beales presided at the meeting which was devoted to business and the hearing of reports of standing committee chairmen. Finance, attendance, membership and extension, program, military affairs, scout, boys' and girls' work, blind work and welfare, education and safety, community betterment, reception and publicity, and greeter committee chairmen presented reports and club activities and plans were discussed.

A meeting of the board of directors followed the general session. The meeting was held at Mrs. Smith's restaurant with 25 members in attendance.

Meeting at Graffenburg

Next week the Lions will meet jointly with the Soroptimist club of Gettysburg at the Blue Parrot tea room where the ladies' service club will celebrate its birthday anniversary.

This evening President Beales and other members of the local club will represent Gettysburg Lions at a zone ladies' night meeting to be held at Graffenburg Inn with the program in charge of the Upper Adams club. H. Earl Pitzer of that club is the zone chairman.

MOOSE WOMEN INSTITUTE NEW CHAPTER HERE

With a state officer as the guest of honor and visitors here from York and Hanover, Chapter 182 of the Women of the Moose of Gettysburg was instituted at exercises conducted Sunday afternoon in the Moose building, York street. Recently-elected officers of the new organization were installed before a gathering of nearly 250 persons.

The ceremony of the institution of the new chapter was conducted by Mrs. Eva Boose, senior regent of the Hanover chapter of the Women of the Moose, assisted by the other officers of that unit and by additional members who escorted them to Gettysburg. The guest speaker was Mrs. Frieda Clinger, junior graduate grand regent, of Lewis-town, Pa. There were talks by men and women of the Moose, both local members and visitors.

The Gettysburg chapter has set the second and fourth Tuesdays at 8 o'clock as the time for regular chapter meetings. There are now 68 ladies enrolled in the Gettysburg chapter.

Officers Installed

The officers installed here Sunday follow: Senior regent, Mrs. Virginia Lauer; junior regent, Mrs. Enola Evans; graduate regent, Mrs. Fern Myers; chaplain, Mrs. Ruth Utz; recorder, Mrs. Marie McLaughlin; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie Felix; argus, Mrs. Eleanor Fox; sentinel, Mrs. Ida Dunkinson; guide, Miss Sara Miller; assistant guide, Mrs. Emma Keefe; and pianist, Mrs. Edward Culver.

These committee chairmen have been announced: Publicity, Mrs. Mary Evans; social service, Mrs. Anna Goodermuth; homemaking, Mrs. Nellie McLaughlin; child care, Mrs. Ada Smith; library, Mrs. Mary M. Miller; membership, Mrs. Nellie Lawther; housework, Mrs. Emma Pittman; hospital guide, Mrs. Eva Rentzel; and war relief, Mrs. Rose Anzengruber.

INJURES SKULL IN Y.S. FALL

Mrs. William Warner, 48, York Springs, remains in a critical condition at the Warner hospital where she was admitted in the York Springs ambulance Saturday following a fall down a stairway. She has been unconscious since the accident.

Mrs. Warner suffered a fractured skull, fracture of her left arm, cerebral hemorrhage and lacerations of the scalp.

Mrs. J. Lawrence Orndorff, Elm-mitsburg, was admitted as a patient. Those discharged were Guy Bishop, Jr., Gettysburg; Mrs. Nesbur G. Brandt and infant son, Nesbur Gil-ton Brandt, Jr., Gardeners R. D.; Mrs. Charles Spangler and infant daughter, Winifred Lenora, Biglerville; Mrs. Glen Emet and infant daughter, Janet Louise, McKnightstown; Mrs. Amos Bigham, Iron Springs; Mrs. Dean Bower and infant daughter, Deanna Sue, York; Mrs. Leroy Eisenberger and infant daughter, Catherine Zhea, Baltimore; Monroe Smeltzer, Arendtsville, and Mrs. Mary Kuhn, Bendersville.

SCOUT OFFICE BURNED IN YORK

The headquarters of the York-Adams county Boy Scout district were destroyed by fire early Sunday morning when the Community Service building burned in York.

The Boy Scout office was one of several civic and charitable organizations that occupied the former high school building on West Philadelphia street near Pershing avenue in York.

L. Ellis Wagner, chief of the York Fire department, is making an investigation of the blaze. The fact that the fire started in two separate places and that a light was seen on the second floor of the building shortly before the blaze was discovered have led the chief to believe that it was of incendiary origin.

The building was destroyed completely.

Temporary Boy Scout offices have been established in the Cherry street school in York.

45 LEAVE FOR FORT MEADE

Forty-five men, registered with Draft Board No. 1 of Adams county, left New Oxford Monday afternoon for Fort George G. Meade, Md., to take up active duties with the Army. The men had passed final physical examinations and had been inducted into the service a fortnight ago. They were granted immediate 14-day leaves. The men left New Oxford at 1:30 p. m., traveling by bus to York, where they boarded a train for Meade.

XMAS STREET LIGHTS WILL NOT BE PLACED

At a special meeting of the directors of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce Monday evening, it was decided that Gettysburg "like all of the other neighboring communities" will be without outside Yuletide lights this year as the result of a request made by the War Production Board that illuminated Christmas displays be eliminated in order to conserve current and materials.

Vernon Corie, chairman of the Chamber's special committee on Christmas lighting, who met with the Chamber Monday evening, stated that his committee had contacted various other communities and found the same course of action is being followed and for the same reasons.

Mares Sherman, president of the Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce, said today that "The Chamber regrets the necessity of this action as the members always have felt that the display of those beautiful colored lights during the Yuletide season were a decided attraction and lent much to the spirit of Christmas in our community."

Cooperate With WPB

"However," he continued, "since the War Production Board has issued such a statement it is felt that Gettysburg should cooperate as well as all other towns and cities. We will all look forward with high hopes that these Christmas lights will be continued in the coming years."

Prior to the request of the WPB, the Civilian Defense authorities had approved of illuminated displays with the provision that they be so arranged so as to be turned off at a moment's notice in event of an air raid alarm.

It has been suggested that private homes and other buildings use non-illuminated Christmas decorations this year.

Butcher Stands Rushed At Market

Butcher stands were rushed at Butcher's Market Saturday morning but at some of the stalls only patrons who had placed orders in advance were able to buy the meats at prices that have not changed in several weeks. Scrapple is 15 cents a pound and sausage is 38 cents a pound.

Potatoes continued to bring $2 a bushel with $1.75 and $1.80 continuing as the top price for choice apples. Eggs brought 50 cents a dozen with pullet eggs selling at 38 and 40 cents.

learned; but Lincoln's speech will be read by a thousand men where one reads Everett's and will be remembered as long as anybody's speeches are remembered who speaks the English language."

Mr. Lincoln was far from realizing the eternal pervasiveness of that "neat little speech" of his, although he had to write and rewrite it for fairs and other enterprises to raise money for the soldiers. Indeed, no one even now comprehends its "cos-mic energy."

QUARANTINE LIFTED

The scarlet fever quarantine on the home of William H. Shafer, Gettysburg R. 3, Cumberland township, was lifted Tuesday evening by William I. Shields, county health officer. Mr. and Mrs. Shafer and their son, William R. Shafer, have recovered from the disease.

ORANGE - BLUE BULLETS BEAT URSINUS BEARS

After being blanked by a determined but outclassed Ursinus eleven in the first half, Coach "Hen" Egan's Gettysburg college gridders put on scoring drives in the third and fourth quarters to score a 12-0 victory over the Bears Saturday afternoon in an Eastern Pennsylvania collegiate conference game at Collegeville.

The victory clinched second place in the loop for the Bullets, Muhlenberg turning back F. and M. 7-6 to win the 1942 championship.

Gettysburg's first tally came in the late minutes of the third period after a 51-yard drive. Dick March, whose running was a feature of the afternoon, sparked the drive which wound up with Jim Hardy battering over from the four-yard line. Blackwood's placement for the extra point failed.

March Scores
In the last quarter the Breammen marched 57 yards for a score and again it was Dick March who was the star of the attack. The former Norris town high ace topped his work by ploughing over from the one. Hardy attempted to carry the ball across for the extra point but was stopped short of the goal line.

Ursinus was bottled up all afternoon by the Bullets and never penetrated Bullet territory farther than the 35-yard mark.

Gettysburg made a strong bid to score in the first period when it drove to the 10-yard line but a mix-up in signals resulted in a bad pass from center and Parks recovered on the 22. On another occasion the Bullets were halted at the nine-yard line.

Hold Advantage
Coach Bream's charges gained 17 first downs throughout the afternoon and held their opponents to but one. A high wind played havoc with forward passes, Gettysburg completing but one of nine tries while Ursinus threw 12 without completing one.

The victory marked the fourth of the season for the Bream-men as against three setbacks. The season will be brought to a close here Saturday afternoon when Dickinson will be the opponent.

G-BURG QUINT WILL PLAY 17 COURT GAMES

Gettysburg college will attempt one of its most ambitious basketball schedules in many years during the coming season, it was revealed today with the announcement of the Bullets' 1943 court card.

Although the schedule will be abbreviated to 17 games because of war time travel restrictions, the Orange and Blue will be facing some tough opponents for the first time. Newcomers to the Gettysburg program include: St. Joseph's, Villanova, Aberdeen Proving Grounds and New Cumberland Reception Center.

Other foes who were played last season include: Navy, Muhlenberg, Franklin and Marshall, Bucknell, Dickinson and Lebanon Valley. Conspicuous by their absence are Ursinus, Lehigh and Albright.

The schedule is as follows: January 6, New Cumberland Reception Center, home; January 9, Lebanon Valley, home; January 13, Navy, away; January 23, Aberdeen, home; January 27, Muhlenberg, home; January 30, Lebanon Valley, away; February 3, Villanova, home; February 5, Western Maryland, away; February 10, Dickinson, home; February 13, Muhlenberg, away; February 17, F. and M., away; February 20, St. Joseph's, away; February 24, Bucknell, home; February 27, Bucknell, away; March 3, Dickinson, home; March 6, Villanova, away; March 10, F. and M.

BIGLER LOSES FINAL CONTEST

Biglerville high school closed its football season Tuesday-afternoon by dropping a 12-6 decision to the Washington Township school eleven after a hard-fought game staged on the latter's field.

The victors tallied a touchdown in the first quarter and Coach McCracken's lads tied the score in the third period when Fred Slaybaugh went over from the eight-yard line.

Washington Township scored again in the last period to clinch the decision.

Six Biglerville players, all seniors, played their final game. They are Fred Slaybaugh, Donald Slaybaugh, Dean Carey, Edwin Wentz, Leroy Routsong and Kenneth Lawver.

During the campaign the Cannons won two games and lost seven.

BIGLER LOSES TO CAMP HILL

Biglerville high dropped an 18-0 decision to Camp Hill in a Lower Susquehanna conference game played last Friday night on the Biglerville gridiron.

Baker, star back for the Camp Hill eleven, tallied all of his team's points on three touchdowns, one being on a 25-yard run.

A cold wind which swept the field kept the crowd to a small figure and considerably hampered play of both teams.

The defeat was the sixth in eight games for the Cannons.

Next Thursday Coach McCracken's outfit will close its season by meeting Washington Township on the latter's field.

BEARS ON WAY TO THIRD PRO FOOTBALL TITLE

Chicago, Ill. (AP)—The Chicago Bears were well on their way to a third successive western division championship today with all indications pointing to a playoff with the Washington Redskins in the east for the National Football league title.

The Green Bay Packers, who had broken 11 team and individual records in two games and who were thought to be the big obstacle in the Bears' path, were brushed aside 38 to 7 yesterday before a capacity crowd of 42,787 in Wrigley Field, largest gathering at a pro game this season.

The Bears now hold a two game lead, with three contests yet to play—against Detroit, Cleveland and the Chicago Cardinals.

The Redskins, who were buried 73 to 0 by the Bears in the 1940 national championship playoff, clinched at least a tie for the eastern division crown by beating the New York Giants 14 to 7, running their record to eight wins and one loss with only Brooklyn and Detroit yet to meet.

Rams Beat Lions
With Parker Hall throwing for three touchdowns and Gaylon Smith sprinting half the length of the field for another, the Cleveland Rams battered the Detroit Lions into their ninth straight defeat, 27 to 7. Lloyd Cardwell's 80-yard dash, kept Detroit from a shutout.

The Philadelphia Eagles, after losing eight in a row, placed touchdowns at the end of 23 and 85-yard pushes to upset the Brooklyn Dodgers 14 to 7. Pug Manders went 23 yards for the Dodgers' tally.

Making use of open dates, the Chicago Cardinals whipped the Wichita, Kas. Commandos 35 to 7, and the Pittsburgh Steelers crushed the Fort Knox soldiers 28 to 0.

DELONE LOSES AT HARRISBURG

Harrisburg Catholic high proved too strong for Delone Catholic of McSherrytown last Friday night at Harrisburg, the Squires dropping a 26-7 decision.

As a result of their victory Coach Farina's gridders capped the Central Pennsylvania Catholic title.

A cold wind kept the crowd down to approximately 600 persons.

Delone put up a good game against its heavier opponents and tallied a touchdown in the third period to make the score 13-7. The touchdown play, a pass from Sterner to E. Miller, was good for 37 yards and a score.

COUNTY LOOP TO CONTINUE WITH 3 TEAMS

The Adams County Scholastic Basketball league will function as a three-team circuit this season as it was decided at a meeting of the league representatives here Monday evening.

Arendtsville, East Berlin and New Oxford have decided to continue with the circuit. A schedule will be announced in the near future.

Fairfield high will not participate in the league but will be represented by a team. Fairfield officials felt they did not care to tie themselves down to a definite league schedule.

GIRL SCOUTS GET BADGES

The Cardinal Girl Scouts of St. James Lutheran church held a Parents' Night last Wednesday evening, with a large crowd of parents and friends present. The program was in charge of Mrs. William Ridinger, leader, assisted by Mrs. Violet E. Hill, assistant leader.

A candlelight investiture service was held with Sandra Mumper and Patricia Stevens becoming new members.

Second class badges were given to Dorothy Koonitz, Betty Stoller, Sarah Larson, Carolyn Thomas, Janet McSherry, Natalie Young and Emma Rachel Scott. Merit badges were given to Nancy Baker, Betty Jo Hill, Sue Kuykendall, Jane Oyler, Charlotte Rodgers, Barbara Bryson, Marianne Bracer, Margaret Bushman, Mary Evans, Doris Oyler, Delores Uhrich, Coetta Bream, Peggy Ridinger, Janet Enoch, Theresa Uhrich and Jacqueline Sanders.

For the first time since the troop was organized three years ago, a group of girls completed first class work. These girls, who were honored by receiving special pins and first class badges, are Coetta Bream, Janet Enoch, Theresa Uhrich, Jacqueline Sanders and Betty Jo Hill.

After the presentation of the badges, a dialogue, "Scrap It," was presented by 16 Girl Scouts.

Refreshments were served by the leaders of the group.

SITARSKY CAGE COACH

John J. Sitarsky, freshman basketball coach at Bucknell university for the past six years, will succeed Malcolm E. Musser, on leave of absence with the United States Naval Reserve, as varsity basketball coach for the duration, Dr. B. W. Griffith, director of athletics, announced Wednesday.

1942 Collegiate Football Teams Have Better Offense

Chicago, Ill. (AP)—College football not only is continuing its trend toward greater offense but it is doing it with greater economy of effort.

The nation's gridiron teams were averaging 223.8 yards a game. This compared with a 1941 final average of 221.8 yards.

And where last year's collection averaged a point for every 16 yards gained, they're getting that point this year by traveling only 15 yards. As a result, 1942 teams are averaging of a 14th point a game average to the 13.75 of last year.

The statistical bureau's reason for it was—greater scoring time and even better coaching methods.

The advance in total offense can be attributed to superior running attacks, for at forward passing the country's footballers slipped from 1941, when they averaged 39.6 yards per game and also established a record for percentage of completions.

The 1942 figures per game compared with 1941:

LIST 10 TILTS FOR MAROONS; MAY ADD MORE

A ten-game basketball schedule for Gettysburg high school, District 3, PIAA champions for the last two years and a semi-finalist last year, was announced today by Faculty Manager Guile W. Lefever.

In addition to the six games listed with Chambersburg, Waynesboro and Hanover, members of the southern division of the Southern Pennsylvania interscholastic conference, two games have been listed with William Penn high of York and Delone Catholic of McSherrytown. Other games may be added with nearby teams.

Coach George Forney met with members of last year's squad and former Lincoln School players Monday afternoon. While an effort will be made to keep the variety squad to a minimum every consideration is being given to all those who report for drills.

$500 DAMAGE IN APARTMENT FIRE

Gettysburg firemen used chemicals and one hose line to bring under control flames that broke out in the apartment of Mrs. Hazel Miller on the third floor of the P. W. Stallsmith building, center square, shortly before 11:30 o'clock Friday morning.

The fire was discovered by Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Stallsmith, who occupy an adjoining apartment and the fire company was called. The entire top floor of the building was filled with smoke from the fire which started in the living room in the Miller apartment.

Fire Chief James A. Aumen said the fire apparently started in an overstuffed chair and spread into a partition. Other furniture in the room was damaged and other rooms of that apartment and adjoining rooms were damaged by smoke.

Mr. Stallsmith, owner of the building, said damage probably would amount to $500.

H. S. SENIORS SPONSOR DANCE

The annual fall dance at Gettysburg high school, sponsored by the senior class, will be held Saturday evening. Eddie Millard and his orchestra will furnish music for dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock in the school gymnasium.

The dance is open to high school students and alumni with each student and alumni entitled to bring a guest. Members of the school faculty have been invited to attend.

James Stoner, class president, and Mrs. Harry Ridinger and Fred Troxell, senior class sponsors, have named these committees for the dance:

TWO ARRESTED FOR SPEEDING

State motor police here listed two week-end arrests for excessive speeding and said that one driver was nabbed after having been followed for six miles at 56 miles an hour.

Gilbert Sullivan, Hanover R. 2, was arrested Saturday evening and charged before Justice of the Peace William D. Brown, Hunterstown, for speeding at 55 miles an hour. The other driver was Homer Ray Bar-lup, Waynesboro R. 3, who is charged before Justice Sylvia Graumer, Paradise township, with driving at 56 miles an hour. Both drivers will be sent 10-day netures.

Three Youths Join U.S. Marine Corps

Three Adams county boys left Tuesday for Lancaster to report for duty with the United States Marines in which corps they recently enlisted. They will be sent to Parris Island, South Carolina, for training.

Those reporting were Grover Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson, Gettysburg; Robert Thompson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson; Seven Stars, and Bernard Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cole, Gettysburg.

C. E. "Whitey" Woodward, formerly of Gettysburg, is reported to be in a serious condition in a hospital near Philadelphia suffering from stomach ulcers. He was taken all Saturday, Mr. Woodward is employed at Norwood where he moved with his family last June.

PASSING GAME EXPECTED HERE THIS SATURDAY

A wide-open game featured by aerial passing is expected to be dished out to local fans when Gettysburg and Dickinson renew their long football feud here Saturday afternoon in the closing game of the season.

Doug Rehor, Dickinson's passing artist, will pit his arm against that of Jim Hardy who has been connecting on aerials with great success this year.

ORANGE - BLUE BULLETS BEAT URSINUS BEARS

After being blanked by a determined but outclassed Ursinus eleven in the first half, Coach "Hen" team's Gettysburg college gridders put on scoring drives in the third and fourth quarters to score a 12-0 victory over the Bears Saturday afternoon in an Eastern Pennsylvania collegiate conference game at Collegeville.

The victory clinched second place in the loop for the Bullets, Muhlenberg turning back F. and M. 7-6 to win the 1942 championship.

Gettysburg's first tally came in the late minutes of the third period after a 51-yard drive. Dick March, whose running was a feature of the afternoon, sparked the drive which wound up with Jim Hardy battering over from the four-yard line. Blackwood's placement for the extra point failed.

March Scores

In the last quarter the Breammen marched 57 yards for a score and again it was Dick March who was the star of the attack. The former Norristown high ace topped his work by ploughing over from the one. Hardy attempted to carry the ball across for the extra point but was stopped short of the goal line.

Ursinus was bottled up all afternoon by the Bullets and never penetrated Bullet territory farther than the 35-yard mark.

Gettysburg made a strong bid to score in the first period when it drove to the 10-yard line but a mix-up in signals resulted in a bad pass from center and Parks recovered on the 22. On another occasion the Bullets were halted at the nine-yard line.

Hold Advantage

Coach Bream's charges gained 17 first downs throughout the afternoon and held their opponents to but one. A high wind played havoc with forward passes, Gettysburg completing but one of nine tries while Ursinus threw 12 without completing one.

The victory marked the fourth of the season for the Breammen as against three setbacks. The season will be brought to a close here Saturday afternoon when Dickinson will be the opponent.

G-BURG QUINT WILL PLAY 17 COURT GAMES

Gettysburg college will attempt one of its most ambitious basketball schedules in many years during the coming season, it was revealed today with the announcement of the Bullets' 1943 court card.

Although the schedule will be abbreviated to 17 games because of war time travel restrictions, the Orange and Blue will be facing some tough opponents for the first time. Newcomers to the Gettysburg program include: St. Joseph's, Villanova, Aberdeen Proving Grounds and New Cumberland Reception Center.

Other foes who were played last season include: Navy, Muhlenberg, Franklin and Marshall, Bucknell, Dickinson and Lebanon Valley. Conspicuous by their absence are Ursinus, Lehigh and Albright.

The schedule is as follows: January 6, New Cumberland Reception Center, home; January 9, Lebanon Valley, home; January 13, Navy, away; January 23, Aberdeen, home; January 27, Muhlenberg, home; January 30, Lebanon Valley, away; February 3, Villanova, home; February 5, Western Maryland, away; February 10, Dickinson, home; February 13, Muhlenberg, away; February 17, F. and M., away; February 20, St. Joseph's, away; February 24, Bucknell, home; February 27, Bucknell, away; March 3, Dickinson, home; March 6, Villanova, away; March 10, F. and M.

BIGLER LOSES FINAL CONTEST

Biglerville high school closed its football season Tuesday afternoon by dropping a 12-6 decision to the Washington Township school eleven after a hard-fought game staged on the latter's field.

The victors tallied a touchdown in the first quarter and Coach McCracken's lads tied the score in the third period when Fred Slaybaugh went over from the eight-yard line. Washington Township scored again in the last period to clinch the decision.

Six Biglerville players, all seniors, played their final game. They are Fred Slaybaugh, Donald Slaybaugh, Dean Carey, Edwin Wentz, Leroy Routsong and Kenneth Lawler.

During the campaign the Cannons won two games and lost seven.

BIGLER LOSES TO CAMP HILL

Biglerville high dropped an 18-0 decision to Camp Hill in a Lower Susquehanna conference game played last Friday night on the Biglerville gridiron.

Baker, star back for the Camp Hill eleven, tallied all of his team's points on three touchdowns, one being on a 25-yard run.

A cold wind which swept the field kept the crowd to a small figure and considerably hampered play of both teams.

The defeat was the sixth in eight games for the Cannons.

Next Thursday Coach McCracken's outfit will close its season by meeting Washington Township on the latter's field.

BEARS ON WAY TO THIRD PRO FOOTBALL TITLE

Chicago, Ill. (AP)—The Chicago Bears were well on their way to a third successive western division championship today with all indications pointing to a playoff with the Washington Redskins in the east for the National Football league title.

The Green Bay Packers, who had broken 11 team and individual records in two games and who were thought to be the big obstacle in the Bears' path, were brushed aside 38 to 7 yesterday before a capacity crowd of 42,787 in Wrigley Field, largest gathering at a pro game this season.

The Bears now hold a two game lead, with three contests yet to play—against Detroit, Cleveland and the Chicago Cardinals.

The Redskins, who were buried 73 to 0 by the Bears in the 1940 national championship playoff, clinched at least a tie for the eastern division crown by beating the New York Giants 14 to 7, running their record to eight wins and one loss with only Brooklyn and Detroit yet to meet.

Rams Beat Lions
With Parker Hall throwing for three touchdowns and Gaylon Smith sprinting half the length of the field for another, the Cleveland Rams battered the Detroit Lions into their ninth straight defeat, 27 to 7. Lloyd Cardwell's 80-yard dash, kept Detroit from a shutout.

The Philadelphia Eagles, after losing eight in a row, placed touchdowns at the end of 83 and 85-yard pushes to upset the Brooklyn Dodgers 14 to 7. Pug Manders went 23 yards for the Dodgers' tally.

Making use of open dates, the Chicago Cardinals whipped the Wichita, Kas., Commandos, 35 to 7, and the Pittsburgh Steelers crushed the Fort Knox soldiers 28 to 0.

A candlelight investiture service was held with Sandra Mumper and Patricia Stevens becoming new members.

Second class badges were given to Dorothy Koontz, Betty Stotler, Sarah Larson, Carolyn Thomas, Janet McSherry, Natalie Young and Emma Rachel Scott. Merit badges were given to Nancy Baker, Betty Jo Hill, Sue Kuykendall, Jane Oyler, Charlotte Rodgers, Barbara Bryson, Marianne Bracey, Margaret Bushman, Mary Evans, Doris Oyler, Delores Uhrich, Coetta Bream, Peggy Ridinger, Janet Enoch, Theresa Uhrich and Jacqueline Sanders.

For the first time since the troop was organized three years ago, a group of girls completed first class work. These girls, who were honored by receiving special pins and first class badges, are Coetta Bream, Janet Enoch, Theresa Uhrich, Jacqueline Sanders and Betty Jo Hill.

After the presentation of the badges, a dialogue, "Scrap It," was presented by 16 Girl Scouts.

Refreshments were served by the leaders of the group.

COUNTY LOOP TO CONTINUE WITH 3 TEAMS

The Adams County Scholastic Basketball league will function as a three-team circuit this season it was decided at a meeting of the league representatives here Monday evening.

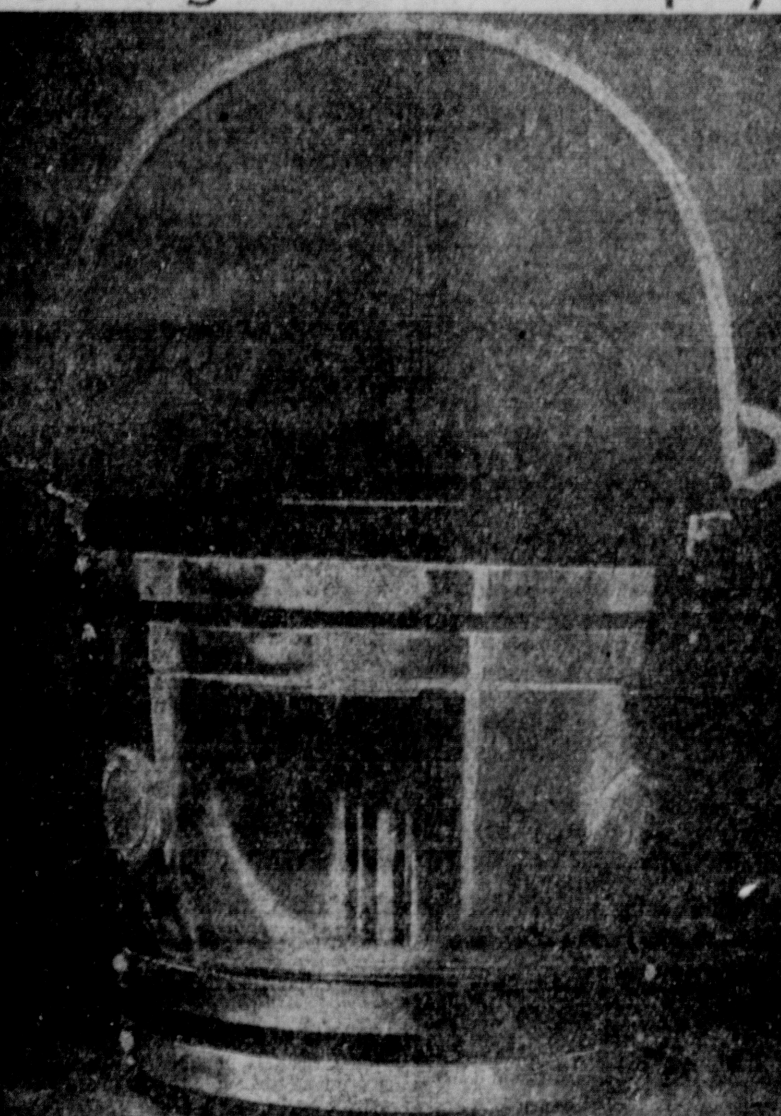

Arendtsville, East Berlin and New Oxford have decided to continue with the circuit. A schedule will be announced in the near future.

Fairfield high will not participate in the league but will be represented by a team. Fairfield officials felt they did not care to tie themselves down to a definite league schedule due to transportation difficulties and decided to play an independent schedule on dates transportation is available. Littlestone was not represented at the meeting and it was assumed it will not participate in the league.

Robert Nell, Biglerville, president of the league, presided at the meeting.

1942 Collegiate Football Teams Have Better Offense

Chicago, Ill. (AP)—College football not only is continuing its trend toward greater offense but it is doing it with greater economy of effort.

The nation's gridiron teams were averaging 222.8 yards a game. This compared with a 1941 final average of 221.8 yards.

And where last year's collegians averaged a point for every 16 yards gained, they're getting that point this year by traveling only 15 yards. As a result, 1942 teams are boasting of a 14.8 point a game average to the 13.75 of last year.

The statistical bureau's reason for it was—greater scoring finesse and even better coaching methods.

The advance in total offense can be attributed to superior running attacks, for at forward passing the country's footballers slipped from 1941, when they averaged 89.6 yards per game and also established a record for percentage of completions.

The 1942 figures per game compared with 1941:

District 3 Will Continue Program

Scheduled may be sharply curtailed but sports programs of schools in District 3 of the Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic association are to continue throughout this school year, barring unforeseen developments.

At a meeting of the district executive committee at Steelton Wednesday night, chairmen of the various sport steering committees gave their reports and opinions on prospects of continuing interscholastic sports.

In the future, certificates and ribbons will be awarded the winners. Trophies and medals are out for the duration.

FINAL PAYMENT MADE ON LIGHTS

The last instalment of $1,000 was paid off on the Gettysburg high school athletic field lights and equipment by the Athletic Council of the school at a meeting Monday evening. With all bills paid, the Council reported a "substantial balance" remaining in the treasury.

Final payment of the $2,800 bill for the football field lights, installed in 1940, marked the completion of a three-year effort on the part of the Council. Purchase and installation of the lights were made possible two years ago by 35 local men and business places who endorsed notes to cover the cost.

At the end of the first season the debt was cut to $1,700 and then the Gettysburg Lions turned over $150 as the proceeds from a benefit play and cut the total to $1,550.

In spite of the short season, hampered by the paralysis epidemic and restrictions, the note was reduced to $1,000 by the end of the 1941 season and at the end of this year's football season there was sufficient money on hand to pay off the notes outstanding in the local banks.

MRS. LEWARS TO ADDRESS CLUB

Mrs. Elsie Singmaster Lewars will be the speaker at the annual Thanksgiving Service of the Business and Professional Women's club Sunday evening at the YWCA. The service will start at 3:30 o'clock in order not to conflict with the vesper services of the local churches. Tea will be served by the club's service committee following the service. Mrs. Jessie Easterday and Miss Esther Hartman are in charge of arrangements for the program. Members planning to attend should sign at the "Y" by Friday evening.

Lincoln Gave Rocking Chair To And Helped Revive Fainted Woman Nov. 19, '63

President Demonstrated His Humanness; Honored Burns; Attended Church Services

Thursday was the 79th anniversary of Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg Address delivered upon the occasion of the dedication of the Gettysburg National Cemetery.

The anniversary this year holds more significance than ever before. The words spoken by Lincoln here more than three-quarters of a century ago, symbolize the objective of freedom-loving people... the cause they are fighting for around the world today.

The Gettysburg Times presents some additional sidelights of that memorable occasion, November 19, 1863. There is appended an article by Wayne Whipple and published in The Youth's Companion November 19, 1914. It was made available to The Gettysburg Times by Mrs. Elsie Sinemaster Lewars, noted authoress. The article follows:

There have been many disputes as to when Abraham Lincoln wrote his Gettysburg speech, but in 1894 Colonel Nicolay, one of President Lincoln's private secretaries, published facsimiles that proved, beyond doubt, that most of the little speech was written before the President left the White House.

A year later, Noah Brooks, a Washington newspaper correspondent and a friend of Lincoln, related an anecdote in corroboration. When he and the President, he said, were on their way to a photographer's on the Sunday before the Gettysburg Address was delivered, Mr. Lincoln showed him the printer's proofs of Edward Everett's oration, and laughingly quoted the familiar sentiment: "Solid men of Boston, make no long orations!"

Wrote Short Speech

Then he expressed his sincere appreciation of Mr. Everett's thoughtfulness in sending his address before him, in order that their minds might not be by any chance run in the same channel at Gettysburg. "No danger of that," he concluded, with a shrug, "for my speech will be short, short, short!"

"Then you have written yours?" asked Mr. Brooks.

"Yes, it's written—but not finished."

On the train to Gettysburg, the President had no opportunity to write anything—the conversation, the greetings, and the questionings that ordinary courtesy required him to undergo, combined with the rocking and jolting of the train, rendered writing virtually impossible.

Accounts differ, also, as to the time of Edward Everett's arrival at Gettysburg. One account says that after Mr. Everett had had the date of the exercises postponed nearly a month to suit his own convenience, he delayed the proceedings by not reaching the town until after the hour set for the speaking to begin. But Dr. Henry E. Jacobs, dean of the Philadelphia Theological Seminary at Mount Airy, proves that this statement is unjust to Mr. Everett. Mr. Jacobs was a young man then, living in Gettysburg, where his father Michael Jacobs, was professor of mathematics in Pennsylvania College.

Lincoln's Train Late

"I saw Mr. Everett in the little station on Carlisle Street the evening before the exercises at the cemetery," says Doctor Jacobs. "He was waiting to welcome the President and his friends. I was about as much interested in Edward Everett, just then, as in Abraham Lincoln himself, for Everett had been a member of Congress, Governor of Massachusetts, minister to England, president of Harvard College, Secretary of State, Senator from Massachusetts, and candidate of the 'Constitutional Union' party in 1860 for Vice President of the United States; and he was recognized as the greatest orator of his day—in America, at least. The aristocratic features and beautiful wavy silver hair of Edward Everett, in striking contrast with the faces of the crowd waiting that evening to see the President's special train pull in, made a strong appeal to my youthful mind.

"The train came late. We all followed Abraham Lincoln to the house of Mr. David Wells—on the corner of 'the Diamond', as the principal square was called. There was a word, of course, which serenaded the President, but the people were thoughtlessly impatient. They did not allow time enough for the President and his party to partake of supper.

Plagues Admirers

"But, whether he had supped or not, the President's tall form soon appeared. I can see him now, as he came out and stood on the front steps, with his whimsical, good-natured smile, to comply with our demand for a speech—by not making one!"

"I appear before you, fellow citizens," he began, in high-pitched, resonant tones, 'merely to thank you for this compliment.' The inference is a very fair one that you would hear from me for a little while, at least; were I to commence to make a speech. I do not appear before you for the purpose of doing so—and for several substantial reasons. The most substantial of these is that I

"A voice from the crowd: 'If you can help it!'"

"Mr. Lincoln turned quickly, and laughed at this sally, and went on, by way of reply: 'It very often happens that the only way to help it is to say nothing at all! (Laughter.) Believing that is my present condition this evening, I must beg you to excuse me from addressing you further.'"

"The assembled people were mightily pleased with this humorous substitute for a speech. He had said nothing, but he had said it well. They moved laughingly away, happy in seeing him and hearing his voice."

Bright, Clear Day

Thursday, November 19, 1863, dawned bright and clear, and became as warm as a day in Indian summer. The procession began to form. The President appeared, all in black, except for his white gloves, and with the tall hat, which added to the effect of his height. He had put the finishing touches on his speech, and carried the completed copy in his pocket.

The people, early and alert, crowded round, in order to shake hands with him; they quickly soiled his white gloves, but never soiled his temper in the least. His horse happened to be an unusually low-bodied creature, so that when Lincoln's great boots were not in the stirrups they nearly touched the ground. The inevitable wag in the crowd noticed it, and cried out:

"Say, Father Abraham, if she goes to run away with you, you just stand up on the ground and let 'er go!"

Many Delays

Although the newspapers reported that the procession started promptly, there were numerous delays, and it was about twelve o'clock before the exercises at the cemetery began. Among those who found a good place near the speakers' platform were a plainly dressed Pennsylvania Dutch farmer, Jacob, and his wife, Lydia, who had driven over from Ephrata the day before. They had come, bright and early, and taken their stand directly in front of the platform. The crowd increased during the forenoon, until it was estimated that there were about fifteen thousand people present. Of course there was a good deal of crowding and jostling, and Jacob and Lydia had all they could do to keep their places. With all the pushing and pulling, and the weary waiting in the warm sun, they agreed that they were more tired than if they had worked all day in a hayfield.

The coming of the procession and the seating of the dignitaries at last diverted their attention. Lydia watched the President as he took his seat in the rocking-chair that some one, knowing his preference, had provided for him. While Lydia stood watching the President, everything grew black before her eyes, and she began to have the horrible sensations known only to those who have felt themselves fainting in the midst of an immense crowd.

Helps Fainted Woman

"A woman has fainted!" she heard a voice out of chaos exclaim. There was some confusion, and the crowd, instead of giving her more room, pressed in around her, and made it impossible for her husband, or anyone near, to lend her a helping hand. Above this crowding and confusion, she heard a high, clear voice call in tones of gentle command:

"Here, hand that woman up to me! Let me get hold of her!"

She felt the firm, strong hands seize her arms, and she was lifted up—it seemed to her—out of all her troubles.

When Lydia regained consciousness, she found herself leaning back in that rocking chair on the platform, and felt ten thousand pairs of eyes riveted upon her, while she was being slowly fanned by the President of the United States! That was too much for the plain, shrinking woman from Ephrata.

"I feel—better—now, I want to go back to my Yacobi!" she gasped, as she looked appealingly into Mr. Lincoln's kind, reassuring eyes. And she emphasized by a gesture her wish to retire from her conspicuous position.

"Oh, now, my dear madam," said Mr. Lincoln, "you're all right. Stay just where you are—right here beside me. It was all I could do to pull you up out of that crowd, and I'm sure I couldn't put you back again!"

And Lydia, seeming to forget all about the ten thousand pairs of eyes gazing at her, sat contentedly there, "high and lifted up," looking down now and then at her poor, tired husband, while the periods of Edward Everett's two-hour oration rose and fell in measured cadences over the heads of the multitude, which no longer noticed the little woman on the stage.

The crowd soon began to grow restless. Some of the men began to work their way out. Young Henry Jacobs, the admirer of Edward Everett, improved this opportunity to edge up closer to the platform.

"I doubt if one-third of those present," said Doctor Jacobs, fifty years afterward, "could hear the speakers that day. I could hear Mr. Everett distinctly only after I had made my way to the front. I thought he spoke almost too easily—making it quite evident that he had committed his oration to memory. There were three introductions to this address, and several 'false alarms' before its close; but Mr. Lincoln, who had read the proof, knew when the end was approaching, for he began to reach for his own speech when he heard Mr. Everett pronounce, in round tones:

Studies Speech

"And now, friends, fellow citizens of Gettysburg and Pennsylvania, and you from remoter states, let me again, as we part, invoke your benediction on these honored graves."

"While Mr. Everett went on with the closing words of his oration, Mr. Lincoln took from his pocket a crumpled leaf or two, slowly put his spectacles down near the end of his nose, and began to study the paper intently, with the air of a boy who hasn't quite learned his lesson and is about to be called upon to recite. Having run through his own brief address, he again regarded Mr. Everett with profound attention over the rims of his glasses, as he mechanically stuffed his crumpled manuscript back into a capacious inside pocket, where it seemed to be forgotten, while the distinguished orator concluded.

"Of course there was 'prolonged applause' after such a prolonged oration. Then a hymn, composed by Mr. B. B. French of Gettysburg, was sung. It was a creditable poem. While we were singing the five stanzas of this dirge, the President's anxiety about his speech was again manifest, and he stood conning his manuscript with furtive glances over his glasses, which were still perched on the tip of his nose. When the time for his address came, he stepped forth, proudly erect except for the slight stoop of the shoulders, as if he had felt all the weight of the solemn responsibility of the occasion resting upon them. He paused, and braced himself during the applause that greeted him.

Voice Is Strained

"At first his voice sounded a little strained and high-pitched, as if he were trying to throw his words to the outer edge of the crowd. He held in his right hand the manuscript that he had brought from the White House, and the single page of bluish paper on which he had penciled his closing words at Mr. Wells'. Toward the end of his address I noticed that he held the pages straight down in front of him, tightly grasped at each side, as if they were a shield. It wasn't until he was saying to a friend, 'It won't scour, Lamon, it won't scour,' meaning that, in spite of all the compliments he was receiving, the varnish or veneer, would wear off in time. One of the first to understand its worth was the Secretary of War, the man who was too busy to go to hear it delivered—obscure, abject, and often insulting; Stanton, Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War, related that when he went to the Secretary of War's room on the day after the Gettysburg celebration, Stanton asked:

Lauded by Stanton

"Have you seen these Gettysburg speeches? The people will be delighted with them. Edward Everett has made a speech that will make many columns in the newspapers, and Mr. Lincoln's perhaps fifty lines. Everett's is the speech of a scholar. It is elegant, and it is ed him several times during his two-minute address; but they were surprised to see the President take his seat so soon. They did not realize that his part was only to consecrate the ground as a national cemetery. Many of those who had gone away during Mr. Everett's oration were returning to hear, if possible, what the President had to say. It is absurd to say that there were no signs of approval during Lincoln's address, or after it, that day. If Abraham Lincoln had stood up and repeated the multiplication table, they would have greeted such a noble sentiment as 'nine times seven are sixty-three,' with enthusiastic applause! Perhaps they did not appreciate the lofty beauty of the words and sentiments he uttered; but he was the President of the United States,—he was Abraham Lincoln, 'Old Abe,' 'Father Abraham,'—and that was enough to insure him a grand ovation from all, whether they heard his words or not. There were rousing cheers for the President, and then cheer after cheer for the governors of the various states.

"Not a train left Gettysburg that day until the President's special departed in the evening. It seems strange that the reports and stories of the exercises at Gettysburg do not refer to a deed of kindness and patriotism that was highly characteristic of Abraham Lincoln. That afternoon there was a service in the Presbyterian Church, and Mr. Lincoln decided to attend, and invited Secretary Seward to accompany him.

Honors John Burns

"The President had heard of old John Burns of Gettysburg, a cobbler who, on the Sunday of the battle, went into the fight in his Sunday clothes—an ancient blue coat with brass buttons, and a big white hat. He was not a man of few words, as the ballad by Bret Harte describes him, but quite the reverse. Indeed, he used to talk so 'big' that his neighbors were surprised at his courage when he proved it. He was wounded three times, but remained in the fight to the finish.

"Mr. Lincoln sent for John Burns, and the happy old cobbler marched proudly through the streets of Gettysburg to the Presbyterian Church, with the President of the United States on one arm, and the Secretary of State on the other. It was a kind and thoughtful act on the part of Lincoln, who meant to honor all the humble heroes in the person of old John Burns."

No one really appreciated the Gettysburg Address the day it was delivered. Mr. Lincoln disparaged it himself, saying to a friend, "It won't scour, Lamon, it won't scour," meaning that, in spite of all the compliments he was receiving, the varnish or veneer, would wear off in time. One of the first to understand its worth was the Secretary of War, the man who was too busy to go to hear it delivered—obscure, abject, and often insulting; Stanton, Charles A. Dana, Assistant Secretary of War, related that when he went to the Secretary of War's room on the day after the Gettysburg celebration, Stanton asked:

CARRIERS TOP MILLION-MARK IN STAMP SALES

The Gettysburg Times newsboys and newsgirl have sold more than a million ten-cent War Stamps in 43 weeks.

At the close of last week's sales the 19 youths had disposed of 1,016,670 stamps.

This record pushes The Gettysburg Times carriers high in the newspaper campaign in the percentage of sales according to the population of the area covered.

With the exception of National Newspaper Boy Day last October 5, the sales for last week reached the second largest total for 7 days since the campaign started. The large sale last week was made possible by a Gettysburg friend of the newspaper carriers who purchased a large block of stamps and divided the total equally among all the boys and girl.

Giving More Time

Today The Times carriers are giving more time than ever to the sale of ten-cent War Stamps and the most recent compilation shows that these defense agents of the United States Treasury department are everything they are called in Washington, "Agents for Victory."

Thirteen-year-old Henry Hershey, of Cashtown, continues to lead the entire group with 140,802 stamps sold. Close behind the leader is Luther Smith, Gettysburg, with the sale of 140,583 stamps. C. Arthur Brame, Jr., continues to rank third with a total sale of 98,223 stamps.

Two new names appear in the list of leaders for the sales last week. The one is Robert Kime, who is in first place with a sale of 8,333 stamps. He covers Bendersville 100 per cent. The second new leader is James Munshower, who has a big circle route out of Gettysburg daily. He sold 7,270 stamps last week. Third place goes to young Brame, of Lincolnway east, with a total sale of 6,345 stamps.

Two New Carriers

Two newcomers have joined The Times newsboy staff and have pledged their allegiance to the United States government to act as official defense agents. One is E. Richard Hartlaub, who covers a Gettysburg route. He succeeds Robert Coffield. Richard has sold 4,094 stamps in two weeks. The other new carrier is Charles Lawver, who serves the Munnasburg route. In two weeks he has sold 3,803 ten-cent stamps.

Sales last week follow:

1. Robert Kime, Bendersville	8,333
2. James Munshower, Gettysburg R. D.	7,270

Named High School Teacher At Fairfield

John A. Sheffer, who has resigned as science and mathematics teacher at the Fairfield high school, began his duties as a clerk at the state liquor store, center square, this morning.

His position in the Fairfield high school faculty was filled by the Fairfield school board at a special meeting Saturday evening by the advancement of J. Warren Martin, elementary school principal at Fairfield and a Millersville state teachers' college graduate, to the high school teaching post.

Martin's position in the grade school was filled by the election of Mrs. Helen Cunningham McCullough of Fairfield.

LIONS ARRANGE 2 FOOD SHOWS TO AID NEEDY

Gettysburg Lions at their weekly meeting Monday evening voted to sponsor two benefit food shows at the Majestic theatre—one before Thanksgiving and the other before Christmas—with needy families of the community to be provided with holiday dinners first and the surplus to go to the Warner hospital.

Plans for the shows, which now have become annual events, were made after Lion Sydney Poppay offered the use of the Warner Brothers' theatre here.

Committee Report

President William A. Beales presided at the meeting which was devoted to business and the hearing of reports of standing committee chairmen. Finance, attendance, membership and extension, program, military affairs, scout, boys' and girls' work, blind work and welfare, education and safety, community betterment, reception and publicity, and greeter committee chairmen presented reports and club activities and plans were discussed.

A meeting of the board of directors followed the general session. The meeting was held at Mrs. Smith's restaurant with 25 members in attendance.

Meeting at Graeffenburg

Next week the Lions will meet jointly with the Soroptimist club of Gettysburg at the Blue Parrot tea room where the ladies' service club will celebrate its birthday anniversary.

This evening President Beales and other members of the local club will represent Gettysburg Lions at a zone ladies' night meeting to be held at Graeffenburg Inn with the program in charge of the Upper Adams club. H. Earl Pitzer of that club is the zone chairman.

VETERANS NAME TWO OFFICERS

Legionnaires of York, Adams and Franklin counties elected Lorenza Daugherty, of Dallastown, as twenty-second district treasurer and Herbert Smith of Red Lion as district vice commander at a regular district meeting here Monday evening at the Legion home.

About 75 Legionnaires from 10 of the 17 posts in the three counties attended the meeting with District Commander Stanton House of Aspers presiding. Howard W. Sheffer of Gettysburg is the district adjutant.

It was announced that 1,500 of the 2,300 World War veterans in the three counties have enrolled in Legion posts already in the fiscal year which opened in October.

To Meet In York

William Walker, York, grand chief de guerre of the 40 and 8 in Pennsylvania, attended the meeting and told the members that each convoy of American troops leaving this country is supplied with a stock of playing cards marked with the emblems of the Legion and the 40 and 8.

The next district meeting will be held in York on January 19 when Department Commander Daniel Hartbauer will be the speaker.

The meeting Monday evening followed a brief regular meeting of the members of the Albert J. Lentz post No. 202 of Gettysburg with Commander C. Arthur Brame, presiding.

After the district meeting refreshments were served.

QUARANTINE LIFTED

The scarlet fever quarantine on the home of William H. Shafer, Gettysburg R. 3, Cumberland township, was lifted Tuesday evening by William I. Shields, county health officer. Mr. and Mrs. Shafer and their son, William R. Shafer, have recovered from the disease.

MOOSE WOMEN INSTITUTE NEW CHAPTER HERE

With a state officer as the guest of honor and visitors here from York and Hanover, Chapter 182 of the Women of the Moose of Gettysburg was instituted at exercises conducted Sunday afternoon in the Moose building, York street. Recently-elected officers of the new organization were installed before a gathering of nearly 250 persons.

The ceremony of the institution of the new chapter was conducted by Mrs. Eva Boose, senior regent of the Hanover chapter of the Women of the Moose, assisted by the other officers of that unit and by additional members who escorted them to Gettysburg. The guest speaker was Mrs. Frieda Clinger, junior graduate grand regent, of Lewis-town, Pa. There were talks by men and women of the Moose, both local members and visitors.

The Gettysburg chapter has set the second and fourth Tuesdays at 8 o'clock as the time for regular chapter meetings. There are now 68 ladies enrolled in the Gettysburg chapter.

Officers Installed

The officers installed here Sunday follow: Senior regent, Mrs. Virginia Lauer; junior regent, Mrs. Enola Evans; graduate regent, Mrs. Fern Myers; chaplain, Mrs. Ruth Utz; recorder, Mrs. Marie McGlaughlin; treasurer, Mrs. Carrie Felix; argus, Mrs. Eleanor Fox; sentinel, Mrs. Ida Dunkinson; guide, Miss Sara Miller; assistant guide, Mrs. Emma Keefe, and pianist, Mrs. Edward Culver.

These committee chairmen have been announced: Publicity, Mrs. Mary Evans; social service, Mrs. Anna Goodemuth; homemaking, Mrs. Nellie McGlaughlin; child care, Mrs. Ada Smith; library, Mrs. Mary M. Miller; membership, Mrs. Nellie Lawther; Mooseheart, Mrs. Emma Pittman; hospital guild, Mrs. Eva Rentzel, and war relief, Mrs. Rose Anzengruber.

INJURES SKULL IN Y.S. FALL

Mrs. William Warner, 46, York Springs, remains in a critical condition at the Warner hospital where she was admitted in the York Springs ambulance Saturday following a fall down a stairway. She has been unconscious since the accident.

Mrs. Warner suffered a fractured skull, fracture of her left arm, cerebral hemorrhage and lacerations of the scalp.

Mrs. J. Lawrence Orndorff, Emmitsburg, was admitted as a patient. Those discharged were Guy Bishop, Jr., Gettysburg; Mrs. Nesbur G. Brandt and infant son, Nesbur Gilton Brandt, Jr., Gardners R.D.; Mrs. Charles Spangler and infant daughter, Winifred Lenora, Biglerville; Mrs. Janet Emlet and infant daughter, Glen Louise, McKnightstown; Mrs. Amos Bigham, Iron Springs; Mrs. Dean Bower and infant daughter, Deanna Sue, York; Mrs. Leroy Elsenberger and infant daughter, Catherine Zhea, Baltimore; Monroe Smelter, Arendtsville, and Mrs. Mary Kuhn, Bendersville.

SCOUT OFFICE BURNED IN YORK

The headquarters of the York-Adams county Boy Scout district were destroyed by fire early Sunday morning when the Community Service building burned in York.

The Boy Scout office was one of several civic and charitable organizations that occupied the former high school building on West Philadelphia street near Pershing avenue in York.

L. Ellis Wagner, chief of the York Fire department, is making an investigation of the blaze. The fact that the fire started in two separate places and that a light was seen on the second floor of the building shortly before the blaze was discovered have led the chief to believe that it was of incendiary origin.

The building was destroyed completely.

Temporary Boy Scout offices have been established in the Cherry street school in York.

45 LEAVE FOR FORT MEADE

Forty-five men, registered with Draft Board No. 1 of Adams county, left New Oxford Monday afternoon, for Fort George G. Meade, Md., to take up active duties with the Army. The men had passed final physical examinations and had been inducted into the service a fortnight ago. They were granted immediate 14-day leaves. The men left New Oxford at 1:30 p. m., traveling by bus to York, where they boarded a train for Meade.

THE PRICE

No joy without attendant care,
No blossom but has come through rain.
No pride without its ache to bear,
No triumph without stress and strain.
No worthwhile gain without its price
In courage, faith and sacrifice.

If laughter is worthwhile to seek,
And pleasure is a good desire,
Then men must stand where frail and weak
And timid very quickly tire.
For laughter is by merit earned
And is with courage much concerned.

All bits of glory and delight,
All love, esteem and friendships true
Come from the struggle to be right
And what for truth men dare to do.
The life triumphant everywhere
Is based on courage and on care.

LATE AUTUMN

The arms of the elm tree are bare,
In shreds is the maple's red gown.
There are signs in the yard which declare
King Winter's besieging the town.

The frosts, and the winds which howl
Precede
The first swift arrival of snow,
Have struck at both blossom and weed
With fury and leveled them low.

The songbirds have fled from the cold,
Gone are robin and martin and wren.
Now sparrows and blue jays will hold
The field till the spring comes again.

Not much will remain that is fair
On the day when King Winter arrives,
For all that no hardship can bear
In terror have fled for their lives.

TOMORROW
Always and ever tomorrow,
The day of our hopes and our dreams;
The end of all failure and sorrow,
How close and how far off it seems!

Tomorrow—the goal a day nearer,
Tomorrow—one day farther on!
The way just a little bit clearer
And some old discouragement gone!

Always and ever before us
Tomorrow holds promises fair;
Life just a bit easier for us
And lighter its burdens to bear.
Tomorrow—then loosened some fetter,
Some evil of old set aright.
Life richer and gayer and better,
Tomorrow—just after tonight!

Tomorrow, with beauty of morning
And evening and nighttime and noon,
Tomorrow—the better day dawning
For all of us, later or soon.

Long yesterdays, over and ended,
Lie down with the past in the grave.
But forever to victories splendid
Tomorrow will welcome the brave.

RUMOR
Kill a rumor on the spot,
Let it die and be forgot.

If you scorn to pass it on,
It will soon be dead and gone.

Be polite, but be discreet,
Ugly stories don't repeat.

If it's whispered unto you,
You can bet it isn't true.

If it's good news for the foe,
Ten to one it isn't so.

To be silent's very wise.
Unrepeated rumor dies.

If it's vicious if it's vile
Think it over for awhile.

And then kill it. Be the one
Much too smart to pass it on!

Seattle, Wash.—Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, associate editor of the Post-Intelligencer, has been fretting about her mother. For Eleanor Roosevelt is in England and has been in several danger zones. Then Mrs. Boettiger received a letter from mother, she reported in her weekly women's page. Mrs. Roosevelt said she had enjoyed visiting with her son, Elliott, "but I can't help worrying about every one of you at home."

CHURCH ATTRACTION
Chicago—Dr. Charles R. Goff, pastor of the Loop Skyscraper Methodist church, wanted to know why the pews of his church were being filled to overflowing. In a questionnaire submitted to members of the congregation and asking for an explanation of what brought them to church, 24 per cent said they followed the church.

PREMATURE CELEBRATION
Reading, Pa., (AP)—Santa Claus came early for Albert Pfening, 5, and Skipper Komodi, 4. They disappeared. Police searched the city for five hours—and finally found them in the Pfening attic playing with toys that Albert wasn't supposed to discover until Christmas.

FIRE HAZARD
Columbia, S. C. (AP)—Fire-cautious retail stores are keeping a watchful eye on their baby pants. Fire Chief A. McC. Marsh said he had received a report that tests showed a $56,000 fire at a 5 and 10 cent store here last September was caused by spontaneous combustion in 52 dozen baby pants.

CHRISTMAS GIFT
Huntington Park, Calif. (AP)—Christmas street decorations won't have lights this year. Dim-out, you know.

So Chairman Harry J. Weinberg of the chamber of commerce has presented a $1,200 check to the Treasury department for the operation of its war bond sales office here. That's what it used to cost to buy and operate the 20,000 holiday lights.

STARTLING SERVICE
Kansas City (AP)—Ralph Hurst had just been talking about how the war had slowed mail service a bit.

That is why he blushed when he noticed the envelope on his desk. It was postmarked out of Philadelphia, "Nov. 21, 1942."

MACHINE AGE
White Plains, N. Y. (AP)—Swarms of hunters scoured Westchester county's hills on the first day of the hunting season, but the weapons were restricted by law to bows and arrows.

When the day ended, only two deer were reported killed—and not by arrows.

They were run over by automobiles.

IT'S A PIPE
Wilmington, Calif. (AP)—Royal Porter, 1,000th graduate of the California Shipbuilding Corporation Pipefitting school, got his diploma in a special exercise. The diploma was a shiny length of two-inch pipe, the first he had threaded, decorated with a huge bow ribbon.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE
Plummer, Idaho (AP)—Grocer A. J. Brutzman never can be accused of hoarding.

Customers depleted his stock of coffee. Then his wife appeared to ask for a pound.

Grocer Brutzman finally obtained one from a sympathetic competitor.

CHEAP WISHES
Fort Benning, Ga. (AP)—The 124th Infantry set up a stone "wishing well" where soldiers may kneel and wish for anything from a furlough to a transfer to Africa—after they toss in a penny.

So far, 800 pennies have been taken from the well and used to buy goldfish for the place. Among the pennies were 35 slugs.

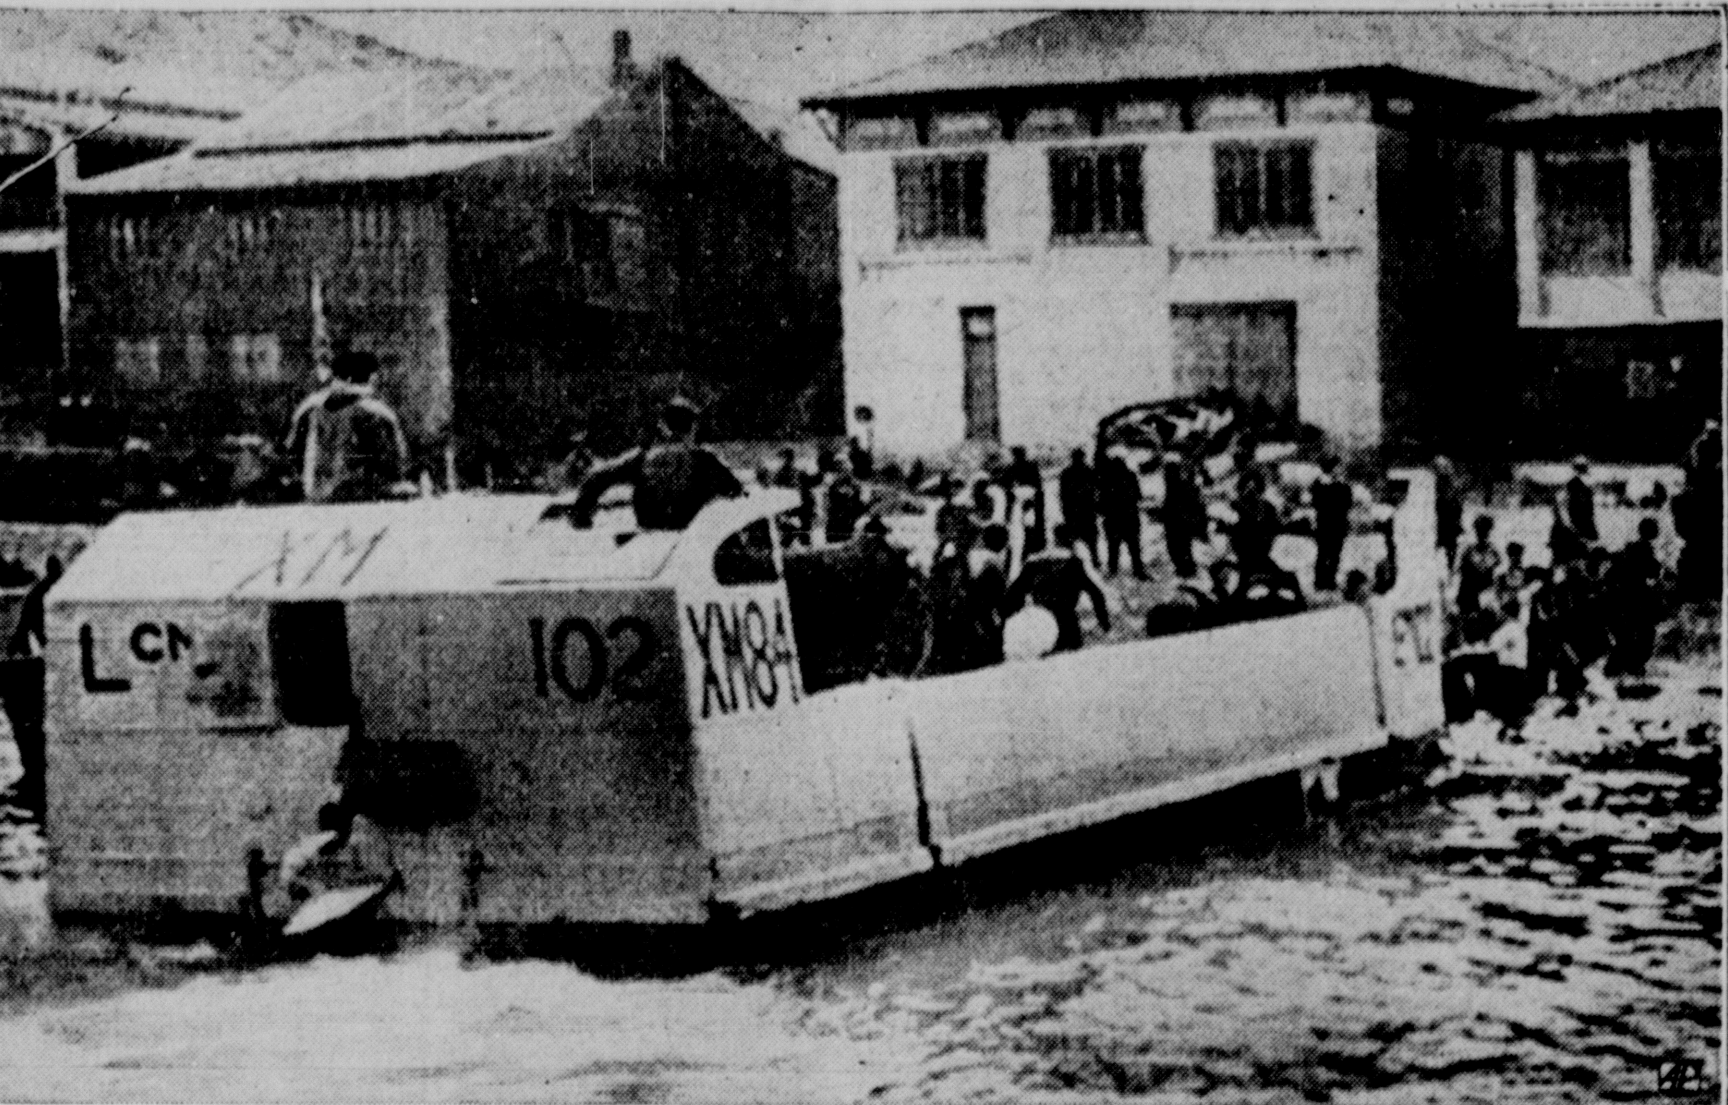

SUPER SERVICE
Seattle (AP)—The prisoner who petitioned for a transfer from the city jail to an outdoor camp wanted top speed in delivery.

So he put an airmail stamp on his letter to acting police Judge Roy De Grief. The letter arrived next day in De Grief's office—five floors below the jail.

Chicago (AP)—To carry a package out of a war plant requires a pass. At a Chicago plant a worker requested a pass.

An official asked what the package contained, and was told it held hair tonic. "Oh yeah," he guffawed, "I'll just sample that hair tonic." He did. It was hair tonic.

First Picture Of U.S. Landings On North Africa Front

ANNUAL BANQUET NEXT SATURDAY

The twelfth annual banquet of the Past Commanders and Past Presidents' association of the Sons of Union Veterans will be held at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday evening, November 21 at 6:30 o'clock. It has been announced by Mrs. E. F. Strausbaugh.

Henry M. Towle, of Maine, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans, Pennsylvania Department Commander Frank M. Heacock, of Media, Mrs. Margaret McKinney, of Philadelphia, department president of the Ladies Auxiliary and department heads of the Ladies of the GAR, Woman's Relief corps and Daughters of Veterans, will attend the dinner.

Colonel Neal A. Harper of the Carlisle barracks will be the speaker.

LARGE CROWD SEES H.S. PLAY

A crowd estimated at nearly 500 witnessed the first presentation of the timely three-act comedy, "The American Way," by an all-student cast in the Gettysburg high school auditorium on Wednesday evening. The play will be repeated at 8 o'clock Friday evening with eight changes in the cast.

An appreciative audience gave special praise to Cathlene Everly for her presentation of the key role of the "Grandmother" while Betty Rosensteel and Violet Rosensteel were commended specially for their portrayals of the German maid and the gossiping neighbor, respectively. Other members of the cast gave good support. Most of the eight substitutions in the cast for Friday are veterans of other high school productions.

The play is being given for the benefit of student council activities and is being directed by Miss Ruth McIlhenny and Miss Ruth Scott of the high school faculty. The school orchestra under the direction of Edwin S. Longenecker played Wednesday evening and will entertain again on Friday.

Noted Physician, College Grad, Dies

Dr. Luther Crouse Peter, professor emeritus of ophthalmology at the Graduate School of Medicine of the University of Pennsylvania and consultant on eye diseases at several hospitals, died last Thursday night at Graduate hospital. He was seventy-three years old, a graduate of Gettysburg college and the University of Pennsylvania.

He completed his studies at the University of Pennsylvania in 1894 and in 1910 was appointed assistant professor of ophthalmology at Polytechnic hospital, now Graduate hospital. In 1917 he became professor of ophthalmology at Temple University School of Medicine, a post he retained until 1930. He was professor of ophthalmology at the Graduate School of Medicine from 1913 to 1941. He was consultant at Rush, Roxborough Memorial and Friends' hospitals and was author of books on eye surgery.

He was a former president of the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology and a fellow of the American College of Surgeons and the Philadelphia College of Physicians.

500 WOMEN EMPLOYED
Erie, Pa., Nov. 19 (AP)—Erie industries added 500 women to the payrolls during October, the U. S. Employment service here reported. A survey of the service showed 6,505 women were employed. Erie's total employment in October was 36,613, compared with 21,817 in October, 1941.

Liquor Vendors Must Hold Prices

Harrisburg, November 14—Hotels, restaurants and tavern operators were warned today by the Office of Price Administration that they are not permitted to increase the prices of liquors, wines, or beers. They may however, add to their March ceiling price of wines and liquors the exact amount of the new tax rate justifies. Beer prices for draught beer over the bar must remain the same as heretofore.

Consumers are requested to report to the O.P.A. any price increase over and above the exact amount of the new tax. All permitted increases due to the new tax resulting in a fractional cent shall be raised to the next higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more. But if the fraction is less than one-half cent the retailer may not add it to his price.

Two Local Youths Start Naval Duty

John H. Pitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pitzer, West Middle street, reported Wednesday for active duty in Philadelphia as a member of the United States Naval reserves. He is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and was associated with his father in the tailoring business.

Thomas Whittinghill, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Whittinghill, Eberhart apartments, also reported at Philadelphia, Wednesday, where he enlisted in the Navy.

3 AUTO MODELS STILL 'FROZEN'

Holders of rationing certificates authorizing the purchase of new passenger automobiles are still forbidden by the Office of Price Administration to purchase 1942 model Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth four-door, hard-topped sedans, Guy J. Swope, district OPA manager, announced Tuesday.

These models were frozen August 18 by an order originally intended to expire October 31st, Mr. Swope pointed out, but the OPA has now extended the expiration date until December 31st. The order was originally put into effect to halt sales of these models to civilians in order to make these vehicles available for purchase by the Army and the Navy. Extension of the freeze date has been made necessary because of the needs of the armed forces.

Buy Rubber Goods

Application for rationing certificates authorizing the purchase of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes may be handled by mail, Donald P. McPherson, Jr., chairman of the county rationing board, said today. Where the applications are approved the certificate may be mailed to the applicant although the board reserves the right to require the applicant to appear personally.

In another announcement, motorizing between summer and winter vacation homes is ruled out for the duration of mileage rationing, the OPA said.

Two Scarlet Fever Cases Quarantined

Two additional cases of scarlet fever were quarantined in rural Adams county this morning by William I. Shields, county health officer.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lohr Klinefelter, Gettysburg R. 4, in Straban township was placarded because of the illness of Florence Alda, aged six years, one of seven children in the home.

The home of Oliver Sanders, Fairfield R. 1, Liberty township, also has been quarantined. A grandchild, Edward Sanders, aged two years, who lives in that home, is ill. The child is a son of Guy Sanders.

BANKERS ELECT LLOYD W. KUHN NEW PRESIDENT

Lloyd W. Kuhn, cashier of the Bendersville National bank and president of the Adams County Bankers' association in 1934, was re-elected to the latter office Wednesday evening at the Hotel Gettysburg during the annual meeting of the county bankers' association. He succeeds J. Monroe Danner, assistant cashier of the Peoples' State bank of East Berlin, who served as toastmaster Wednesday evening.

These other officers were chosen at the business meeting which preceded the dinner session: Vice president, Bruce W. Taylor, assistant cashier of the Biglerville National bank; secretary, Dale Crum of the Bendersville bank, and treasurer, Theron W. Spangler, assistant cashier and trust officer at the Littlestown National bank, re-elected.

The following were named to positions on the association's council of administration: Edmund W. Thomas, president of the First National bank of Gettysburg; William M. Weidner, York Springs; J. Preston Smith, McSherrystown; Robert B. Martin, Fairfield; W. A. Raffensperger, Ardenville; and Wilbur A. Bankert, treasurer of the Littlestown State bank.

Dr. Charles C. Ellis, president of Juniata college at Huntingdon, Pa., was the principal speaker. His theme was "Efficient Personality." Opening his address with the observation that "in every crisis, there is a time when we ought to take stock of our ideals," the college president declared that the significant thing about American life is "not efficiency but personality—not personal efficiency but efficient personality."

Essential prerequisites of an "efficient personality" are physical vitality, mental alertness and moral integrity and earnestness, he explained. "An efficient personality deals with things as tools for men and women; deals with people in the right way and looks upward in an essential relationship with God," he concluded.

Quartet Entertains
The bankers, their wives and other guests numbering 116 were entertained at several times during the evening by special popular, classic and patriotic songs by the Capital City quartet from Harrisburg.

President Danner introduced the new officers and members of the council of administration. The invocation was given by the Rev. Charles O. Garner.

A roast turkey dinner was served.

Speech, Hearing Defects Studied

Dr. Harold Westlake, special education adviser in the state department of public instruction at Harrisburg, and Miss Dorothy M. Warner, supervisor of special education in the public schools of Adams county, examined eight school children with speech defects this week at the county superintendent's office in the court house and at Biglerville.

Doctor Westlake met with a group of school teachers at Biglerville and outlined speech correction training and for the benefit of the teachers with pupils having defective hearing he gave instructions on teaching lip reading.

Other pupils with hearing and speech defects will be examined later.

Rotarians Discuss News Events Of '20s

Events before and after the signing of the armistice in 1918 comprised the topic of the program for the weekly luncheon meeting of the Gettysburg Rotary club in the Y. W. C. A. building Monday evening.

The discussion was led by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, chairman of the international service committee of the club. The Rotarians answered pertaining to news events covering the war period and the years between 1920 and 1930.

In celebration of the fourth anniversary of the Scroptimist club next Monday, the Rotarians and Lions of Gettysburg have been invited by the women's club to attend a program at the Blue Parrot tea room.

MINISTERS FIX SPECIAL DATES; REMIND TOWN OF 'PRAYER MINUTE'

Arrangements for the Thanksgiving Day service and the annual Week of Prayer services were made by the Gettysburg Ministerium at its regular fall meeting held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. The ministers also elected officers.

The Thanksgiving service will be held in the United Brethren church on Thursday, November 26, at 9 a. m. The sermon for the exercises, which are conducted annually by the Gettysburg churches, will be delivered by the Rev. Ralph R. Gresh, St. James Lutheran pastor. The offering will be donated to the Civic Nursing association.

Officers Chosen
As planned by the ministers, the Week of Prayer services will be held during the first week in 1943.

The Rev. Dwight F. Putman, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, was elected president of the Ministerium and the Rev. Howard S. Fox, Trinity Evangelical and Reformed pastor, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Following this meeting, the Rev. Mr. Putman said:

"The ministers of the churches direct the attention of the people of the community to the daily minute prayer. The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America are sponsoring one minute of common prayer at 6 p. m., when the hearts and minds of people everywhere may be united in meditation and petition.

"The chimes of the churches and the 6 o'clock bells will constitute the audible call, while all who are in their homes at that hour may be further guided by the minute of meditation as broadcast over station WOR.

Purpose of Prayer

"Let this 'prayer minute' be, first, a summons to individual and corporate repentance for having shared in those open and subtle sins of selfishness and godlessness which breed wars; second, a challenge to search more earnestly for the will and purpose of God in the affairs of men; third, an invitation to petition for the divine guidance of all those in authority who sincerely seek after a greater righteousness and a better justice for all humanity; fourth, a call to prayer on behalf of all men, women and children, everywhere, both those in the armed forces and civilians, whose lives are caught in the tragic consequences of war and who must experience the agony of body, mind or spirit; fifth, a summons to united prayer for peace and good will among men and for the establishment of those conditions of life within and among the nations which shall constitute the basis of a 'just and durable peace' for all peoples."

URGES CONTOUR PLAN FOR FRUIT

Fruit growers who are planning to establish new plantings of orchard should give careful consideration to the advantages of the contour planting method, compared with the square planting method, W. E. Bell, soil conservationist attached to the Gettysburg office, said Saturday.

The contour planting of orchards is not a new idea. The first contour planting on record in this country was made about 1895. The contour planting of vineyards is an Old World practice dating back for several centuries in locations such as the Rhineland of Germany. Contour planting of orchards was started in Adams county in 1936. Since that time several hundred acres of new orchards in this county have been planted on the contour, Bell stated.

The main reason for contour planting and contour tillage of both orchards and crop land is the control and prevention of soil washing by reducing the rate and amount of surface run-off resulting from intense rainfall. This in turn means more moisture available for tree growth and fruit development, also less loss of plant nutrients from the soil in addition to the saving of the soil itself.

Experiments show that the contour planting and contour tillage of orchards result in a marked increase in yield of fruit, compared to tillage up and down the slope. Contour tillage also affords considerable saving of power in tillage operations. Experiments indicate a substantial cut in power requirements when contour tillage is used. This alone justifies the contour planting method, Mr. Bell declared.

Assistance in the planning and establishing of contour orchard plantings can be obtained from the Farm Forestry and Soil Conservation Service, Murphy Building, Baltimore street.

B. And P. Club Conducts World Fellowship Dinner

Sixty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club were present at the annual World Fellowship Dinner held at the YWCA on Thursday evening. The affair opened with the salute to the flag and the singing of "America" with Miss Genevieve Cluck at the piano. Miss Lona Black gave the prayer. Women in 50 nations comprise the World YWCA and annually they set aside a week for emphasis of fellowship all over the world.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, chairman of the Public Affairs Committee, presided and in explaining the purpose of the dinner she stated that while many world evils will still have to be corrected after the present conflict is over, the immediate challenge to our people is to win the war, and she called for definite suggestions in which citizens could do their share.

These pointers were given by the Misses Myrtle Stauffer, Esther Hartman, Dorothy Foth, Mindelle Weikert, Roberta Bittling, Esther Tipton, Roscoe Arnold, Elizabeth Woods and Mrs. John Pape.

Clarence Nuss, accompanied by Miss Alice M. Snyder, played two violin solos, "Soldier's Chorus" from "Faust" and "In a Rose Garden." Dr. Frederick Tilberg, accompanied by Miss Ruth E. Spangler, sang "Without a Song" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

Decorations were in charge of Miss Janet Scott and consisted of yellow and pink chrysanthemums, with table decorations of bitter sweet, autumn leaves and fall vegetables. In the center of the room was a globe of the world surrounded by small silk flags of all nations.

The dinner was served by the club's ways and means committee. Mrs. Ray Klumiller, chairman. Husbands and friends of members were guests.

Miss Esther Tipton, club president, announced that the club, together with the two local men's service clubs, had been invited to attend the fourth birthday dinner of the Soroptimist club on Monday, November 23, and members wishing to attend should notify her.

Judge W. C. Sheely will teach the Senior department of St. James Lutheran Sunday School Sunday morning.

Mrs. C. H. Hett, Hotel Gettysburg, attended the wedding of her cousin, Miss Eleanor Roberts Nelson, and Lt. John Chambers Good, at the Church of Falling Spring, Chambersburg, Wednesday.

Anna Marie Riley, Gettysburg R. 3, is visiting friends in Pittsburgh.

Those who spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Rush Mellor, near Bonneauville, were Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Sparks and daughter, Marlon, Everett; Mr. and Mrs. Garfield Mellor and daughter, Ruth Ann, and William Robinson, Camp Hill; R. C. The Men's Bible class at St. James Lutheran Sunday School will be taught this week by the Rev. Ralph W. Baker, of Gettysburg. The class will convene at 9:15 a. m.

Another party by St. Francis Xavier parish for the air cadets at the Boulevard airport school and the Catholic students at Gettysburg college will be held Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Xavier hall. The affair will be in the nature of a farewell for cadets who soon will leave the airport school. There will be cards and dancing.

In observance of National Book week, an exhibit of books for adults and children was placed on display Wednesday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg. The display was arranged by Mrs. Richard C. Walton, a member of the club.

Members of the Woman's Club of Gettysburg are filling out questionnaires on war bond and stamp sales requested by the U. S. Treasury department through the war bond and stamp committee of the General Federation of Women's clubs. The questionnaires were distributed at the club meeting on Wednesday and are to be placed in special boxes at the "Y" building or the Majestic theatre today or Saturday. The questionnaires which are to be assigned will give the name of the club, the county in which it is located and a statement as to whether the club member or her husband is purchasing bonds or stamps regularly. An estimate also is asked of the maturity value of the bonds and stamps so purchased since May 1 of last year.

B. And P. Club Conducts World Fellowship Dinner

Sixty-five members and guests of the Business and Professional Women's club were present at the annual World Fellowship Dinner held at the YWCA on Thursday evening. The affair opened with the salute to the flag and the singing of "America" with Miss Genevieve Cluck at the piano. Miss Lona Black gave the prayer. Women in 50 nations comprise the World YWCA and annually they set aside a week for emphasis of fellowship all over the world.

Mrs. Guyon E. Buehler, chairman of the Public Affairs Committee, presided and in explaining the purpose of the dinner she stated that while many world evils will still have to be corrected after the present conflict is over, the immediate challenge to our people is to win the war, and she called for definite suggestions in which citizens could do their share.

These pointers were given by the Misses Myrtle Stauffer, Esther Hartman, Dorothy Foth, Mindelle Weikert, Roberta Bittinger, Esther Tipton, Rosa Amor, Elizabeth Woods and Mrs. John Pape.

Clarence Nuss, accompanied by Miss Alice M. Snyder, played two violin solos, "Soldier's Chorus" from "Faust" and "In a Rose Garden." Dr. Frederick Tilberg, accompanied by Miss Ruth E. Spangler, sang "Without a Song" and "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes."

Decorations were in charge of Miss Janet Scott and consisted of yellow and pink chrysanthemums, with table decorations of bitter sweet, autumn leaves and fall vegetables. In the center of the room was a globe of the world surrounded by small silk flags of all nations.

The dinner was served by the club's ways and means committee, Mrs. Ray Kitzmiller, chairman. Husbands and friends of members were guests.

Miss Esther Tipton, club president, announced that the club, together with the two local men's service clubs, had been invited to attend the fourth birthday dinner of the Soroptimist club on Monday, November 23, and members wishing to attend should notify her.

THE PRICE

No joy without attendant care.
No blossom but has come through rain.
No pride without its ache to bear,
No triumph without stress and strain.
No worthwhile gain without its price
In courage, faith and sacrifice.

If laughter is worthwhile to seek,
And pleasure is a good desire,
Then men must stand where frail and weak
And timid very quickly tire.
For laughter is by merit earned
And is with courage much concerned.

All bits of glory and delight,
All love, esteem and friendships true
Come from the struggle to be right
And what for truth men dare to do.
The life triumphant everywhere
Is based on courage and on care.

LATE AUTUMN

The arms of the elm tree are bare,
In shreds is the maple's red gown.
There are signs in the yard which declare
King Winter's besieging the town.
The frosts, and the winds which precede
The first swift arrival of snow,
Have struck at both blossom and weed
With fury and leveled them low.

The songbirds have fled from the cold,
Gone are robin and martin and wren.
Now sparrows and blue jays will hold
The field till the spring comes again.

Not much will remain that is fair
On the day when King Winter arrives,
For all that no hardship can bear
In terror have fled for their lives.

TOMORROW

Always and ever tomorrow,
The day of our hopes and our dreams;
The end of all failure and sorrow,
How close and how far off it seems!
Tomorrow—the goal a day nearer,
Tomorrow—one day farther on!
The way just a little bit clearer
And some old discouragement gone!

Always and ever before us
Tomorrow holds promises fair;
Life just a bit easier for us
And lighter its burdens to bear.
Tomorrow—then loosened some fetter,
Some evil of old set aright.
Life richer and gayer and better,
Tomorrow—just after tonight!

Tomorrow, with beauty of morning
And evening and nighttime and noon,
Tomorrow—the better day dawning
For all of us later or soon.
Long yesterdays, over and ended,
Lie down with the past in the grave.
But forever to victories splendid
Tomorrow will welcome the brave.

RUMOR

Let a rumor on the spot,
Lift it die and be forgot.
If you scorn to pass it on,
It will soon be dead and gone.
Be polite, but be discreet,
Ugly stories don't repeat.
If it's whispered unto you,
You can bet it isn't true.

If it's good news for the foe,
Ten to one it isn't so.
To be silent's very wise,
Unrepeated rumor dies.
If it's vicious if it's vile
Think it over for awhile.
And then kill it. Be the one
Much too smart to pass it on!

Flashes Of Life

(By The Associated Press)

SUPERSTITIOUS AGE

Indianapolis—Nancy Linkhart is having a birthday today, Friday the 13th, and has invited 13 guests, one for each letter of her name. Guess how old she will be?

TALKING POINT

Yakima, Wash.—D. F. Morgan's home was burglarized during his two weeks' absence. There is one clue: His telephone bill shows someone put in a long distance call while he was away.

WORRY, WORRY

Seattle, Wash.—Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, associate editor of the Post-Intelligencer, has been fretting about her mother, For Eleanor Roosevelt is in England and has been in several danger zones. Then Mrs. Boettiger received a letter from mother, she reported in her weekly women's page. Mrs. Roosevelt said she had enjoyed visiting with her son, Elliott, "but I can't help worrying about every one of you at home."

CHURCH ATTRACTION

Chicago—Dr. Charles R. Goff, pastor of the Loop Skyscraper Methodist church, wanted to know why the pews of his church were being filled to overflowing. In a questionnaire submitted to members of the congregation and asking for an explanation of what brought them to church, 24 per cent said they followed the chimel.

PREMATURE CELEBRATION

Reading, Pa. (AP)—Santa Claus came early for Albert Pfennig, 5, and Skipper Komodi, 4. They disappeared. Police searched the city for five hours—and finally found them in the Pfennig attic playing with toys that Albert wasn't supposed to discover until Christmas.

FIRE HAZARD

Columbia, S. C. (AP)—Fire-cautions retail stores are keeping a watchful eye on their baby pants. Fire Chief A. McG. Marsh said he had received a report that tests showed a $56,000 fire at a 5 and 10 cent store here last September was caused by spontaneous combustion in 52 dozen baby pants.

CHRISTMAS GIFT

Huntington Park, Calif. (AP)—Christmas street decorations won't have lights this year. Dim-out, you know.

So Chairman Harry J. Weinberg of the chamber of commerce has presented a $1,200 check to the Treasury department for the operation of its war bond sales office here.

That's what it used to cost to buy and operate the 20,000 holiday lights.

STARTLING SERVICE

Kansas City (AP)—Ralph Hurst had just been talking about how the war had slowed mail service a bit.

That is why he blushed when he noticed the envelope on his desk. It was postmarked out of Philadelphia, "Nov. 21, 1942."

MACHINE AGE

White Plains, N. Y. (AP)—Swarms of hunters scoured Westchester county's hills on the first day of the hunting season, but the weapons were restricted by law to bows and arrows.

When the day ended, only two deer were reported killed—and not by arrows.

They were run over by automobiles.

IT'S A PIPE

Wilmington, Calif. (AP)—Royal Porter, 1,000th graduate of the California Shipbuilding Corporation Pipefitting school, got his diploma in a special exercise.

The diploma was a shiny length of two-inch pipe, the first he had threaded, decorated with a huge bow ribbon.

SHARE AND SHARE ALIKE

Plummer, Idaho (AP)—Grocer A. J. Brutzman never can be accused of hoarding.

Customers depleted his stock of coffee. Then his wife appeared to ask for a pound.

Grocer Brutzman finally obtained one from a sympathetic competitor.

CHEAP WISHES

Fort Benning, Ga. (AP)—The 124th Infantry set up a stone "wishing well" where soldiers may kneel and wish for anything from a furlough to a transfer to Africa—after they lose in a penny.

So far, 800 pennies have been taken from the well and used to buy goldfish for the place. Among the pennies were 35 slugs.

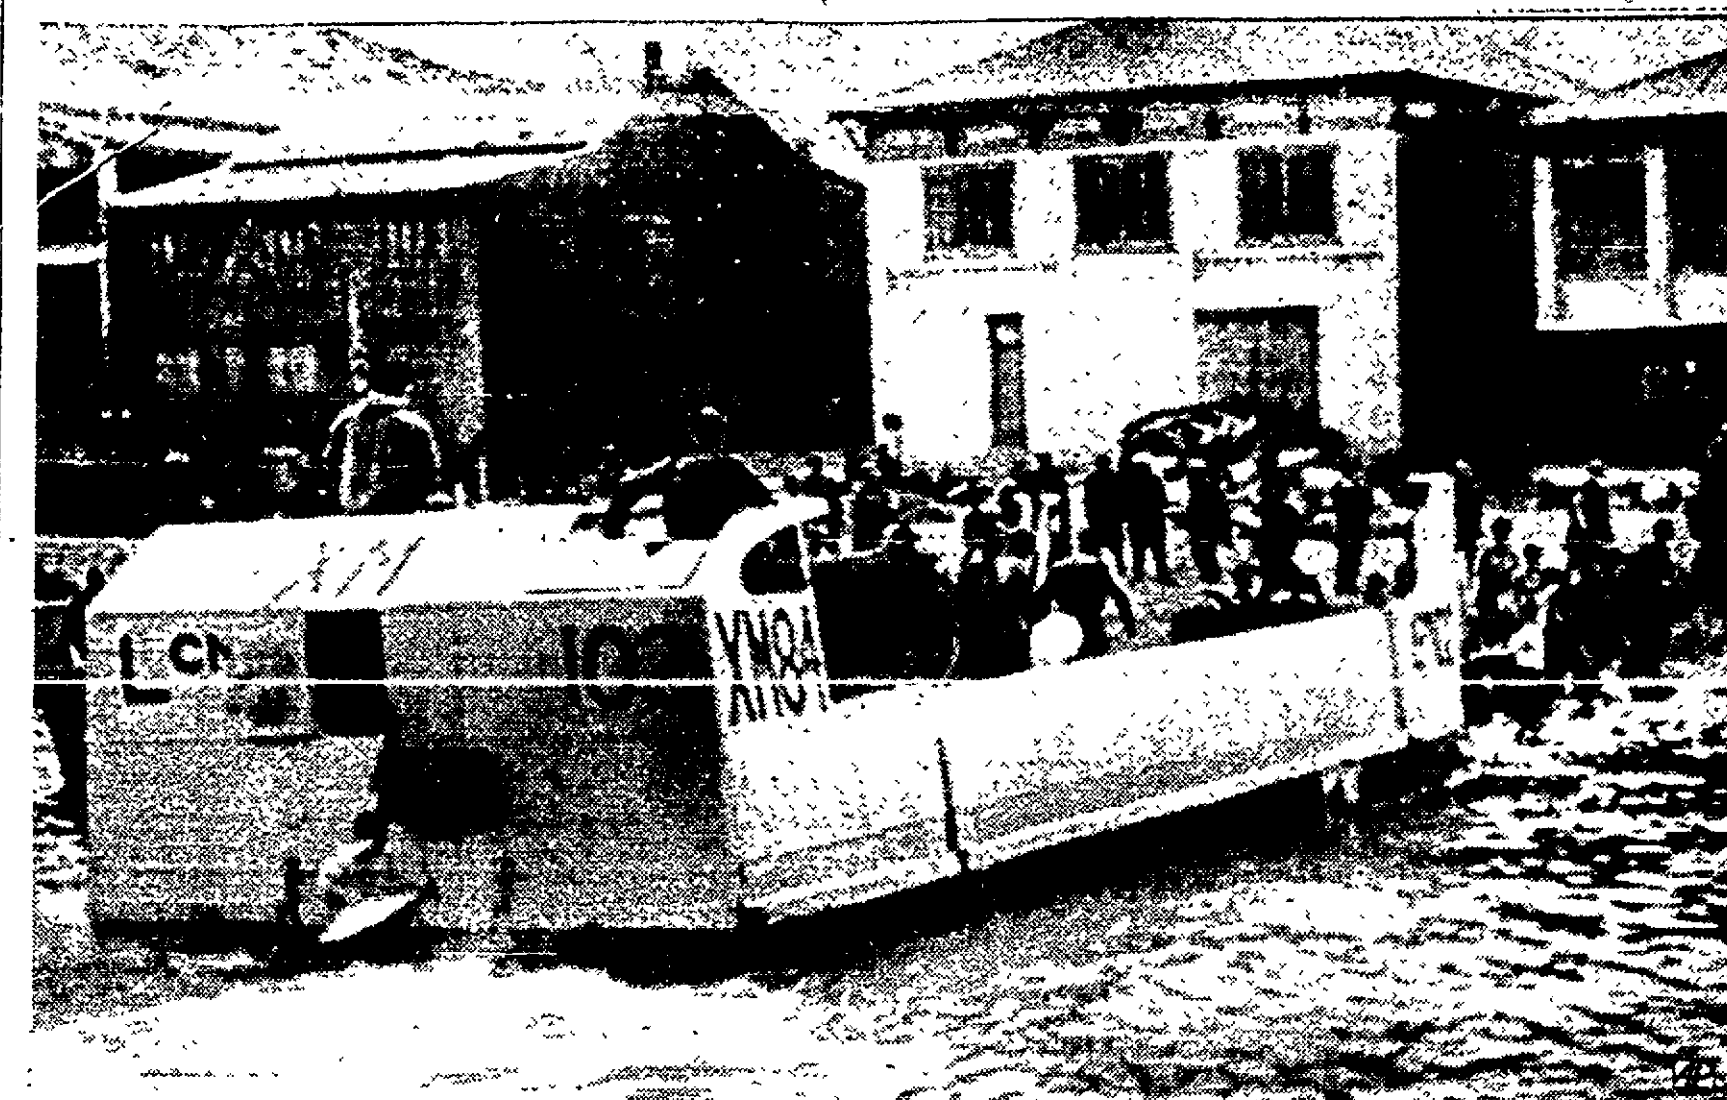

SUPER SERVICE

Seattle (AP)—The prisoner who petitioned for a transfer from the city jail to an outdoor camp wanted top speed in delivery.

So he put an airmail stamp on his letter to acting police Judge Roy De Grief. The letter arrived next day in De Grief's office—five floors below the jail.

Chicago (AP)—To carry a package out of a war plant requires a pass. At a Chicago plant a worker requested a pass.

First Picture Of U.S. Landings On North Africa Front

ANNUAL BANQUET NEXT SATURDAY

The twelfth annual banquet of the Past Commanders and Past Presidents' association of the Sons of Union Veterans will be held at the Hotel Gettysburg Saturday evening, November 21 at 6:30 o'clock. It has been announced by Mrs. E. F. Strausbaugh.

Henry M. Towle, of Maine, commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans, Pennsylvania Department, Commander Frank M. Heacock, of Media, Mrs. Margaret McKinney, of Philadelphia, department president of the Ladies Auxiliary and department heads of the Ladies of the GAR, Woman's Relief corps and Daughters of Veterans, will attend the dinner.

Colonel Neal A. Harper of the Carlisle barracks will be the speaker.

General Assembly—Baughner, D., 4,474, and Wooley, R., 5,896.

Liquor Vendors Must Hold Prices

Harrisburg, November 14—Hotels, restaurants and tavern operators were warned today by the Office of Price Administration that they are not permitted to increase the prices of liquors, wines, or beers.

They may, however, add to their March ceiling price of wines and liquors the exact amount that the new tax rate justifies. Beer prices for draught beer over the bar must remain the same as heretofore.

Consumers are requested to report to the OPA any price increase over and above the exact amount of the new tax. All permitted increases due to the new tax resulting in a fractional cent shall be raised to the next higher cent if the fraction is one-half cent or more. But if the fraction is less than one-half cent the retailer may not add it to his price.

Two Local Youths Start Naval Duty

John H. Pitzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Pitzer, West Middle street, reported Wednesday for active duty in Philadelphia as a member of the United States Naval Reserves. He is a graduate of Gettysburg high school and was associated with his father in the tailoring business.

Thomas Whittinghill, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Whittinghill, Eberhart apartments, also reported at Philadelphia, Wednesday, where he enlisted in the Navy.

3 AUTO MODELS STILL 'FROZEN'

Holders of rationing certificates authorizing the purchase of new passenger automobiles are still forbidden by the Office of Price Administration to purchase 1942 model Chevrolet, Ford and Plymouth four-door, hard-topped sedans, Guy J. Swope, district OPA manager, announced Tuesday.

These models were frozen August 18 by an order originally intended to expire October 31st, Mr. Swope pointed out, but the OPA has now extended the expiration date until December 31st. The order was originally put into effect to halt sales of these models to civilians in order to make these vehicles available for purchase by the Army and the Navy. Extension of the freeze date has been made necessary because of the needs of the armed forces.

Buy Rubber Goods
Application for rationing certificates authorizing the purchase of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes may be handled by mail, Donald P. McPherson, Jr., chairman of the county rationing board, said today. Where the applications are approved the certificate may be mailed to the applicant although the board reserves the right to require the applicant to appear personally.

In another announcement, motor- ing between summer and winter vacation homes is ruled out for the duration of mileage rationing, the OPA said.

Two Scarlet Fever Cases Quarantined

Two additional cases of scarlet fever were quarantined in rural Adams county this morning by William I. Shields, county health officer.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Lohr Klinefelter, Gettysburg R. 4, in Straban township was placarded because of the illness of Florence Alda, aged six years, one of seven children in the home.

The home of Oliver Sanders, Fairfield R. 1, Liberty township, also has been quarantined. A grandchild, Edward Sanders, aged two years, who lives in that home, is ill. The child is a son of Guy Sanders.

Relief Department Positions Are Open

The Employment Board of the state Department of Public Assistance has announced open competitive examinations for the positions of director of personnel paying $5,000 to $6,000 a year, assistant personnel director at a salary of $3,600 to $4,600 and personnel supervisor from $2,760 to $3,450 a year.

The applications must be filed before December 2, while December 12 has been set as the date for the examination. Applicants will be rated on the extent, recency and degree of experience they have gained in fields related to the positions for which they are applying.

Preston Smith, McSherrystown; Robert B. Martin, Fairfield; W. A. Raffensperger, Ardenstville; and Wilbur A. Bankert, treasurer of the "Littlestown State bank.

Dr. Charles C. Ellis, president of Juniata college at Huntingdon, Pa., was the principal speaker. His theme was "Efficient Personality."

Opening his address with the observation that "in every crisis, there is a time when we ought to take stock of our ideals," the college president declared that the significant thing about American life is "not efficiency but personality—not personal efficiency but efficient personality."

Essential prerequisites of an "efficient personality" are physical vitality, mental alertness and moral integrity and earnestness, he explained. "An efficient personality deals with things as tools for men and women; deals with people in the right way and looks upward in an essential relationship with God," he concluded.

Quartet Entertains

The bankers, their wives and other guests numbering 116 were entertained at several times during the evening by special popular, classic and patriotic songs by the Capital City quartet from Harrisburg.

Doctor Westlake met with a group of school teachers at Biglerville and outlined speech correction training and for the benefit of the teachers with pupils having defective hearing he gave instructions on teaching lip reading.

Other pupils with hearing and speech defects will be examined later.

Rotarians Discuss News Events Of '20s

Events before and after the signing of the armistice in 1918 comprised the topic of the program for the weekly luncheon meeting of the Gettysburg Rotary club in the Y. W. C. A. building Monday evening.

The discussion was led by Dr. J. Walter Coleman, chairman of the international service committee of the club. The Rotarians answered pertaining to news events covering the war period and the years between 1920 and 1930.

In celebration of the fourth anniversary of the Scorpianist club next Monday, the Rotarians and Lions of Gettysburg have been invited by the women's club to attend a program at the Blue Parrot tea room.

MINISTERS FIX SPECIAL DATES; REMIND TOWN OF 'PRAYER MINUTE'

Arrangements for the Thanksgiving Day service and the annual Week of Prayer services here were made by the Gettysburg Ministerium at its regular fall meeting held in the Presbyterian church Wednesday afternoon. The ministers also elected officers.

The Thanksgiving service will be held in the United Brethren church on Thursday, November 26, at 9 a. m. The sermon for the exercises, which are conducted annually by the Gettysburg churches, will be delivered by the Rev. Ralph R. Gresh, St. James Lutheran pastor. The offering will be donated to the Civic Nursing association.

Officers Chosen

As planned by the ministers, the Week of Prayer services will be held during the first week in 1943.

The Rev. Dwight F. Putman, pastor of Christ Lutheran church, was elected president of the Ministerium and the Rev. Howard S. Fox, Trinity Evangelical and Reformed pastor, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Following the meeting, the Rev. Mr. Putman said:

"The ministers of the churches direct the attention of the people of the community to the daily minute prayer. The Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America are sponsoring one minute of common prayer at 6 p. m., when the hearts and minds of people everywhere may be united in meditation and petition."

"The chimel of the churches and the 6 o'clock bells will constitute the audible call, while all who are in their homes at that hour may be further guided by the minute of meditation as broadcast over station WOR."

Purpose of Prayer

"Let this 'prayer minute' be, first, a summons to individual and corporate repentance for having shared in those open and subtle sins of selfishness and godlessness which breed wars; second, a challenge to search more earnestly for the will and purpose of God in the affairs of men; third, an invitation to petition for the divine guidance of all those in authority who sincerely seek after a greater righteousness and a better justice for all humanity; fourth, a call to prayer on behalf of all men, women and children, everywhere, both those in the armed forces and civilians, whose lives are caught in the tragic consequences of war and who must experience the agony of body, mind or spirit; fifth, a summons to united prayer for peace and good will among men and for the establishment of those conditions of life within and among the nations which shall constitute the basis of a 'just and durable peace' for all peoples."

URGES CONTOUR PLAN FOR FRUIT

Fruit growers who are planning to establish new plantings of orchard should give careful consideration to the advantages of the contour planting method, compared with the square planting method, W. E. Bell, soil conservationist attached to the Gettysburg office, said Saturday.

The contour planting of orchards is not a new idea. The first contour planting on record in this country was made about 1895. The contour planting of vineyards is an old World practice dating back for several centuries in locations such as the Rhineland of Germany. Contour planting of orchards was started in Adams county in 1936. Since that time several hundred acres of new orchards in this county have been planted on the contour, Bell stated.

The main reason for contour planting and contour tillage of both orchards and crop land is the control and prevention of soil washing by reducing the rate and amount of surface run-off resulting from intense rainfall. This in turn means more moisture available for tree growth and fruit development, also less loss of plant nutrients from the soil in addition to the saving of the soil itself.

Experiments show that the contour planting and contour tillage of orchards result in a marked increase in yield of fruit, compared to tillage up and down the slope. Contour tillage also affords considerable saving of power in tillage operations. Experiments indicate a substantial cut in power requirements when contour tillage is used. This alone justifies the contour planting method, Mr. Bell declared.

Assistance in the planning and establishing of contour orchard plantings can be obtained from the Farm Forestry and Soil Conservation Service, Murphy Building, Baltimore street.

Hoover Down With Most of His 'Old Guard': Roosevelt Sweeps Nation with All Time Record Vote—(By the AP) Marching resolutely in the parade which takes Roosevelt to the White House and Garner to the vice presidency, democrats continued to mow down their opponents in numbers which became startling as the count of Tuesday's election neared its finish.

President Hoover, apparently more decisively defeated than was Alfred E. Smith in 1928, clung to a bare six states, indicating the possibility of an all time record electoral vote of 472 for Roosevelt.

Adams County Supports All Democrats with Large Majorities: Riding on the high tide of the greatest national democratic landslide in 40 years, Adams county voters swing into the democratic column with apparent victories for all candidates. Only the state remained steadfastly republican.

Lawrence H. Rupp, of Allentown, defeated U. S. Senator James J. Davis in Adams county by 1,260 votes and Harry L. Haines, of Red Lion, defeated Leighton C. Taylor, of Bendersville, by 2,493 ballots.

Dr. H. M. Hartman, running well ahead of the entire democratic ticket, swamped Robert E. Tipton for the state legislature by 3,122 votes in the most outstanding race of the campaign.

John S. Rice of Arendtsville, is conceded victor over State Senator C. H. Clipping, of Chambersburg, by some 400 votes.

Rigid Economy Is Roosevelt's Promise to U. S.—Washington (AP)—Franklin Delano Roosevelt will enter the White House as 32nd president next March. Repeatedly the president elect has promised an efficient economy.

Hoover Down With Most of His "Old Guard": Roosevelt Sweeps Nation with All Time Record Vote—(By the AP) Marching resolutely in the parade which takes Roosevelt to the White House and Garner to the vice presidency, democrats continued to mow down their opponents in numbers which became startling as the count of Tuesday's election neared its finish.

President Hoover, apparently more decisively defeated than was Alfred E. Smith in 1928, clung to a bare six states, indicating the possibility of an all time record electoral vote of 472 for Roosevelt.

Adams County Supports All Democrats with Large Majorities: Riding on the high tide of the greatest national democratic landslide in 40 years, Adams county voters swung into the democratic column with apparent victories for all candidates. Only the state remained steadfastly republican.

Lawrence H. Rupp, of Allentown, defeated U. S. Senator James J. Davis in Adams county by 1,260 votes and Harry L. Haines, of Red Lion, defeated Leighton C. Taylor, of Bendersville, by 2,493 ballots.

Dr. H. M. Hartman running well ahead of the entire democratic ticket swamped Robert E. Tipton for the state legislature by 3,122 votes in the most outstanding race of the campaign.

John S. Rice of Arendtsville, is conceded victor over State Senator C. H. Clippinger, of Chambersburg, by some 400 votes.

Rigid Economy Is Roosevelt's Promise to U. S.—Washington (AP)—Franklin Delano Roosevelt will enter the White House as 32nd president next March. Repeatedly the president elect has promised an efficient

Gettysburg women bridge players got an unexpected "peek" at how Uncle Sam is training his huge army the other night with the result that they may have given aid to the "enemy" and maybe they didn't... because no one knows even who was the "enemy."

While Mrs. Richard Brown was entertaining a bridge club at her home on the Fairfield road two soldiers appeared at the home and asked for something to eat. Rather surprised at this unusual request Mrs. Brown did not know what to do... she knows that Uncle Sam feeds his army well.

However, the two soldiers finally persuaded Mrs. Brown with their story. They said they were sent out from their camp (they did not say where their camp was located) without food or money and directed to reach a specified objective and return to camp within a specified time... to avoid being "captured" by a patrol that would be sent in pursuit shortly after they left camp... that they would have to forage for their food, make their way as best as possible... but in any event to avoid "capture."

That sounded like a good story and so Mrs. Brown set out a fine meal for the two young men which they ate with considerable zest and appreciativeness. When they were finished they thanked Mrs. Brown, stepped outside, darted around the side of the house and out across the open field in the rear of the home. They had said that they were avoiding all main highways and were on their way back to camp.

It's a pleasure and a privilege to be a resident of Gettysburg and Adams county. When it comes to doing things in a big way Adams county is second to no other county in the state. Here are some supporting facts: The Red Cross asked us to raise $13,000. We went over the top. The Treasury department asked us to sell $136,700 worth of war bonds in October. We went over the top by more than $23,000. The USO asked us to raise $5,000 in two weeks. We went over the top by more than $1,000. And so it goes. One after another and Adams county always comes through.

Yes, Uncle Sam, you can always depend on Adams county.

"Forward With Books" is the nation-wide theme of the twenty-fourth annual festival Bookweek. Over the radio, in the press, schools, churches, clubs, libraries, and homes the theme is developed in a country-wide effort to increase wider love of books for information as well as for morale building and recreation. Public opinion grows out of an aroused interest and books help in this. The most remote home is no longer isolated from the good effects of good reading nor should it be possible longer for any citizen to suffer from too few books received too late. In war as in peace, books continue to be the medium through which the greater part of public education at all age levels must be carried on.

It is the purpose of Bookweek to develop on a nation-wide basis the love of books, an increased public appreciation of books, an increased public demand for public book facilities, and to encourage private book ownership and companionship.

With the national theme as its goal, Adams County observes Bookweek, November 15-21. "Forward With Books" is the center of book displays, club discussions, school assemblies, sermons, and fireside home reading. Adams countians are invited each in some appropriate way to observe "Book Week."

3 INJURED AT TWO TAVERNS

Three persons were injured, none seriously, when two cars collided on the Gettysburg-Littlestown highway in front of Yost's store a mile south of Two Taverns at 6:15 p. m. Thursday. Both cars were damaged beyond repair with the total loss being estimated at about $350.

The collision occurred as Leslie Kennel, Gettysburg R. D., enroute to Littlestown where he is employed at a shoe factory, stopped to pick up a passenger in front of the store building. The rear of his machine was struck by a car operated by Glenn I. Sherman, 22, 1 Hanover street.

Sherman, who was enroute to the Glenn Martin plant at Baltimore where he had been ordered to report for work, suffered abrasions of one arm and was burned about one hand when he attempted to smother flames that appeared in the motor of his car after the crash. The Mt. Joy community fire company used extinguishers to put out the flames.

Mrs. Doris Sherman, 18, wife of the operator, suffered concussion and a cut over her left eye. Their six-week-old son, Glenn, Jr., also a passenger in the car, was unhurt.

Only occupant of the other car to be injured was Irvin Straley, 19, Littlestown R. 2, the passenger for whom Kennel had stopped. Straley received multiple lacerations about the face and a sprained back. All of the injured were brought to the Warner hospital in the Littlestown ambulance. They were discharged after receiving treatment.

Private R. H. Bruce, of the Gettysburg detail of the state motor police, is investigating the mishap.

Letters To The Editor

The Gettysburg Times Gentlemen:

I have just finished reading your first special edition of your paper to those in the service. I think the idea is a grand one and look forward to receiving each issue in the future.

We are now in a new camp and will send you my new address so I can read about what happens at home as I cannot be there now. I like this place very well and also the surrounding country. The mountains are beautifully covered with snow and we have had snow several times. I want to thank you for your paper. I wanted to tell you that I was promoted to private first class on October 1.

Very truly yours,
PFC James W. Miller,
Pocatello, Idaho.

Teacher Elected For Wolford's School

Mrs. Cloo C. Neely, York Springs, was elected as the new teacher at Wolford's school at a meeting of the Latimore township school board on Wednesday evening filling the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. Ruth A. Deatrick, East Berlin R. 2.

Mrs. Deatrick goes to Hartman's school in Hamilton township which was resigned by Mrs. Anna M. Althoff who went to a Liberty township school near her home.

These exchanges of teachers are others in a series of similar shifts which place a number of rural teachers at schools much nearer their homes than those where they taught previously, thus reducing gas and rubber consumption for traveling to and from school.

CHANGES PLEA IN TIPSU CASE; CIVIL SUITS NEXT

After two witnesses for the Commonwealth testified Monday morning, Percy L. Laughman, Hanover R. 2, first defendant to go on trial changed his plea from "not guilty" to "guilty" and the trial ended abruptly. Laughman was charged with operating a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

Laughman, who was charged by Chief of Police H. S. Roberts of Littlestown, was represented by Richard A. Brown, Esq. He was arrested near Littlestown the night of August 30. Laughman changed his plea after a companion named him as driver of the machine and after his employer told of having sent him home from his place of employment as a night watchman at a Hanover plant because of his intoxication.

The jury in the Laughman case was dismissed.

A decree in divorce was signed in court here Saturday by Judge W. C. Sheely in the case of Myrtle Richard Welch, Tyrone township, vs. Edward W. Welch, address unknown, on grounds of desertion.

Inspect County Buildings

The grand jurors made inspections of county buildings Friday at direction of the court after completing action on cases placed before them by District Attorney J. Francis Yake. After their inspection tour the jurors submitted a one-sentence report, signed by Foreman A. J. Carbaugh, which stated simply: "Have no recommendations to make in way of repairs."

The grand jurors refused to indict William Lemmon, 55-year-old German township resident, on a charge of practicing veterinary medicine without a state license. Costs of the case were placed on the county. The prosecutor was H. R. Spald, representative of the state Department of Public Instruction, Bureau of Licenses.

The grand jury also ignored a fraudulent conversion count involving a $50 dog against J. O. Slaybaugh, Franklin township. The costs of the case were placed on the prosecutor, Donald Heffer, also of Franklin township.

Held For Court

At a hearing Friday afternoon Harry Elmer Martin, York, was found guilty of speeding at 62 miles an hour on the Lincoln highway east of Gettysburg in February and was fined $10 and the costs. Private James A. Rose of the state motor police was the prosecutor. Martin contended he was driving 48 or 49 miles an hour when the officer stopped him.

Paul Wisotzky, Littlestown R. 1, was ordered to pay $5 weekly for the support of his wife, Mary Jane, after a hearing before the court. He must also pay the costs of the case and post a $500 bond.

In another hearing in a non-support case, Lawrence Hinkle, Gettysburg, was granted a continuance with Hinkle being directed to pay the costs of his case at the rate of $2 per week.

Must Appear in Court

An order was handed down in court Friday morning directing James F. G. Sheffer to appear in court November 21 to clear up discrepancies in his testimony in the pending divorce action against his wife, Mary M. Sheffer.

A rule was issued on C. Ronald Rice, York, to show cause why a process should not be issued for his arrest for failing in arrears with court-ordered payments.

Settlements were announced in the three actions against H. J. S. Ziegler, Mt. Joy township. There were two charges of malicious mischief and one of maintaining a public nuisance.

With the reading of the verdict in the case of Vernon C. Crouse, Littlestown at 3:20 o'clock Monday afternoon in Adams county court, the November quarter session of criminal court ended making way for the opening of civil trials.

Crouse was found guilty on one serious count involving an eight-year-old Littlestown girl who was the commonwealth's chief witness. The jury recommended leniency for Crouse in that case and acquitted him of a second serious accusation. The verdict was returned an hour and 10 minutes after the case was placed in the hands of the all-male jury for decision.

Crouse did not take the witness stand in his own defense. Richard A. Brown, Esq., his counsel, simply addressed the jury in his behalf.

The Crouse case jury: John Butler, Hamilton Twp.; the Rev. Emmert G. Colestock, Fairfield; Kermit Deardorff, Steinwehr avenue; Charles H. Eyster, Hanover R. 4; Robert Hamilton, Gettysburg R. 2; Mahlon P. Hartzell, East Lincoln avenue; Lester N. Hoover, Abbottstown; William A. Smith, Aspers; Melvin Spangler, New Oxford; Wilbur Turkey, Biglerville R. 1; Elmer C. Wagner, York Springs R. 7, and Charles Zhea, South Washington street.
